

OLD ATTACK ON HOOVER BARED

Year Old Speech by Grundy Heard in United States Senate Yesterday

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—(AP)—Senate lobby investigators today heard a year old speech by Joseph R. Grundy, republican senator from Pennsylvania expressing the view that President Hoover "doesn't know anything at all from experience what legislation means."

The speech was made at a meeting of the national association of wool manufacturers before Mr. Hoover was inaugurated and before Grundy was appointed to the senate. Grundy was expressing concern over the future of the tariff bill, at that time just getting started in congress.

Questioned later by newspaper men about his remarks on the president, Grundy replied: "If it's in the record, I said it. At that time it was my appraisal of things."

The speech said in part: "My concern is not lessened at all by the knowledge that the president-elect, while he is a very fine fellow and the state that I have the honor of coming from gave him almost a million majority to show his confidence in him, has never had any legislative experience."

"He never ran for office before. He never ran for the office of dog catcher. He doesn't know anything at all from experience, what legislation means. His mind runs on many other subjects than economic subjects."

Grundy has announced that he is a candidate for re-election to the senate. The republican primaries in Pennsylvania are in May, followed by the general election in November.

Franklin Hobbs of Boston, president of the wool association, who testified today before the committee, said he did not share in this view of President Hoover nor did his association.

Grundy also was quoted as saying, after calling attention to the republican victory in the 1928 presidential election: "Since the election what has taken place? Our president-elect has slipped out of the country and has gone down to South America on other kinds of business. He won't be back here until January, and then he plans to, somewhere in the south, sojourn for a while."

Grundy was reported to have added that women "never knew anything about the tariff."

SCIENTISTS ANALYZE SPARK

The electric spark has been analyzed at the University of California by means of this amazing camera whose shutter operates in one-billionth of a second. It was developed by Professor E. O. Lawrence of the physics department of the university, and by Frank G. Dunnington (shown in photo), graduate student working with Lawrence. The two men have taken more than 250 views of a 20,000 volt spark with their machine. The experiment conducted with the camera disclosed that in its brief life a 20,000 volt spark is hotter than the sun and 100 times as bright. The camera shutter is not mechanical, but makes use of the physical properties of light for its operation. The spark literally takes its own picture.

is $1.20 which allows for 360 cubic feet. If the Hartman meter records for the two months 720 cubic feet or less then they will be charged the minimum for the two month period or $2.40. If the estimated bill of $1.59 was paid then they would have to pay only the difference between $2.40 and $1.59 or 81c. In a good many cases the estimated bill will probably run a little higher than one-half the total for the two months; in other cases it may run less than half. In any event the water company will not get for the two months any more than it would have, had the January bills been rendered on actual readings.

MORONI OLSEN PLAY FOUND BIG SUCCESS

One of the largest audiences which has ever come to greet the Moroni Olsen players was that which came for the splendid performance of "The Makropoulos Deceit" Friday night in the Fox Elsinore theatre. The play was all that Janet Young had said it was—it had something in it for everyone in the audience. And from the enthusiastic reception, each person was getting his share. For once the audience in the Fox Elsinore really applauded in the midst of an act and it was for Leola Thatcher and Joseph Williams. Again and again there were chuckles and now and then a real laugh for the most part Byron Kay Foulger drew these. It was a remarkable piece of acting that Foulger did in the part of the "feeble-minded" Hank-Sendorf. Janet Young was all of the artist that Salem Moroni Olsen fans had expected that she would be. Her work was poised and majestic and her voice was exceptional. By other acts in the part of Emilia Marty—the woman who had lived over 400 years and who knew all of life and found it wanting. Moroni Olsen has been seen to better advantage but he was a very strong, dependable influence in carrying on the thought of the play. It is my opinion that the Lion's club made it possible by sponsoring the Moroni Olsen players, a very superior evening of entertainment which will be remembered by other interesting, conversational material and retrospection for the Friday night audience.

