In the prime of life when Francisco Madero became the first revolutionary president after the overthrow of the Prorfirio Diaz dictatorship, Ortiz Rubio has risen to the supreme office of the republic through a series of important civilian posts.

The term to which he was elected last November was to fill out that of the assassinated President-Elect Obregon. As the candidate of the national revolutionary party, he overwhelmingly defeated his principal rival, Jose Vasconcelos.

Little Likelihood Is Seen by Physicians for Recovery From His Illness

Efforts Concentrated Upon Postponing Fatal Hour Long as Possible

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4 .- (AP) William Howard Taft rallied slightly tonight from the serious illness which has made his friends fear for his life.

After more than an hour of consultation at the home of the former president and chief justice, the attending physicians reported "he is free of fever and is not suffering pain.'

"His heart is holding out well," was the cheering message they gave to anxious relatives. "He is a little more alert. We feel he is ossibly a little better."

Reign of Terror Takes Firmer Grip Than Ever Before on People

CHICAGO, Feb. 4-(AP)-Joseph Biccere, a grocer, was shot to death in his south side apartment tonight, supposedly by extortionists, bringing the number of slayings in Chicago since last Wednesday night to six.

Biccere's slayers had smothered the sound of their shots by increasing the volume of a radio to which the victim had been listening. Mrs. Elizabeth Padzunas, living on the first floor, said Biccere had been in her grocery store early in the evening to get a maggazine and that she had heard the tones of the radio rise above their normal volume.

Biccere's death came only a few hours after Philip Marchese, petty hoodlum and killer, had been slain in a west side alley by two 11 o'clock, five hours later, ar- men who fled after emptying their rived at the navy yard in tow of guns in the head and back of their

ASTORIA, Ore., Feb. 4-(AP) A search has been instituted here for Max Pohl, 52, deputy county clerk who disappeared from this city today and who is believed by friends and relatives to be suffering from a nervous breakdown.

Pohl left his home today, indicating he was going to his office, but instead took his car from a garage and left the city, reports today from Seaside indicated he had passed through that city driving south.

County Clerk J. C. Clinton, under whom Pohl has served for more than 20 years, stated there were no reasons in connection with his official duties why Pohl should have departed so hastily. The deputy clerk has been in ill health recently.

Pohl's car was found tonight by Chief of Police Dick Brown of Seaside at the end of the Tillamook head road. The car was closed and locked. A searching party sent out along the trail from the end of the road, which leads on the cliff some 300 to 700 feet above the ocean, reported no trace of the missing man.
