

News from Mid-Valley District Communities for Statesman Readers

Woodburn

WOODBURN, Feb. 1.—Misses Pearl and Hazel Emery visited their mother, Mrs. Bessie Emery of Vancouver, Washington, over the week end.

Miss Ruth Mitchell went to Portland Saturday, where she visited her relatives until Sunday.

Matthew Moche left for Salem this week end to take up his studies at Willamette University, where he has registered in a physical education course.

John Nelson visited his mother and family here for a short while Saturday.

Mrs. A. H. Dean returned last Sunday from Long Beach, California, where she visited her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Willard D. Wiley and two children.

Mrs. Frank W. Settemier was a Portland visitor Wednesday.

A more interesting time is had by the members of the Harmony club which meets at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Dickenson each Monday evening. Everyone is invited who is interested in music. Mrs. O. F. Mulkey will be in charge of the program for next time.

Due to a slight epidemic of smallpox which necessitated the closing of Pacific university, John Kallak, Eldon Cone, Walter Bomhoff and Arthur Brachmann are home for a few days.

Bingham Powell and Jack Sanderson, both students at Columbia college in Portland, were home for the week end.

Miss Berneta Thompson was the week end guest of Miss Waive Lenon of Monitor.

Many of the alumni and out of town friends of the senior class at Woodburn were in attendance at the class play, "Peg o' My Heart," Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Shope entertained with a delightful family reunion at their home in honor of the latter's birthday Sunday. Coveted cards for Mr. and Mrs. Shope, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Davis and three daughters of St. Louis, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Shope and son, and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Shope and son of Boise, Idaho.

Several of the women from here attending the benefit bridge tea given by Chemeketa Chapter, D. A. R., at the women's club house in Salem Tuesday. Among those going were Mrs. W. L. Wilson of Champoeg, Mrs. C. F. Whitman, Mrs. H. F. Butterfield, Mrs. Blaine McCord, Mrs. V. D. Bain, Mrs. O. L. Withers, Mrs. Frank Proctor and Mrs. Wayne B. Gill, all of whom were guests of Mrs. F. W. Settemier and Mrs. A. E. Austin both members of Chemeketa chapter.

Mrs. Emily Magee of Ashland has enrolled in the high school here. She is keeping house for her brothers, Dale and Glenn Magee.

Mrs. Clarence Cole and daughter of near Roseburg is visiting her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Haynes for a few days.

J. O. Dixon and W. E. Allen made a business trip to Salem Wednesday.

Several horses in this vicinity have been sick with the staggers. Dabollas, Dale Magee and Allan Bellinger, each lost a horse.

Allan Bellinger has another horse pretty sick, Dr. Simmons being called Friday morning to look at it.

Mr. and Mrs. Louise Schaechar visited relatives in Mt. Angel on Wednesday.

Miss Doris Hogg, who is attending high school in Salem, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Hogg, several days the last of the week, having a short vacation. The second semester starts Monday.

Turner

TURNER, Feb. 1.—Turner, friends of the Ivan Miller family regret to hear of the recent death of Mr. Miller at his home at Marcola where he was associated with his brother Clarence in the lumber business. Mr. and Mrs. Miller and family made many friends while living at Turner six years; they moved to their present location about five years ago.

Miss Francesca Potter of Portland was a house guest during the week of her aunt, Mrs. R. Lee Theissen.

Herbert Briggs has accepted a position in a tire shop in Portland.

Orrin Key, formerly third trick operator at Turner station, has been transferred to Mickihee, situated on the S. P. Naton cutoff. He assumed his new duties the first of the week.

E. T. Pierce, president of the Turner state bank has been confined a few days at his home in Salem with sciatica.

Robert Mitchell, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Mitchell has been out of school a week on account of his accident while coasting. His leg and ankle were badly injured.

Member of the freshman Algebra class have chosen sides, and at stated periods the losing side served lunch for the class in their school room.

Students who have been absent from H. S. on account of sickness, but have returned are Gerald Givens, Seymour Stewart and Cecil Miller.

Silverton

SILVERTON, Feb. 1—D. Eisenhart, who has been employed at Cavendar's, has accepted work at Portland and Orlo Thompson will work at Cavendar's in place of Mr. Eisenhart.

Mrs. Henry Gunderson and tiny daughter, Helen, returned to their home from the Silverton hospital Thursday. They are being cared for by Miss Pearl Heckock. Lela Rowe, who has been at the Gunderson home during Mrs. Gunderson's absence, has returned to her own home.

