SNOW REPORTED 12 INCHES, MONMOUTH

MONMOUTH, Jan. 20.—With a fall of 10 to 12 inches of snow on the level, and deep drifts along fence rows, Monmouth has been experiencing the heaviest snow and probably the coldest weather since 1919-20. Trucks and cars in ditches are common sight, and traffic is impeded by the drifts. Fifteen cars were noted held up yesterday morning north of town, due to an uncleared drift.

Less sickness than usually accompanies such severe weather here, is reported this winter. Minimum sickness prevails among the students and faculty of the Normal, and the high school.

The coldest temperature reported was 7 above.

Friday the school bus transporting children from Lewisville and Elkins to Monmouth, was unable to make the run due to bad road and drifts.

ACCIDENT VICTIMS ARE IN CRITICAL CONDITION IS REPORT

MONMOUTH, Jan. 20—Mrs. Ardie Parker, preceptress of the Oregon Normal school dormitory, was called to Portland yesterday by the serious condition of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Tobias of Beaverton, who both sustained severe injuries when their automobile went over an embankment on the Canyon road enroute to Portland.

Mrs. Tobias suffered concussion of the brain and facial abrasions; and Mr. Tobias is said to have sustained a broken collar bone and vertebral inpuries. They were removed to Good Samaritan hospital, Portland, but suffered from exposure before assistance was obtained.

As both are in a critical condition, Mrs. Parker's return to her duties here may be delayed.

West Salem

The community club will hold its regular meeting Monday evening, January 20, in their hall. The new officers will be installed and routine business transacted.

The program will consist of a moving picture show and refreshments. Be sure and attend this meeting. Everything is free.

As soon as the weather permits M. A. Vandenburg and Harry W. McDowell will begin work on a large pruning job.

Dale Dixon is visiting in Turner at the home of his friend, James Hinkle.

There is a possibility that the gas company of Salem will extend its service into West Salem in the near future. The company has been making a survey, it has been reported.

C. E. Stewart and those working for him have been very busy keeping wood ahead during this cold season. They now have a large amount ready for use.

H. M. Mead, of the Mead Honey company was a business visitor in Portland the first of the week.

Some of the window panes, have been broken at Sloper's Meat market of Edgewater street, since graveling along the street has been done.

A play will be given the last of the month in the community hall of Mountain View. Rehearsals are now being held.

POLISH ACE TRAINS FOR DEBUT

Stanislaw Petkiewicz, Poland's famous track star, and conqueror of Paavo Nurmi, the flying Finn, about to make a sprint at 102d Engineers Armory, New York, where he is training for his first American appearances. The fleet-footed Pole is considered one of the track sensations of recent years.

Old Dobbin Comes Into His Own Again In Snow

ZENA, Jan. 20.—"Old Dobbin" the faithful has been in great deman here during this cold weather. Trucks and private cars which have been stuck in deep drifts and unable to get out by their own power, finally resorted to that good old standby, a team of horses.

Horsedrawn snow plows have been used to clear the roads of snow for motor driven vehicles. Farmers with stock at a distance have hitched a team to a big wagon box on runners to take hay to them. Children living two or three miles from school have had merry rides on sleds drawn by one or two horses. In fact, it is much simpler to hitch up "Old Dobbin" than it is to put water in the car and then maybe have to crank it for a hour before it starts; then perhaps get stuck and have to walk home and get the horses at last.

YAMHILL TAX LEVY

McMINNVILLE, Jan. 20.—The current Yamhill county tax levy shows a slight increase over that of last year, W. L. Osburn, county assessor, has announced. Of the ten cities in the county, but three will receive a reduction in taxes this year, the assessor says.

Reduction of taxable property in the county is the reason for the increase, Mr. Osburn says. The total assessment roll this year amounts to $824,456.52 as against $837,046.95 for the previous year.