RELIEF FROM FLOOD BY AIRPORT SOUGHT

Relief from flood conditions along Oxford street caused, it was stated, by the diversion of water into a new channel when the airport was built, will be asked of the city council in a petition signed by 19 members of 19 families in the district affected. A mass meeting to discuss the situation was held Thursday night. It was decided that the drainage operations at the airport had turned loose on the Oxford street neighborhood a stream of

OLE EIELSON PLANS BURIAL FOR HIS SON

SEATTLE, Jan. 31.—(AP)—Ole Eielson of Hatton, N. D., father of Carl Ben Eielson, the Alaskan aviator whose plane was found wrecked in a Siberian lagoon 90 miles southeast of North Cape, arrived in Seattle tonight. He intends to take the body of his son back to Hatton for burial, provided it is recovered.

Building Total Large in Month Closing Friday

Salem's building permit total for January was $30,491.25, an increase of about $7,500 over the report for the same period in 1929, which was $22,975. This increase occurred in spite of exceedingly poor weather for construction in the month just ended. However, the greater portion of the permits were taken out in the first half of the month, the last two weeks accounting for only $5175.

STUDENTS NOW ALLOWED BACK

New Spanish Government Begins Rule by Ordering Prisoners Freed

MADRID, Jan. 31.—(AP)—The new Spanish government under General Danabon Berenguer capped its first day's work today by settling the strike of university students. It was this strike which gave the first inkling of the crisis which resulted in the downfall of Primo de Rivera. The Duke of Alba, new minister of education, gave credit for the settlement. He adopted a conciliatory policy and ordered prison authorities to release all student leaders who had been detained by the dictatorship. He also conferred with the university officials and announced that classes would be resumed early next week in the national university of Madrid.

The new government also decided to pardon Antonio Maria Sbert, a student leader who was long the storm center of the differences between Primo and the university men. Sbert led the Madrid student demonstrations against the dictatorship in the spring of 1929. He was barred from all universities in Spain and banished to Mallorca by government decree in April of last year. The students ever since have been demanding withdrawal of this punishment and the announcement that the new government would pardon Sbert was hailed with satisfaction in student circles.

Jose Lopez Rey, president of the student federation, and Miguel Miral Martinez, one of the leaders of the strike who was imprisoned a week ago, were among those who were freed today. They said they and their classmates were anxious to get back to their studies. A similar return to classes is expected in other institutions throughout the country where strikes were called in sympathy with the Madrid walkout.

Sunday will be devoted to a trip around the loop to the ocean with dinner at Agate Beach hotel if the roads permit. If not, Saturday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock a theatre party will be held for dentists, their wives and families at the Capitol theatre. Other Sunday events include sight seeing trips through the city and county and gold.
A card party Friday afternoon is part of the special entertainment planned for the women guests.
At last night's meeting of the tri-dental society, Dr. Clyde C. Foley, executive secretary of the medical and dental society of Portland, outlined plans for proposed organization of a clearing house for dentists and doctors, and C. R. Skidmore talked along booster lines. The usual clinics were held.

CAMPOLLO-RISKO GO IS AGAIN REFUSED

NEW YORK, Jan. 31.—(AP)—For the second time in a week, the New York boxing solons today turned thumbs down on the proposal that Victorio Campollo be matched with Johnny Risko, Cleveland's giant-killer, at Madison Square Garden February 7. The Garden asked approval for the Campollo-Risiko fight last Tuesday, but was refused with the statement that the Cleveland Baker boy was not a suitable opponent for the giant Argentine. Armed with Risko's impressive past record over the leaders of the ring, William F. Carey, president of the Garden, and Tom McCardle, matchmaker, appeared before the commission in an unsuccessful attempt to have the decision reversed.
"We have no statement to make other than the commission disapproves of the match," said Chairman James J. Farley. "Understand we are not casting any reflection on either fighter but we do not consider the fight logical."

The Trade-mark

OLD SILVERSMITHS, in order to help people tell pure silver from cheaper imitations, marked the real thing "sterling."

In a like manner, manufacturers, who stand back of their wares, identify them with trade-marks that are your guarantee of quality. By advertising these trademarks, they focus on their products the searchlight of attention.

Only good goods, fairly priced, can flourish in this light of publicity. For no merchandise and no business can thrive under the weight of public condemnation.

That is why a manufacturer, or a merchant, places the whole reputation of his business at stake every time he advertises. His goods must be as advertised.

So, in looking through this paper, remember this: the man who spends his money to invite your consideration of his wares backs up his belief in his goods and leaves the final decision to you.

It pays you to read the advertisements. It pays you to buy advertised products.

Advertising is your protection
