

RUTH KALLAK RITES AT WOODBURN

WOODBURN, January 31.—Funeral services for Ruth Kallak were held at St. Mary's Episcopal church Friday morning.

Miss Kallak had been ill for the past three weeks, suffering from sleeping sickness. She was a member of the class of '22 of Woodburn high school and leaves many friends and teachers who are mourning her sudden calling. She was a girl of extremely sunny nature and possessed a way of winning the hearts of her acquaintances.

Rev. Arch. Deacon J. Calude Black officiated at the church and grave side in Belle Passi cemetery. Six of her girl friends in high school, Edith Shrock, Opal Dickey and Jessie Sims, sopranos; Ruth Geer, Dorothy Austin and Grace Shrock, altos, sang her favorite hymn, "Jesus Calls Us," and six of her boy friends, Merle Nehl, Albert Lemcke, Gorda Klamp, Alvin Rogen, Harold Wright and Harold Gustafsen were pall bearers. There were many floral tributes from the organizations of which she was a member at high schools and the fraternal associations of her family.

Ruth was born in Epping, North Dakota, January 9, 1914, and has lived here since 1925. She graduated from Woodburn grade school in 1928, and was participant in many of the associate activities of Woodburn high school. She is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Kallak, a brother, John, and four sisters: Marjory, her twin; Roma; Mrs. Roy Miller of Hubbard and Arlene.

PROMINENT CHURCH OFFICIAL PASSES ON

CHICAGO, Jan. 31.—(AP)—Most Rev. Charles Palemerston Anderson, died today just 11 weeks after his elevation to the primacy.

Death for the second time in three months had made vacant the highest office in the Protestant Episcopal church of the United States of America.

For 25 years the bishop of Chicago, Bishop Anderson put on the robe of presiding bishop and accepted the added labor of his double office last November 13 in the full knowledge that a frail heart might yield to overstrain at any moment.

Yet in the weeks that followed his election he gave time and energy without stint, traveling between his Chicago home and the church headquarters in New York. Nine days ago he was prostrated by a heart attack. With his wife and daughters, his physician and the suffragan bishop of Chicago at his bedside he died at 8:42 a. m. It was not until death came that the public knew of his long struggle against an ailing heart.

ORDER OF THE I CLUB INITIATES ATHLETES

INDEPENDENCE, Jan. 31.—A Lettermen's Initiation was the cause for assembly Wednesday at high school. The new members were made to give a program for the school.

The boys gave "Cinderella" and by their awkwardness and consciousness of being dressed in girl's clothes they caused the assembly to laugh. From the beginning to the end it was one grand joke.

Each new member sang a solo to the tune of "Hinky Dinky Parley You." Each verse was written about an old member of the lettermen's club.

The last act was the padding machine for the boys. Next week the girls' league are to give the program and after that the senior class.

Wife to Be Brought From Italy After Seven Year Wait
SILVERTON, Jan. 31.—Alex DePerio left this week for Genoa, Italy, where he went to join his wife. Mr. DePerio came to Silvertion in 1923 and since that time has made every effort to get his wife here but because of immigration laws has been unable to do so. She is now permitted to come and Mr. and Mrs. DePerio plan to be back at Silvertion in July.

HE WEIGHS 475 POUNDS

John Asson, who is 8 feet 9 1/2 inches tall and still growing, finds his height an advantage in a crowd as he can always "see over," but he travels a lot and the hotel sheets are all too short for him. He stopped in San Francisco while en route to Australia and a local hotel had to make up a special bed for him. He weighs 475 pounds.

Dallas Couple Celebrate Golden Wedding Jubilee

DALLAS, Jan. 31.—The golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McCann of Dallas was celebrated with a reception Wednesday evening, January 29, in the social hall of the Christian church.

Mr. and Mrs. McCann were married at Brooks, Oregon, January 28, 1850, they lived in Salem for a number of years and then moved to Dallas. Mrs. McCann is 69 years old and Mr. McCann 74. A daughter, Mrs. William Collins, lives in Dallas and a son at home.

Mrs. Mary Putnam of Salem, sister of Mrs. McCann, Mrs. Clara Colvard and T. B. Jones, also of Salem, were present for the reception.

The main entertainment of the evening was a mock wedding, with Mrs. H. D. Peterson as the bride, R. R. Imbler as the groom and H. G. Black to perform the ceremony.

A gold finished tray with creamer and sugar service was presented to the honor guest by members of the Sunday school.

Bootlegger to Hide Out Until Time For Trial

SEATTLE, Jan. 31.—(AP)—James Williams, fourth of the bootlegger suspects wanted in connection with the kidnaping and beating here early Wednesday morning of Daniel E. Dunning, federal prohibition agent, will not surrender himself until February 6, the date set for the hearing of the quartet on federal felony charges, Mrs. Eva Williams declared here today.

She declared that her husband was unable to raise the $10,000 bail demanded and that he was hiding out in consequence until the hearing. The others involved, Mrs. Williams and Mr. and Mrs. Baze were released on bond today.

Dunning is in a Seattle hospital recovering from his injuries.

High School Girls Have Observation Work in Child Study Classes

INDEPENDENCE, Jan. 31.—For several weeks the advanced class in home economics has been studying child care. Many of the problems have been studied and Wednesday the class visited the first grade in order to observe the method of teaching and the child's reaction.

They especially noted the development of speech, physique and responsibility of the children and their reaction to a story told by the teacher.

Upon entering the room the older girls were conducted to a seat by several pupils. After this a business meeting called to order by a small boy was held. The preliminary rules were strictly followed and the committees all reported after which the meeting adjourned.

The method of approach was studied by the advanced girls in watching Miss Robards tell a story. Dixie Land was played and the children suggested the south from the music. Then the idea of negroes was brought up by the children.

The DOORWAY to Happiness

It's the little things that make happiness. A smile, a kiss, a remembrance, a helping hand and that unselfish service of love. You love your family of course but have you overlooked the protection they need so that if the worst should happen to you it would not mar their happiness forever?

Suppose tomorrow you would be the victim of a travel accident and thousands of them occur every day, what of your family? You can't be happy if you have not made provision for them. Why take a chance? Now while there is still time protect yourself and every member of your family between the ages of 15 and 70 with