Mrs. George D. Thomas, who is spending the winter at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. S. Fuller on the Downs Road, was surprised by a group of Amity callers on Wednesday. The occasion was Mrs. Thomas' birthday. Amity visitors were Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Fuller, Mrs. O. E. Ross and Mrs. John Umphlett. Other recent callers on Mrs. Thomas were her daughter Mrs. Newman and Mr. Newman of Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Madsen and daughter, Colleen, were visitors at the home of Mr. Madsen's brother, Alvin Madsen, at Lincoln Thursday.

Agnes Yakish, eight year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Yakish, is reported as being quite ill with ear trouble.

Mrs. Haga Hansen was hostess Wednesday afternoon to a group of friends. Guests were Mrs. Bert Iverson, Mrs. O. Ornbrek, Mrs. Skoog, Mrs. M. Lentzsch, and Mrs. E. Holden.

Mrs. E. Holden was hostess Thursday afternoon at a jolly little afternoon party at her home on North Water street. Guests were Mrs. H. Naegeli, Mrs. F. Naegeli and daughter Evangeline of Hoople, N. D., Mrs. G. B. Bentson, Mrs. Max Lentzsch and Mrs. Ole Satern.

Hall Campbell has been at the Silverton hospital for some time suffering from pneumonia, and who suffered a relapse Monday, is now improving and hopes for his speedy recovery will be well out. Mr. Campbell is a well-known Silverton musician.

Mrs. Albert Sather, who has been seriously ill for the past three weeks, has sufficiently improved to be up and about again although she is still quite weak.

Cloverdale

CLOVERDALE, Feb. 1—Miss Olga Garner and Miss Mildred Schifterer of Salem spent the week end here with their parents.

Miss Catherine Schampier and Glen Garner are among the sick listed this week.

Ivan Hadley has been helping the mail carrier during the recent bad weather. He took a horse and sleigh to get up through the hills.

The farmers are busy cutting this winter's wood during this snowy weather.

Mr. and Mrs. William Anderson drove to Albany on business Monday.

Emery Wood of Salem was calling in this vicinity Sunday. Little Gordon Kunke got a piece of emery in his eye and had to be taken in to the doctor Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Hadley drove to Salem Saturday taking their son Homer to Dr. Brown who has been treating him for the past weeks.

Mrs. Jennie Farr was taken worse Sunday and her nurse Mrs. Moore was called late that evening but she was reported better and resting well later.

Rickreall

RICKREALL, Feb. 1—Carmon Crippen, a senior of Rickreall high school finished school at Rickreall this week. She will start to Linfield college next Monday.

Clara Wait has been confined to her home for several days with the mumps. She is improving as much as possible.

Delbert Price who is working is on a vacation for a week, and is staying with his folks.

Donald Pence who is attending Salem high and who is now on a vacation for two days visited his old classmates of last year at the Rickreall high last Thursday.

Jefferson

JEFFERSON, Feb. 1.—The tower on Looney Butte, which was to be used as a beacon for airplanes, was taken down this week.

M. R. Magness of Harrisburg stopped in Jefferson Thursday on his way to Jake Gilmour's near Sidney.

Margaret Wall is spending some time in Eugene, being called there by the illness of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Don Wall.

The Jefferson public library will be open on Tuesday and Saturday afternoons. A number of new books have recently been added.

DEPENDABLE

RADIO SERVICE

ON ALL MAKES OF RADIO

We Carry

GROSLEY

Amrad-Rola

Priced $99
to $240

See Us

RADIO HEADQUARTERS

Just Radio

175 So. High

Zena .

ZENA, Feb. 1.—Mrs. R. Eaton, traveling representative of the Delphine society was a Thursday afternoon caller at the home of Mrs. Wayne D. Henry. Mrs. Eaton has as her territory the states west of the Rocky Mountains.

Miss Marjorie Walling accompanied by her friend, Miss Vern Smith motored to Amity Friday where they spent the day visiting the Amity high school. Miss Walling and Miss Smith attended the Amity high before becoming students at the Salem high school.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Madsen and daughter, Colleen, were visitors at the home of Mr. Madsen's brother, Alvin Madsen, at Lincoln Thursday.

Agnes Yakish, eight year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Yakish, is reported as being quite ill with ear trouble.

Mrs. Haga Hansen was hostess Wednesday afternoon to a group of friends. Guests were Mrs. Bert Iverson, Mrs. O. Ornbrek, Mrs. Skoog, Mrs. M. Lentzsch, and Mrs. E. Holden.

Mrs. E. Holden was hostess Thursday afternoon at a jolly little afternoon party at her home on North Water street. Guests were Mrs. H. Naegeli, Mrs. F. Naegeli and daughter Evangeline of Hoople, N. D., Mrs. G. B. Bentson, Mrs. Max Lentzsch and Mrs. Ole Satern.

Hall Campbell has been at the Silverton hospital for some time suffering from pneumonia, and who suffered a relapse Monday, is now improving and hopes for his speedy recovery will be well out. Mr. Campbell is a well-known Silverton musician.

