

YAMHILL AREA FEEDS GAME

Many Thousand Birds Saved By Food Scattered by Game Wardens

PERRYDALE, Jan. 29.—Chas. L. Bratcher, of McMinnville, was in town Monday visiting with old friends. Mr. Bratcher is game warden for Yamhill county and on Sunday he and other wardens fed 1,000 pounds of wheat to game birds.

In a small alfalfa field near Harrison bridge they fed nearly a thousand quail. In his traveling around feeding, he has not found a dead pheasant.

Walter Muller and family, who have been in California for two months came home Saturday. It rained the entire time they were there. Our snow here at home doesn't keep there: from thinking Oregon is the best place to live after all.

The teachers at school are preparing hot lunches for the children. The materials for soup and stews are donated by the parents. It is very welcome by the children.

Fire Victims Aided

The Bethel ladies gave a shower for the Stultz family Monday at the Bethel school where Mr. and Mrs. Stultz teach. On Saturday afternoon February 1, a shower will be given for them here at the school house.

Ladies are asked to bring a towel or dish towel to hem during the afternoon.

PASTOR RESIGNS

INDEPENDENCE, Jan. 29 — The Rev. A. B. Zante announced his resignation as pastor of the local Presbyterian church at last Sunday morning's service. He has accepted a call to The Rainier Beach Presbyterian church in Seattle, Washington. This church is located in a very promising section of the city with outstanding opportunities. March 1 is the time set when Rev and Mrs. Van Zante will take up their work in Seattle.

Winter Mantle of Crystal Lies Over Silver Creek Falls

SILVERTON, Jan. 29.—D. E. Geiser, J. D. Drake, and F. Rahn motored up to Silver Creek Falls Sunday. The party reported the roads quite navigable and that it was possible to drive down to the South Falls over the new road which the Geisers built last summer. The men were very enthusiastic about the beauty of the ice-covered falls. A curtain of icicles in all the shades of the rainbow, and fully fifty feet long, hung across the rim of the falls for 400 feet. The river itself below the falls was frozen over and looked more like a paved highway than a river, they said. At the North Falls an immense mountain of ice had formed in the shape of a fairy castle. Mr. Geiser with another party plans to go up again this week-end.

CALIFORNIA FAMILY NOW AT ROSEDALE

ROSEDALE, Jan. 29.—Mr. and Mrs. Grubbe who bought the Gitting's place last summer, are living at present in the Blinston house. They recently came from near San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Caldwell spent the week end at the C. A. Cole home.

Laura and Forrest Cammack are spending a few days at home, while the heating plant at the school which they attend in Portland, is being repaired by a new one. Miss Willoughby Howe of Creswell is also a house guest.

Some members of the Campbell family have been having the chicken pox. Mr. Campbell is the latest victim. Mr. and Mrs. Dare (formerly Miss May Morse) are living in the Gardner house.

I. H. S. RESUMES WORK

INDEPENDENCE, Jan. 29 — The Independence high school has started again after a week's vacation. All of the canceled games, and other activities are being made up. The general opinion of the students is: How thankful we are that school is started again. Next week ends the semester.

SPRING VALLEY SCHOOL OPENS

Recent Cold Weather Does Little Damage Except to Roads in Hills

SPRING VALLEY — Jan. 29 — Mrs. Phillip Damm returned to her home here Thursday night after having spent several days in Salem as the house guest of her daughter, Mrs. Floyd Van Ripper.

The Spring Valley school opened Monday morning after having been closed for a week due to the freezing weather. The teacher, Miss Clara Siebens has been driving from Salem previous to the storm, but came out Monday on the high school bus and will probably continue to do so, at least until driving a car over the road is safer.

Mrs. Eugene Hoefling has been very ill during the past few weeks but is now able to be about again. Her daughter, Mrs. H. E. Elise of Salem is staying with her this week.

Miss. Eula Smith entertained a group of her school friends with a taffy pull at her home last Thursday evening.

Electric Power Installed

Ted Damm has his electric wiring job completed and is ready to have the electricity turned on, which probably will be next month. Walker Purvine and Vivian Stratton helped with the work.

Mrs. Seymour Wilson recently received word from her sister, Miss Evangeline Jennings of Laramie, Wyoming stating that the thermometer stood at fifty below zero there. So we of this vicinity should not complain too much of the present cold spell which is out of the ordinary for this valley.

