

HUBBARD SCHOOLS CONTINUE ACTIVE

Attendance Nearly Normal Again Following Bad Weather Slump

HUBBARD, Jan. 28.—Miss Berylle Blosser, teacher of the second grade of the Hubbard school, resumed her work Monday after an absence of three weeks due to eye trouble. Mrs. J. R. Bidgood substituted for Miss Blosser during her absence. The high school students are taking the mid-year tests this week.

School attendance has just about reached normal. The high school glee club with Mrs. Adeline Fields, director, has decided to enter the tournament at Forest Grove this spring.

Mrs. Ava Malone has charge of the hot lunches at the school house. Mrs. V. Millsbaugh found it impossible to continue the work.

The hill back of the Ben Reitor place has become very popular during the cold spell. Students and young folks of the town gather there to frolic in the snow. When the ice is clear the pond at the H. L. Carl dairy farm is most attractive for skating parties.

STOCK NEED MUCH CARE DURING COLD

RICKREAL, Jan. 28.—Sheep men are spending much of their time with their flocks these days. Albert Cadle is feeding 400 head and Fred Auer feeds a flock of 460 and 75 head of other stock.

Instead of driving back and forth to her school at Greenwood during the snow, Mrs. Harry Dempsey rides with her husband in the school bus as he makes the trip for the Rickreal high school students at Eola each morning.

With money taken in from several card parties sponsored by the Home Economics committee, Mrs. Oran Kellogg, Mrs. Grace Pence and Mrs. Ora Lantz, of the local grange, 13 chairs, and for each officer, were purchased for the assembly room.

Hitching Post Is Again in Use At Hubbard

HUBBARD, Jan. 28.—Ye old hitching post is again doing duty in Hubbard. It is becoming an everyday occurrence to see several teams of horses hitched to sleds and tied at the old posts. Some farmers have taken a little time and fastened bells to the horses collars and they come jingling into town.

The roof of Charles Moore's home, which is under quarantine for small pox, caught fire Sunday afternoon but was soon extinguished by the Hubbard firemen.

AGENTS SHOT AT WEST PALM BEACH

Picture shows the home of George C. Moore, at West Palm Beach, Fla. where the shooting of prohibition agents, F. R. Patterson and Robert K. Moncure, are said to have taken place recently. (Left) George C. Moore is held in the County Jail at West Palm Beach for questioning in connection with the killings. (Right) Robert K. Moncure, one of the Federal Agents who was killed.

Miss Hazel Claypool discovered the fire and sounded the siren.

The Fords seem to have gone on a strike due to the cold weather at least Dr. Ethel Riley filed such a complaint against her "old faithful" with the result that Dr. P. O. Riley has been absent from the Hubbard Enterprise office for more than a week. He directs Jack Currie, his assistant, from his home by telephone, however, and the Enterprise does not fail to make its appearance on schedule time.

Marvin and Lester Barrett, Statesman carriers for Hubbard, are back on the job after a week off duty because of small pox vaccination. Donald and Marvin Beer carried the papers during the illness of the Barrett brothers.

Mrs. S. Holcomb of Vancouver, Wash., is a guest at the home of her mother-in-law, Mrs. Alice Holcomb.

The spindle of a front wheel of Joe Richards' auto broke as he was making a reverse turn at the corner by the Hubbard bank, Monday afternoon.

E. SNELLMAN RITES HELD AT HOPEWELL

HOPEWELL, Jan. 28.—Funeral services for Everett Snellman, 67, were held Sunday at the U. B. church. Rev. S. C. Long of Salem officiated. Katie Hanjo, Willie Niemi, and Peter Parvin and Mrs. F. F. Anderson of McMinnville sang.

He is survived by his widow, Anna; one son, John; three daughters, Ina, Helen, and Irene; two brothers and several other relatives. Interment was in the Hopewell cemetery.

Rownena Jones received severe cuts about the face when she lost control of her sled and ran into a fence.

Alva Short who has been in the hospital in San Diego arrived here for a short visit.

Miss Margaret Turner entertained at her home Friday night with a turkey dinner followed by a coasting party.

Dallas Debaters Win Decision

DALLAS, Jan. 28.—Dallas high won her first debate here when the Dallas affirmative won a unanimous decision over the Independence negative. This was the first of a series of debates Dallas will participate in to decide the district championship. The Dallas negative went to Woodburn to debate the Woodburn affirmative.

