

CURT COMMENTS

DIDN'T PLAY SAFE

We're sorry, Holly, that we did not help you out that time. If we'd picked Woodburn you would have had a chance. One right, one wrong. Lots of sport news and we haven't time to figure up the average.

Jackie Woods is a sensation—nothing less. Another chance for us to say "We told you so," but we won't do it. The way that boy outgassed Kileen was more than we can describe. Kileen tried his usual rushing tactics, and Woods would just sidestep and let Kileen's head slip out through the ropes. Then when Kileen pulled his head back in, Woods would pop it good and hard.

Just a word of warning, though. Jackie Woods is just a kid, and he can be burned out too easily if he's pushed ahead too fast. No reason why he can't be fighting main events here with a big following a couple of years hence; but six rounds are too many for him right now. He shouldn't go more than four, and shouldn't have to fight them too big or too tough.

But he's a clean little kid, and we're all for him.

Spud and Terry both looked a good bit overweight. Better do some road work, boys.

Wonder if inability to do road work was what made the specials so insufferably slow? Haley and Bechtel started it and Ambrose and Kuhn apparently caught the disease.

Harry Levy got plenty of "boots," but he didn't deserve any of them. He did a good job.

TULLYS GREETED BY FRIENDS IN SALEM

Conservatively speaking over 400 people called at the Presbyterian church Wednesday night between the hours of 8 o'clock and 10:30 o'clock in compliment to Rev. and Mrs. Norman K. Tully whose relationship with the church will officially cease Tuesday. On that date Rev. and Mrs. Tully will start by motor for Albany, California, where Rev. Tully has accepted the Presbyterian pastorate.

Rev. Tully has served the Salem pastorate four and one half years. The reception tendered both he and Mrs. Tully Wednesday night indicated that they have made many friends while here.

Appearing on the program for the evening were Roy R. Hewitt, representing the Kiwanis club; Fred C. Taylor, president of the ministerial association; Glen Adams, as representative of the sessions; T. S. Mackenzie, representing the congregation; L. E. Garie, representative of Masonic lodge No. 4. William Wright gave several solo numbers.

Rev. Tully responded to the farewells made by each of the organization representatives. During the evening, tea was served by Mrs. Reed Chambers and Mrs. Lester Purvine. Mrs. William Schultz, president of the Ladies Aid of the church was in charge of the social arrangements for the evening, and she was assisted by a number of the women of the church.

SALEM YOUTH STEALS SHOW
Spud Murphy Wins Decision From Terry Kileen in Main Event

Outgunning his more experienced opponent consistently and putting up one of the headiest battles ever fought in the local ring, little Jackie Woods established himself as Salem's future main event when he took a decision over Jackie Kileen of Independence and stole the show from the scheduled main bout Wednesday night.

Woods' achievement was all the more sensational because he had been put down by some fans as "not in Kileen's class." Some of the wise ones knew better, but all were astonished at the bruising he gave the tough lad from Polk county.

Fifth Round Woods'
Only Weak One
In the first rounds Woods floored Kileen with a crashing right to the jaw, and the advantage gained then he retained except in the fifth round, when the long route seemed to weary him and Kileen gained back a little of what he had lost.

Kileen bored in determinedly in the sixth and final round, but Woods met him with more straight lefts and right crosses and held his advantage.

Spud Murphy won a decision over Terry Kileen in the eight round main event which was featured by the older Kileen's gameness. In the third round Murphy put Kileen down for eight counts with a barrage when Kileen was pinned against the ropes. Kileen was hurt badly and only his gameness brought him up in time. Again he went down for two counts from a left to the side, and at the bell he was out of his head and tried to keep on fighting.

Spud Grows Weaker
With Fifth Round
From the fifth round on Murphy became visibly weary, and in the seventh Kileen had all the best of it, largely due to a change in tactics. He began aiming for Murphy's head instead of that well protected midriff, with considerable success; but Murphy held his own in the eighth and took the decision.

Floyd Ambrose won a decision from Bernie Kuhn in a slow, slow fight. They stood and posed most of the time for four rounds. Kuhn getting the best of what little fighting there was. Ambrose tore at the last two sessions and overcame Kuhn's lead.

Pat Haley of Independence won a decision over Ted Bechtel of St. Paul in a fight which was featured by more posing for the talkies and several near-dives on Bechtel's part.

Jack Simmons of West Salem and Young Dodge of Sheridan fought an uninspiring draw.

Dallas Five Wins From Indian Team

CHEMAWA, Jan. 29.—(Special)—The Dallas high school basketball team upset a lot of "dope" by defeating the Chemawa Indian school quintet 20 to 19 here tonight.

Dallas has evidently revised its system this year, for instead of the long shots which featured its play heretofore, the players passed under the basket. It was the Indians who failed to show teamwork this time.