Miss Irene Windsor has been suffering with an obstinate cold which is causing ear trouble. The doctor does not think it will cause any serious trouble however.

Mrs. Charles Teeple and her son Howard are recovering from an attack of bronchitis and a severe cold. Howard was able to resume his studies at the senior high in Salem Monday.

Sheep Doing Well

A number of the farmers here who raise sheep are reporting several new lambs which seem to be flourishing despite the severe weather if their ewes are able to care for them. Those that are hand fed are not doing so well in some instances.

Victim of Sleeping Sickness Dies at Woodburn Home

WOODBURN, Jan. 29.—Ruth Kallak, aged 16, passed away at her home here late Tuesday. She has been ill for some time and for the past three weeks has been unconscious. Recently physicians pronounced her illness as sleeping sickness. Ruth Kallak, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. K. Kallak of Woodburn and was a sophomore in Woodburn high school. She is survived by her parents and four sisters, Margery, Arlene, Mrs. Roy Miller of Hubbard and Roma, her twin sister.

Monday, the sun shone brightly all day and considerable snow melted, but froze again at night. During the day the wild song birds could be heard in chorus for the first time here since the snow storm.

Among the recent modern improvements added to his farm home, V. A. Stratton has installed a complete modern equipped bath room.

Woodburn Girl Is Athletic Star at State University

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, Jan. 29 — Naomi Moshberger of Woodburn, was chosen as one of the forward line for the hockey game with the United States field hockey team, which was to be played tomorrow. Due to ice and snow, the game will not be played, but a demonstration will be given in McArthur court, according to Miss Janet Woodruff, in charge of the arrangements.

Thirteen members of the All-American team arrived today at noon to play the Oregon girls, and to visit the Oregon campus to arouse interest in hockey. The faculty entertained them with a luncheon at the Anchorage immediately after their arrival. Hermian, physical education honorary, entertained the visitors with a tea this afternoon. Miss Moshberger is a member and also president of Hermian, besides belonging to Amphibian, Master Dance group, and being prominent on the campus at large.

WOODBURN HAS MUSIC PROGRAM

DeMoss Musical Family Gives Exceptional Concert at School

WOODBURN, Jan. 29 — One of the best concerts that Woodburn folk have had the opportunity of hearing for some time was the De Moss musical family concert, presented at the high school auditorium Tuesday afternoon.

Each member of this exceptional family is a versatile and accomplished artist and the program presented was of the higher type. George De Moss has played in every concert the family presented since the original ensemble was organized in 1872. He played the violin as well as the banjo and accomplished a feat rarely done by professional entertainers in that he played both an alto and a soprano cornet at the same time.

His wife, Aurella De Moss played the bass viol in the ensemble and also the hand bells and banjo. Their two sons, Elbert and Homer were artists on the violin and flute respectively. The expert accompanist with the family is May Belle De Moss, wife of Elbert De Moss.

The entertaining program presented of the overture "Calliph of Bagdad" by the ensemble and a second patriotic number. Elbert De Moss played a violin solo, with May Belle De Moss accompanist. The third number was a melody played on hand bells by Mr. and Mrs. De Moss accompanied by the other members of the group. Homer De Moss, the accomplished flutist gave a realistic interpretation of "By the Brook," a clever little number on nature lore. All of the family with the exception of May Belle played a group of southern melodies on banjos of all sizes and tones. May Belle read "The Light Seeing Bus" and the ensemble played "Sweet Oregon," a number composed by one of the original De Moss musical family and accepted as the Oregon state song at the World's Fair in Chicago. Elbert De Moss played the "Sextette" from Luda on the sleigh bells and Mr. De Moss was featured in the "Miserie" from Il Trovatore playing two cornets at one time. The concluding number was "Evening Bells" with May Belle De Moss reading the lyrics.

A comparatively large crowd attended considering the time of day the performance was scheduled and it was greatly appreciated by all those attending.

DRUGS CAUSE OF DEATH OF B. ROGERS

McMINNVILLE, Jan. 29.—Accumulation of several drugs and diseased condition of the stomach is thought to have been the cause of the sudden death of Bert Rogers, 55, near Willamina last week. This statement was made today by Glen Macy, county coroner.