The debates are held under the rules of the State Debating league, each judges' decision scoring one point. According to this, Dallas has three points besides any that may have been made at Woodburn.

Dallas was represented by Alice Wiens and Barbara Elliott, while Joe Hershberger and Elizabeth Baker debated for Independence. Lynn Black acted as chairman for the debate. The judges were chosen from O. S. C., and were Prof. Mitchell, Prof. Wells and Prof. Dahberg.

The question being used in these debates is: Resolved: That Oregon Should Adopt a Compulsory Automobile Insurance Law.

Dramatic Club Now Organized By Salem Group

A dramatic club is being formed at the Y. M. C. A., under the directorship of Dean and Mrs. Roy R. Hewitt.

Knowing that dramatics offer a splendid opportunity for self expression and development of character for young people, members of the staff have prevailed upon Dean Hewitt, member of the board, to sponsor this activity. Dean Hewitt has had a wide experience in this field while overseas during the World war and during his years of teaching.

The club will be open to both young men and young women. At the first preliminary meeting on Thursday, Glen Holman was elected president.

Several short one-act plays will be reviewed by members of the club at the next meeting and one or more will be selected upon which work will start immediately.

Those who are interested should see Ben Rickel, associate secretary, or come to the meeting on Tuesday night at 7:30.

POLK COUNTY IS CLEARING ROADS

MONMOUTH, Jan. 28.—The Lewisville-Elkins road leading to Monmouth from the southwest, which was blocked to traffic for 8 days has been reopened with the aid of all men in the section using hand shovels, or teams, and help of the county road grader.

The school bus marooned and abandoned in deep drifts in the Elkins community Jan. 16, was liberated Friday from drifts 8 feet deep, and was put back on the run from Lewisville to Monmouth Monday morning. The county grader was taken on to Kings Valley where unusually deep drifts prevail.

County road men are working on the laterals adjacent to Monmouth and many farmers of the community who live off the paved highways are using road scrapers drawn by horses to clear their private roadways and minor laterals. Such a heavy crust was formed on the snow by the protracted sleet storms last week, that travel has been impeded phenomenally around Monmouth. Sunshine is inducing moderate thawing today, but the snow is not settling perceptibly.

Archie Parker, rural carrier, experienced some difficulty in making his rounds last week, but with clearing of highways during the past few days is able now to cover most of the territory where people were without mail much of last week.

Quail Grow Tame When Fed at Home Near Sunnyside

SUNNYSIDE, Jan. 28.—D. S. Pearson of Sunnyside has been feeding a covey of quail during the severe winter weather, by putting out crumbs and chick feed in the back yard. They have become so tame they will now come onto the porch, and one ventured in the door and did not want to be put out. There are about 20 in the covey and Mr. Pearson is quite proud of his bunch of quail. Mr. Pearson is a prune grower and poultry fancier, and is doing his part in the preservation of the quail.

MARION TELEGRAPH OPERATOR IS ILL

MARION, Jan. 28.—J. R. Willis, second telegrapher with the Southern Pacific company here, is confined to his home in Turner with rheumatism. He is being relieved by Joe Kyeck of Elma, Washington.

Hopewell Club Meet Postponed

HOPEWELL, Jan. 28.—The Fairview Community club will not meet the last this month on account of the bad weather. The entertainment committee for next month is Mrs. Dale Fowler, Mrs. Ray Cosel and Mrs. K. A. Stoutenberg.

Mrs. Virgil Hieder is sick with the grip, the children are up and feel much better.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Wood and family were dinner guests at the home of Mrs. Wood's mother, Mrs. Wanless of Amity.

Mr. and Mrs. Creed Loop and son, Bobby, spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. Molly Loop at Amity.

PANTAGES IS AGAIN SEEKING FREEDOM

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 27.—(AP)—Alexander Pantages, multimillionaire vaudeville manager, today launched a second attempt to obtain release from the county jail on bond pending decision on his appeal from a conviction of assault upon Eunice Pringle, 17, dancer.

Affidavits by three physicians, who declared Pantages was in great danger of permanent injury and death as a result of his confinement, were filed with Superior Judge Charles W. Fricke, who immediately went into conference with Chief Deputy District Attorney Robert P. Stewart. Judge Fricke set the time for hearing the petition at 9 a. m. tomorrow.

Stewart said he will ask that the court appoint disinterested medical experts to examine Pantages before a decision is made.

