TILT CAPTURED OVER MEDFORD

Pearpickers Are Thoroughly Trowned in One-Sided Hoop Contest

MEDFORD, Feb. 7.—(Special)—Salem high school's speedy basketball team had little difficulty in defeating Medford high here tonight 33 to 23.

At the start it looked like Salem would swamp the Pearpickers so badly they would never tilt their heads again. Salem led 11 to 2 at the end of the first quarter and 15 to 5 at half time.

The game continued in the same lopsided fashion until the final two minutes of play, when Medford staged a belated rally and scored seven points in rapid succession.

Sanford, Salem's aggressive sophomore guard, led in scoring with ten points; Bone, who had been the leading point maker against Ashland Thursday night, followed closely with nine. Graber, center, scored seven points, Foreman three, Kitchen two and Sachler two.

The same teams will play again tomorrow night here, and it is expected that the charmed Pearpickers will tighten up and make things tough for the visitors. They showed little resemblance tonight to the quintet which won the state championship a year ago.

FULOPS BOWLERS CAPTURE PENNANT

Day and Niles took command of second place by winning two from the Olds Vikings. Fulops clinched the first high pennant by taking two from Carson Pharmacy. Riffe turned in high series of 531.

DEMPSEY NOT KEEN ABOUT COMING BOUT

By PAUL ZIMMERMAN Associated Press Sports Writer LOS ANGELES, Cal., Feb. 7.—(AP)—Jack Dempsey, ex-champion of the heavyweights, turned professional thumbs down on the pending match in Miami, Fla., between Jack Sharkey and Phil Scott. Returning to southern California with his wife Estelle Taylor, the actress, for a two weeks sojourn, the Chicago promoter minced no words in expressing his opinions concerning the eastern fight which is being staged as a semi-final to the selection of a heavyweight champion.

"Scott has done nothing to entitle him to a match of the importance they are trying to give the Miami fight," Dempsey said. "He is not a proper opponent for Sharkey."

"While I had to give the Scott-Van Porat match in New York to Scott on a foul, my private opinion is that Van Porat would have knocked the Englishman out, had the battle continued."

"Besides Van Porat, I believe that 'Tuffy' Griffiths would be able to flatten Scott. I am not on the outs with the Madison Square Garden. I simply do not see how they figure to pass this bout off as a semi-final to a championship."

Dempsey had his usual remarks to make about his own boxing career. "I may come back," he said, "that is, if a foreigner wins the title. But I don't see how Sharkey can possibly lose to Scott and he should be able to defeat Max Schmeling."

Three-Cushion Thrillers

By HARDIN BURNLEY

Johnny LAYTON
WORLD'S 3-CUSHION BILLIARDS CHAMP FOR THREE STRAIGHT YEARS WHO HAS NEVER FINISHED LOWER THAN 2ND IN TWENTY YEARS OF TITLE TOURNAMENTS!

IN MORE than twenty years of three-cushion billiards competition, World's Champion Johnny Layton has never finished worse than second in championship play! The one-time Sedalia, Mo., carpenter—who applies the working principle of his tool chest squares to the all-important angles of billiards—has won the big title five times, recently winning it at New York City for the third year in succession!

Mathematical precision, perfect stroking, and deliberate calm combine to make the ruddy-faced, keen-eyed Layton perhaps the greatest 3-cushion master ever known. This Sedalian super star plays the diamond inlays with astronomical accuracy. Great as his chosen game for two decades, Johnny seems to improve with the years.

And even had Willie Hoppe entered that recent championship, well—the score analysis tends to show that Layton probably would have retained his title anyway. He brought his play to an ideal championship climax by defeating Otto Reisselt of Philadelphia, in the 43-inning final game, 50-32. He made a run of 8 on his next to the last turn at the table.