Nevertheless, the game was close and the outcome in doubt until the timer's gun was fired.

Summary:
Chemawa (5) F. (8) Dallas
Simmons (5) F. (8) Quiring
Marsden (4) C. (2) Webb
Jones (4) G. (5) Griffin
Vivette (6) G. (5) Uglow
Smith (2) S.
Referee: Wilkinson.

TEACHERS WALLOP PORTLAND QUINTET

MONMOUTH, Jan. 29.—(Special)—The Oregon Normal school basketball team defeated the City of Portland quintet 73 to 18 tonight. The city employees were able to score but one field goal in the first half.

Coch. Wolf of the normal school squad sent in his second string men for most of the second half without slowing up the process of piling up points. Monmouth's starting lineup included Marr and Bramhall, forwards; Holt, center; Watkins and Ashby, guards.

THE BERLIN BOMBER STILL CASTS A THREATENING SHADOW UPON THE HEAVYWEIGHT MAP!

THE TEUTON schlager, who far as ring ability is concerned, is fast in all fighting movements, and can take a socking if necessary. He's in his early twenties just rarin' to go.

The only real trouble Schmeling stumbled into thus far in his American career has been the bitter and litigious break between him and his former German manager, and the promise-breaking episode with the New York State Athletic Commission when he refused to box Phil Scott after being permitted to battle Paulino on that condition.

Most fans are familiar with Schmeling's managerial malstroms. Arriving in the United States about a year and a half ago, Arthur Bulow, then his manager, could not click him into the clubs because both he and Max were strangers in a strange land.

McMinnville Bachelor's club will play the St. Mary's high school quintet. These teams are members of the Oregon Catholic league. Both of the games will be played in Beaverton, also.

CO-ED HOCKEYISTS LOSE TO VISITORS

CORVALLIS, Ore., Jan. 29.—(AP)—Driving through eight goals in the first half and seven in the second, the visiting all-star women's field hockey team defeated a picked team of Oregon State college co-eds 15 to 0 here today.

The all-stars have played 12 games on the Pacific coast without once being scored against.

The visiting team played fast and accurate hockey today. They meet the University of Oregon co-eds here tomorrow and will end their barnstorming tour against the University of Washington Saturday.

RETURNS TO FISTIC WARS

cent managers representing him were running all over the sporting lot. Max refused to honor any contracts signed by Bulow, toured the so-called sticks briefly, balked the New York boxing authorities, and went back to Germany, where a syndicate is reported to have bought out Bulow's interest, taking over Schmeling's managerial control.

Now Max is returning to America's ring El Dorado, already booked for a big bout at the huge Atlantic City Auditorium late in March. His opponent has not been named at this writing, but it will not be Jack Sharkey. An open air New York date with the latter is backing him and the syndicate making him a prospectus, if not a championship year for the Hamburg Hammer.

Unless a rather long layoff and that managerial mess have blunted the German's fighting blade, the Sport Bug is inclined to think that Maxie is the real McCoy in ring class but... not as good as Sharkey at his best.

of preliminary play on the course where the championship will be decided and he is ready.

The Walker cup team will have ten days of practice before the international team struggle begins at Sandwich and its captain may not play at all until he arrives on English territory.

"Rubber Tire" is a tactful person with never an ill word to say of a golf course. His policy has been to remain silent when he could find nothing good to say. Although he denies it, witnesses say he was once pressed hard by a chairman of a green committee of a freak golf course to comment on the lay-out. Bobby, the story goes, tried to evade the responsibility. The chairman insisted. Finally the champion spoke: "Well, the course is certainly a test." It was noticed, however, that he did not go into details.

Harrison R. Johnston is very popular in the Twin Cities of St. Paul and Minneapolis and each likes to refer to him as a resident. He now lives in St. Paul but is a member of both the White Bear Yacht club of St. Paul and the Minikahda club of Minneapolis. St. Paul will quickly correct a careless reporter who refers to the amateur champion "of Minneapolis," hastening to point out that he is a resident of St. Paul.

Some action must have been in order against the United States Golf association for publishing an annual report crediting him to the "Minikahda club," for the next edition read "White Bear Yacht club."

No matter whether he is calling St. Paul or Minneapolis home he will not have far to go for the next open championship for it will be played at the Interlachen club at Hopkins, Minn., a Minneapolis suburb.

SALEM BEATEN BY WOODBURN 5

Bulldogs Run Up 22-14 Score on Red and Black Team in Fast Game

WOODBURN, Jan. 29.—(Special)—Playing without the services of Graber, regular center who was injured in the Astoria game last week, Salem high lost a district game to Woodburn here tonight 22 to 14.