Earlier in the day Pantages' attorneys waived oral arguments on his appeal in appellate court and obtained an extension until February 25 of the time for the filing of written briefs. The attorneys indicated they would request a reversal of the superior court's verdict.

Pantages' first attempt to obtain freedom on bond failed after physicians appointed by the court testified he suffered principally from untended fears of death. Judge Fricke, however, ordered his removal to the jail hospital.

Affidavits filed today declared Pantages is suffering from "true agina pectoris," and has continued to suffer heart attacks. They said he suffered a "very serious" one last night.

Waldo Hills, Jan. 28.—The young folks of the community have been enjoying the sliding and skiing on the Egan hill.

Eddie King, youngest son of Elmer King and a student at Silverton high school is ill at his home with pneumonia. He was taken ill Monday January 20 and the following Friday a trained nurse was called on the case.

Martha Goodknecht, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Goodknecht was absent last week from high school on account of illness. Martha is a sophomore at Silverton.

G. Harris Thompson, prominent member of a pioneer family in this section passed away Tuesday evening at the Coffey clinic in Portland.

School was dismissed Friday at Centerville, owing to the illness of the teacher, Mrs. Gordon Simpson.

Ted Riches has been staying in town since the heavy snow made going so unpleasant.

Ardis Egan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Egan underwent a major operation at St. Vincent hospital last Wednesday. Reports of his condition are very favorable though he will remain at the hospital for three weeks to take further treatments. Ardis is one of the popular clerks in the Julius Alm store in Silverton.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bowers and son, Sammy were Sunday guests at Frank Egan's.

Lois Riches, who teaches the McAlpine school, had a vacation of three days last week owing to the fact that there was so much illness among the children.

Plans for a play, to be given by the young people of the Waldo Hills community club, are going on. It will be given under the direction of Ted and Lois Riches. The play itself is a very clever one and with the well chosen cast promises to be outstanding.

Mrs. A. A. Geer was called to Silverton Saturday evening to act as nurse on a case. Sunday Mr. Geer was taken ill with rheumatism. He is improving however and will soon be up and around.

AMITY TO HAVE LOCAL TALENT PLAY

AMITY, Jan. 28.—Guy Nott will direct another play, "The Yellow Shadow," a mystery comedy by Clark Willard. This will be presented by Amity Neighbors of Woodcraft, Friday and Saturday evenings, January 31 and February 1 at the new high school gym and auditorium. The characters who will take part are as follows:

Nell Travis, Mrs. Glenn Vanance; Gilbert Wright, Lewis Tiffany; Alice Perkins, Miss Clara Jasper; Mildred Marvin, Miss Faith Emerson; Hazel Wayne, Mrs. Dean Craven; Jode Tarris, Fred Vincent; Herbert Marvin, Gilbert Mack; Sheriff Macklin, Guy Nott, Jenny Steel, Mrs. Leonard McCarty; Wong Song, Alexander Fournier.

FUNERAL OF MRS. A. JONES AT MARQUAM

SILVERTON, Jan. 28.—Funeral services for Mrs. Viola Jones, 66, were held at the Marquam church east of Silverton Monday afternoon and interment was made in Miller cemetery. The funeral arrangements were in charge of Jack & Ekman of Silverton.

Mrs. Jones with her husband and family came to Marquam from The Dalles two years ago. She is survived by her widower, Andrew J. Jones, one daughter, Mrs. Lesley Fynn of Beattie, two sons, Clyde of Moser, and Claude of Marquam, one sister, Mrs. Barton Jack of Marquam, and two brothers, L. E. Bentley and C. J. Bentley, both of Portland.

LIECHTY FUNERAL TODAY

SILVERTON, Jan. 28.—Funeral services for Francis Liechty, who died at his home on Howell Prairie Sunday evening will be held from the Jack & Ekman chapel Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 with the Rev. Thomas Hardie of the Methodist church officiating. Interment will be made in the Silverton cemetery.

... on the skis it's

BALANCE!

... in a cigarette it's

TASTE!

IT is a curious fact that the best-tasting cigarette is the one in which no single taste quality is too evident. Over-mildness, for example—or over-riceness—shows lack of "balance" just as plainly as harshness or bitterness.

On this basis, test Chesterfield. Aroma, smoothness, satisfying goodness, flavor, mildness, all present—but none emphasized at the expense of others. The one goal is taste—better taste, balanced taste—

"TASTE above everything"