SWEGLE CLUB HAS RADIO PROGRAM

SWEGLE Jan. 20— Swegle Community club met at the appointed time Friday evening, with an attendance of approximatly fifty. A delicious pot luck supper was prepared by the ladies and enjoyed by all at the evening meal hour of six-thirty.

Inventor Marion West provided an ingeniously arranged broadcasting outfit and R. A. West was the announcer from KSCC. Recitations were "radioed" to the audience by Velma Silver, Mary and Louise Whitehead and Ruby West.

The Iiams boys, Edgar, Richard and Howard presented two vocal duets with violin accompaniment. Edgar being the violinist.

Mr. Spiers delighted everyone with a reading, "Laska," followed by a clever "Ford" encore.

Mr. Marshall delighted everyone with his violin selections of old-time music.

Mr. Whitehead presented a very laughable burlesque on the broadcast cooking schools, posing as Miss Burnit Brown. He was delightfully costumed.

The following committees were appointed to prepare for the next meeting February 21. Program: Carl Hoffman, Mrs. Iiams, Mrs. Borgman.

Eats: Mrs. Schweining, Mrs. Darcy, Mrs. Welty.

SWEGLE FAIMILES VISIT RICKEY CLUB

SWEGLE, Jan. 20—The Spiers and West families attended the Rickey Community club meeting and report a delightful visit.

Grant Spiers is attending the Y. M. C. A. radio school in Portland, having enrolled there last week.

A goodly crowd of Willamette and commercial college friends of Marion and Roscoe West surprised them Wednesday evening with an old fashioned bob-sled party and wiener-roast. The West fireplace served in lieu of a bonfire.

Pupils neither absent nor tardy during the past report month: John Whitehead, Clayton Dalke, Repben Imig, Perry Darcy, Ruby West, Laura Dalke and David Strutz.

Henry Darcy is home for the week-end from his work in West Stayton.

"SERVICE" IS NOT OUR MOTTO "IT'S OUR BUSINESS"

"Doc" Riley Unwilling Guest of Police Chief; Joke Lasts Long Hours

The Portland police patrol wagon dashed wildly up the street and came to a clanging halt in front of the Congress hotel on Tuesday. Three burly specimen's of Portland's "finest and best" rushed into the hotel.

By the time hey appeared again some 600 people had gathered in the street to learn the cause of the clamor. The officers appeared dragging the culprit between them. Just before he was pushed into the patrol car a bystander gasped, "It's Doc Riley." Identification was sure. It was Dr. P. O. Riley, editor of the Hubbard Enterprise, president of the Marion county Federation of Community clubs, announced candidate for state senator, and one of the best known men in Marion county.

A horror stricken friend followed the patrol car to the police station at 2nd and Oak streets. What were the charges? Officers seemed reluctant to answer. Pictures were taken, finger prints were made and compared with those of wanted criminals and finally the wide eyed prisoner was locked in the padded cell reserved for violent cases.

Hours passed and still no definite information could be secured by anxious inquirers.

After eight hours had elapsed the prisoner was released and no charges were preferred against him. Why?

After much difficulty inquiring friends learned that Mr. Riley was charged with impersonating an officer and it was found that he had in his possession the badge of a police reserve which was identified as belonging to "Hy" Everding.

Following eight hours spent in the city bastile, Mr. Riley was released and the charges were dismissed. Why?

Because "Doc's" friends on the Portland police force, aided and abetted by Everding, were having a good time at his expense. tatives of the local press they seemed to think it was a great joke. If Riley believes they have a perverted sense of humor he has failed to say so.

When questioned by representatives of the local press Dr. Riley denied that the affair was a publicity stunt to further his candidacy for state senator.

CAR STICKS IN SNOW

AMITY, Jan. 20. — Thursday, S. P. Van Dyke, of Newberg, and his guest, B. E. Kesler, a merchant of Poplar Bluff, Missouri, who were enroute to Missouri, were stuck in the snow north of this city, and were towed in. They were forced to spend the night here while their car was repaired.