Contents of the stomach showed no traces of poison in the medicine he had taken. Samples of the medicine examined were free from poison, also, the coroner said. He is said to have been suffering from stomach trouble for several years.

LEONS ENTERTAIN MONMOUTH, Jan. 29.

MONMOUTH, Jan. 29.—Monmouth's Lions club entertained two members of the Independence group at luncheon Tuesday. A. I. Niemeyer, manager of the J. C. Jenney company of Independence, and E. N. Linquist, manager of the Independence Creamery. The program was featured with vocal solos by Misses Eulalia Cox and Alice Jewell, Oregon Normal school students, with Lionesa Dietrick at the piano.

Single prescription made a family doctor famous

SELDOM has any single act been of greater benefit to mankind than the one which Dr. Caldwell performed back in 1885 when he wrote the prescription which has carried his fame to the four corners of the earth.

Over and over, Dr. Caldwell wrote this prescription as he found men, women, and children suffering from those common symptoms of constipation, such as coated tongue, bad breath, headaches, gas, nausea, biliousness, poor appetite, or lack of energy, etc. And it invariably relieved these symptoms so much more pleasantly, so much quicker than other things, that his patients simply had to tell other people about it.

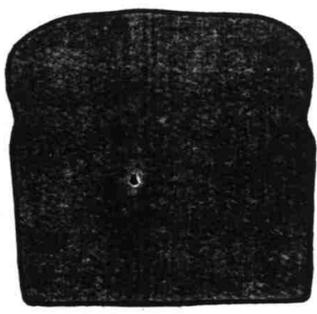

tion grew so fast that by 1888 Dr. Caldwell was forced to have it put up ready for use and supply drug stores with it. Today you can get the generous bottles of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, as it is called, at all drug stores.

When you or your children suffer from any of the symptoms of constipation, it will pay you to remember this safe, pleasant-tasting, effective laxative; made only from herbs and other pure ingredients; a real corrective for constipation. A doctor's 47-year experience behind this formula!

ITS SHAPE IS JUST RIGHT FOR TOASTING

Even brown all over
Fitting snugly up against the toaster grid, slices of Snowflake are browned to a delicious crispness all over... better toast.

CRISP and evenly toasted a golden brown all over is toast made from slices of Hillman's Snowflake Butter-Nut bread, because Snowflake is just the right shape and size for slices to fit up snugly against the toaster. While this feature of Snowflake bread is appreciated by housewives who are quick to utilize new ideas, it has other advantages. It slices easily and uniformly, has a tender crust and the delicious flavor that stamps all Butter-Nut products from this modern, spotless bakery.

Slightly burned at bottom
With the old-time shorter, chunkier loaf, slices usually extend above the edge of the toaster, causing the lower half to become slightly burned before the upper half is even browned.

AVOID THE THREAT of the weight of age

AVOID THAT FUTURE SHADOW*
By refraining from over-indulgence

"Coming events cast their shadows before"

You men who would keep trim and fit... you women who covet the tantalizing curves of the truly modern figure... when tempted to do yourself too well, light a Lucky instead. Be moderate—be moderate in all things, even in smoking. Eat healthfully but not immoderately. When your eyes are bigger than your stomach, light a Lucky instead. Coming events cast their shadows before. Avoid that future shadow by avoiding over-indulgence, if you would maintain that lithe, youthful figure.

Lucky Strike, the finest Cigarette you ever smoked, made of the finest tobacco—The Cream of the Crop—"IT'S TOASTED." Everyone knows that heat purifies and so "TOASTING" not only removes impurities but adds to the flavor and improves the taste.

"It's toasted"

*Be Moderate!... Don't jeopardize the modern form by drastic diets, harmful reducing girdles, fake reducing tablets or other quack "anti-fat" remedies condemned by the Medical profession! Millions of dollars each year are wasted on these ridiculous and dangerous nostrums. Be Sensible! Be Moderate! We do not represent that smoking Lucky Strike Cigarettes will bring modern figures or cause the reduction of flesh. We do declare that when tempted to do yourself too well, if you will "Reach for Lucky" instead, you will thus avoid over-indulgence in things that cause excess weight and, by avoiding over-indulgence, maintain a modern, graceful form.