Layton lost but one match during that tourney, Angie Kieckhefer, Milwaukee left-hander, checking the champion, 50-33. Runner-up to Layton in that recent tournament was Allen Hall, young Chicagoan, whose most highly prized cue was presented to him by his teacher, the famous fancy shot—Charles Peterson. The latter had inscribed on the cue's silver band the legend: "To the future Three-Cushion Champion of the World."

Hall won second place in a play-off with Reisselt. Of all the new big stars at three cushions, Peterson's former pupil seems to be the most promising. The greatest of all trick shots met Hall about six years ago when "Al" was a military academy student with local fame as a junior billiardist. In the Spring of 1924, Peterson had Hall enter the Midwestern Amateur Billiards championship which he captured with seven straight victories. Against Charlie's advice, "Al" turned professional and has been progressing ever since until his recent play stamps him as a master.

Three cushions rightly is reputed to be the most strenuous of billiards since it requires much power of stroke. Yet the game does not demand youth necessarily. Layton, who formerly has demonstrated, He should add several title triumphs to his list unless some comer like Allen Hall strikes his way to the top. Yes, the runner-up this year may justify Peterson's fond cue prediction at the most promising. The greatest of

LOMSKI BOUT WITH WALKER IS RUN OFF

DETROIT, Feb. 7.—(AP)—James Brown, chairman of the state boxing commission, took no action today to call off the scheduled bout at Olympia, between Leo Lomski, Aberdeen, Wash., and Mickey Walker, middleweight champion, but danned an investigation of the suspension of Walker in Illinois, of which Brown said, he first heard yesterday in a telephone call.

Brown said that under ordinary procedure of the National Boxing association, the Michigan association would have been notified of the suspension in writing. No such notification was received when Walker was suspended last September, he said, and he knew nothing of it when he approved plans to stage the bout next Friday night.

The Michigan chairman planned to have a conference with Stanley Isaacs, of Cincinnati, president of the N. B. A., regarding the affair.

Walker, it was stated here today, never received notice of the suspension in regular form.

Oregon Wins Fast Game Over Aggies

CORVALLIS, Ore., Feb. 7.—(AP)—The University of Oregon defeated Oregon State college 34 to 27 here tonight in a Pacific coast conference basketball game. The contest was the first of a two game series.

After starting strong Oregon relaxed toward the end of the first half and allowed the Oranges to tie the game 13 to 13 at half time.

Under the inspiration of their lanky leader, Jean Eberhart, the Webfoots came back strong in the second half and piled up a comfortable lead which they held until the final whistle.

Personal fouls were many and both Eberhart and Horner of Oregon were disqualified on this account toward the end of the contest.

The win put Oregon even in the standings of the northern division, with four wins and four losses while Oregon State dropped a notch with four wins and six losses.

The Kappa Gamma Rho fraternity team lost a fight 14-5 with the lower class five to determine the cellar position of the DoNot league basketball Friday noon at Willamette university gym.

This game was unusually rough but the addition of new players in the lower class lineup developed them far beyond the anticipated strength. CLASSIC GAMES OCCUR TONIGHT

Madison Square Garden is Scene of Millrose A. A. Gathering

NEW YORK, Feb. 7.—(AP)—Picked track and field stars of the United States, Canada and two European countries assembled here today for the classic Millrose A. A. games at Madison Square Garden tomorrow night.

Two of the fastest sprinters that ever chased a gridiron or track will meet when Jack Elder of Notre Dame and Cy Leland of Texas Christian university clash in a 60-yard sprint with a 50-yard final to race it out for recognition as "the fastest football player."

Both made great names for themselves last fall by flashy runs for touchdowns. So that nothing will prevent them from having it out, Elder and Leland have been placed in the same heat at 60 yards. They must finish one two to meet again in the final.

The same event will be Jimmy Daley of Holy Cross; Chet Bowman, Newark, A. C.; Howard Kris, Cleveland, A. C.; John Fitzpatrick of the Canadian Olympic team; and Leigh Miller, another crack Canadian.

Both made great names for themselves last fall by flashy runs for touchdowns. So that nothing will prevent them from having it out, Elder and Leland have been placed in the same heat at 60 yards. They must finish one two to meet again in the final.