Mrs. Albert Sather, who has been seriously ill for the past three weeks, has sufficiently improved to be up and about again although she is still quite weak.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne D. Henry and Mr. and Mrs. W. Frank Crawford were Wednesday evening visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Matthews of Spring Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Holdredge of Salem are visiting with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Merrick of Zena. They intend to remain here for several weeks.

Wayne D. Henry and W. N. Crawford attended the tractor school at the Archard Implement house Friday.

ZENA, Feb. 1—Miss Barbara Ann Keet of Portland was a weekend guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph C. Shearer of Zena. Miss Keet is a student at St. Mary's academy of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Holdredge of Salem were Sunday visitors at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Merrick of Zena. Mr. and Mrs. Holdredge are employees at the institution for feeble minded at Salem.

Mrs. Dorothy Shepard is a visitor this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sheridan Everett of Woodburn. Mrs. Everett was Miss Ruth Cooper of Bethel before her marriage last fall. She and Miss Shepard are girlhood friends.

Mrs. W. N. Crawford of Zena was a guest for the day Monday at the home of her mother, Mrs. Alice Simpson of Lincoln.

Mr. and Mrs. William Anderson drove to Albany on business Monday.

Emery Wood of Salem was calling in this vicinity Sunday. Little Gordon Kunke got a piece of emery in his eye and had to be taken in to the doctor Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Hadley drove to Salem Saturday taking their son Homer to Dr. Brown who has been treating him for the past weeks.

Mrs. Jennie Farr was taken worse Sunday and her nurse Mrs. Moore was called late that evening but she was reported better and resting well later.

Liberty

LIBERTY, Feb. 1—William Schotthoefer and bride have returned from a honeymoon trip spent in Washington. The best wishes of the community are extended to the newlyweds.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Elery of Portland, were week-end visitors at the home of Mrs. Elery's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Zosel.

Mrs. O'Brian of Salem, is helping care for Mrs. Watt, mother of Mrs. A. F. Marcus.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ingham and Mrs. Emily Van Santen attended the second basketball game of a series played at Monroe last Friday evening.

Joe Williams returned Tuesday from San Francisco where he attended a convention of the Willard Battery Service dealers of the Pacific coast.

Leon Williams of Toledo, spent several days last week at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Williams.

Miss Gladys Mumford, a former resident of this community, spent the week end at the E. Williams home. Miss Mumford is attending Normal school at Monroe.

Mrs. R. J. Bettencourt and son, Duane of Roberts, visited relatives at Liberty recently.

Clarence Stacy, proprietor of the fox farm near the Jefferson highway, is confined to his home with an attack of the flu.

While cutting wood on the John Jory place for Bruce Cunningham, John Soleman had the misfortune to have his foot crushed by a falling tree.

Miss May Shaver of Salem, is visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Kate Holder.

A number of former Liberty school pupils, who are now attending the Salem high school, took advantage of the holidays between semesters to visit the Liberty school.

Kingwood

KINGWOOD, Feb. 1—John May of Kelser spent Monday with Mr. and Mrs. Ed Finley. Mr. May is a brother of Mrs. Finley and is an employee at the Arthur Beardsley fruit farm at Kelser.

Mr. Mel P. Brown was greeting old acquaintances here Tuesday. The Browns are former residents of Kingwood but now live in south Salem.

Dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Applewhite Thursday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Bernard and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hall.

Students of Salem high are enjoying a brief vacation between semesters, there being no classes Thursday or Friday.

The Farmers' Grain company of 250 South Liberty street, Salem, contributed very generously toward famine relief among the birds during the snow storm. With grain donated by that company, various farmers of this community saved the lives of many wild birds.

Antone Schlechter was detained from school a part of last week suffering from pink eye.

Miss Anna Stoltz, whose home is west of town, has now fully recovered from an accident of Christmas time when her wrist was severely injured while catching a turkey.

Antone Schlechter was detained from school a part of last week suffering from pink eye.

Miss Marjorie Odum of Portland visited the first of this week at the home of Alvin Riersen and Stewart Lancefield, returned to Portland after spending several days last week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Lancefield.

Mrs. Esther Henry who has been ill, is staying at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Rogers.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gibbs and daughter, Miss Helen, visited Mrs. Vera Richter at the State tuberculosis hospital on Sunday afternoon.

Miss Helen Groves spent the first of the week here at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Groves.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Hadley were Sunday visitors at the home of their son Homer to Dr. Brown who has been treating him for the past weeks.

Mrs. Jennie Farr was taken worse Sunday and her nurse Mrs. Moore was called late that evening but she was reported better and resting well later.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Frank