

LOGANBERRY CROP PROSPECTS GOOD

SUNNYSIDE, Feb. 6.—Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Neuschwander made a business trip to Corvallis, Tuesday.

The prospects for the loganberry crop seem good according to reports from growers in this vicinity. The vines are in good condition. The acreage of some fields has been reduced to about one half, while in others the entire patch has been taken up. Plowing has started in some of the fields.

A birthday and wedding anniversary dinner was enjoyed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Pearson, 1795 S. High street, February 2. The occasion was the 68th birthday of Mr. D. S. Pearson, and the eighth for his granddaughter, Maxine Pearson; and the 33rd wedding anniversary for Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Pearson, parents of Harry Pearson.

While at dinner telegrams of congratulation were received from Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Pearson, of New York City, and Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Pearson of Rochester, New York. One of the enjoyable incidents of Mr. Pearson's birthday was the finding of a box left on the barn approach, containing a fine little note of blooded stock, from an unknown friend.

Vern Chandler and his mother visited at the home of Sam Chandler at Silverton, Sunday. Sam Chandler has been quite ill for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lindy Taylor are the proud possessors of a new Ford coupe.

Happy Woman Tells How She Lost 19 Pounds of Fat In 27 Days

During October a woman in Montana wrote: "My first bottle of Kruschen Salts lasted almost 4 weeks and during that time I lost 19 pounds of fat—Kruschen is all you claim for it—I feel better than I have for years."

Here's the recipe that banishes fat and brings into blossom all the natural attractiveness that every woman possesses.

Every morning take one half teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water before breakfast.

Be sure and do this every morning for "It's the little daily dose that takes off the fat."—Don't miss a morning. The Kruschen habit means that every particle of poisonous waste matter and harmful

GROUNDHOG MYTH OFF AT JEFFERSON

JEFFERSON, Feb. 6.—The ground hog was on the job Sunday and saw the sun here, and now it is up to the U. S. weather bureau to forget its past jealousy of him as a weather prophet and line up behind him to delay winter six weeks longer.

One would think spring was just around the corner, if they could see all the lovely pussy-willows in bloom around town, with the hyacinths and daffodils several inches above the ground. Another sign of spring approaching was that robins were seen pulling angle-worms out of the ground, which is rather unusual at this time of year.

Ether Roland left Wednesday morning for Roseburg for an extended visit with her nephew, Tracy Roland and family.

P. McGowan who is superintending the crew who are wrecking the Jefferson mill met with an accident Saturday morning, when a heavy timber fell, striking him on the head, causing scalp wounds, which required medical attention. McGowan was able to continue his work overseeing the crew.