Some of the best basketball displayed here this season was seen in the first half when the two teams fought on even terms. The score was tied twice at 2-all and 4-all and Salem was ahead 6 to 5 when the whistle blew. The Schooler brothers were the mainstays of the local team, while Kitchman was the outstanding Salem man.

Third Period Has
Disastrous Results
The third period proved to be Salem's Waterloo and in that session the locals scored eight points to Salem's three. The last quarter was more even, but Salem failed to show enough power to threaten the Bulldogs' lead.

Summary: Woodburn (11) F. (6) Kitchen H. Schooler, 1 F. (6) Bone Baldwin, (4) C. Sanford L. Schooler, 2 G. Satchler Chapelle (5) Foreman Referee, Jackson; umpire, Sparks.

Woodburn's "microscopic forward" scored 11 points, most of them in the last half. There was no roughness beyond ordinary fouls.

In a preliminary game Salem's B team defeated the Woodburn seconds 13 to 6.

DALLAS WILL PLAY INDEPENDENCE HIGH

DALLAS, Jan. 29.—(Special)—Dallas high basketball team will play Independence high school Thursday. This will be the first time the teams have met this year.

Dallas is leading the league now and Independence is in third place. The game will be hard fought and interesting even though the standings of the teams are quite different. For the last two seasons the county championship has had to be decided between the Dallas and Independence teams. The final game has been played as an extra game after the regular tournament was over. Dallas has won the championship both years in the extra game.

As Independence has only played three games so far it is expected it will make a good showing in the league this year also.

The probable lineup for Dallas will be Vaughn and Quiring forwards; Webb, center; Uglow and Griffin, guards.

The second game between the two teams will be played at Dallas February 14.

PARRISH WINS OVER CHEMAWA'S B TEAM

Perrine was the high point man of the game with three field goals, while F. Thomas accounted for four of his team's total.

Oscar Vitt Feels Able to Cart Championship Away; Outfield Is Big Problem

By RUSSELL J. NEWLAND Associated Press Sports Writer

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 29.—(AP)—Hollywood won the 1929 coast league championship and its manager, Oscar Vitt, is perfectly willing to shoulder the responsibility of caring for another pennant after this season.

Mr. Vitt spends his summers on the baseball road and winters in Oakland. It is most difficult to catch him at home so after two days of solid effort the problem was solved by telephoning at six o'clock in the morning.

What's the idea of disturbing honest people at this hour? "The manager, Oscar," "Sure I'm still the manager, and before you go any further, let me tell you Hollywood is going to have a pretty fair team. From the looks of the material Uncle Bill (William Lane, owner) lining up, we're going to be a better hitting club—and maybe it won't give me a lot of personal satisfaction to belt down the ears of some of the opposing pitchers.

"Our outfield is the main problem because players like Elias Funk don't grow on trees. We're negotiating now for a couple of seasoned outfielders. The pitching staff isn't the worst in the world and we're promised either a left or right hander from one of the major league clubs."

Newcomers to the Stars this year will include Emil Yde, left handed mound veteran acquired from Detroit in the deal for Funk. Two young hurlers, about whom Vitt has received excellent reports, are Jack Turner and "Pat" Page, both from the Piedmont league. Turner led the Greensboro team with 25 wins and nine defeats while Page won 21 and lost 9 for Durham. Each is a right hander.

Otis Brannon, second baseman, was purchased from the St. Louis Browns. He is a left handed swatter and supposed to be a hefty boy at the plate. From the New York Yankees is coming Mike Gasella and Oscar is insistent he will be a tremendous help at third base.

Two infielders and an outfielder, all youngsters, are to be given thorough trials on the strength of their recommendations. "Bud" Leishman, was signed from a San Jose semi-pro team for shortstop. Hollywood helped out Tucson of the Arizona State league last season and had the pick of that team, the pick being Joe Catina, third baseman, and George McNeely, outfielder. McNeely topped from a San Diego high school team to Tucson and turned in a batting average of .337.

Regulars returning include, Frank Shellenback, league leading pitcher last season with 26 games won and 12 lost and his mound mates, August "Lefty" Johns, George Hollister, "Burr" Wetzel, and Hensel Hulvey, the catching department is nothing to worry about with "Hank" Severid and Johnny Bassler. Even the most ardent home town fan will have to admit that Mickey Heath is in a class by himself at first base while Dudley Lee is a pretty fair country shortstop in most any league.

"I'm going back to bed," says Oscar "and don't forget to mention that I'll put on my regular program of calisthenics in camp this spring. That's why my players haven't turned up with a 'Charley Horse' in four years. About the third day in training at San Diego the boys will be as supple as eels and I'll have them running four or five miles—anyway four or five miles—every day. And yours truly will pace the mob."
