Capitol Theatre Launching Plan

For Broadcasts Frank Bligh of Bligh's Capitel Theatre is negotiating for a radio broadcasting from Salem. The organ at his theatre would be used and Salem artists would be invited to go "on the air." Mr. Bligh's negotiations are with KGW, the radio station of the Oregonian at Portland. A direct wire would connect the theatre with the broadcasting room of KGW in the Oregonian tower at Portland. It would be a Salem hour, giving Salem talent an audience over the most powerful station in the northwest. This would be a noncommercial hook-up, a strictly artist program being rendered.