Bob King, the Olympic champion, heads a fine field in the high jump and Fred Sturdy, former Yale performer, will attempt to raise the "ceiling" in the pole vault.

HUNTER SELIGSON CLASH IN FINALS

By TED VOSBURGH Associated Press Sports Writer NEW YORK, Feb. 7.—(AP)—Frank Hunter and Julius Seligson, two of the hardest drivers in the game, reached the final round of the national indoor tennis tournament today. Tomorrow they will fight it out for the championship.

Hunter, the New Rochelle, N. Y., veteran who is ranked second only to Bill Tilden, is heavily favored to capture the title he held three years ago. He and the Lehigh collegian have met four times in the past and Seligson never has won.

Youth is on Seligson's side, however, and he demonstrated in the semi-finals today that he is close to his great form of 1928 and labor leaders here on February 11," read Governor Norblad's telegram.

PROTECTION ASKED LUMBER INDUSTRY

Adequate tariff protection for the lumber industry as a means of stimulating employment and insuring the future prosperity of Oregon and the entire northwest, was asserted by Governor Norblad in a message sent to President Hoover Friday.

"In an effort to further follow up the spirit of the conference which was held in December, I am holding a special economic conference of Oregon industries and labor leaders here on February 11," read Governor Norblad's telegram.

"Oregon is the most heavily timbered state in the union and its general prosperity is based very largely upon the lumber industry which produces 60 cents of every dollar coming into the state. During the past eight months we have had much unemployment in the logging camps and mills due to the inability of our people to meet the competition from Canadian and Russian mills that operate under conditions not comparable to those of our mills which employ American labor and pay wages which will permit them living up to American ideals."

"The lumber industry is heartily in favor of the farmers securing the same tariff protection they ask for the protection of the lumber industry. The lumber industry schedule is soon to be up for consideration and as governor of the state of Oregon I want to take this opportunity to urge you to do everything you can to assist us in securing this much needed protection for the end that our mills may be enabled to operate steadily and the many thousands of people find employment in the lumber industry be given protection against the product of oriental labor which is at present competing with the United States in increasing volume."

Protection of other Oregon products will be taken up later with President Hoover, Governor Norblad announced.

JONES VALUES BELT AT $1000

Utah Grappler Not Anxious To Meet Des Anderson Again Here

After winning the western welterweight championship belt from Des Anderson, local wrestler, "the great" Henry Jones apparently isn't going to take any chances of losing it again—except for a monetary consideration that is somewhat outside the realms of Jones in view of the embryo state of the mat game here.

Anderson recently wired Jones a challenge for another match here February 19, and here is the telegraphic answer Anderson received Friday:

"Am now wrestling in junior middleweight class. I will not make weight for you or put up belt for you only on thousand dollar guarantee, but will wrestle anyone else you care to match me with that date."

Matchmaker Harry Plant opined Friday afternoon that there wasn't that much money in town, but thought the boxing and wrestling commission might give Mr. Jones the state convention to throw in a couple of service stations.

Jones, it is understood, offers to wrestle Anderson to catch weights without the belt being at stake, but in view of the fact that Anderson put up the belt without requiring any guarantee when Jones won it from him, the matchmaker isn't in the mood to accommodate the Provo, Utah, grappler.

Some agreement may be reached in the next few days. In the meantime, Anderson will wrestle Harry Kuehne at Newberg next Tuesday night.

Meanwhile the wild Jones, who won't hazard his precious belt, has bulldozed Wildcat Pete into putting up the world's junior middleweight belt at Eugene.

CHEMEKETANS PUT OFF MT. HOOD TRIP

The Chemeketans' ski and toboggan outing at Government Camp on Mt. Hood, planned for this week end, has been postponed because of unsatisfactory snow conditions.

Although there was an unusual amount of snow this winter in the Willamette valley, there was only about two feet at Government camp and recent warm weather and rains have reduced this to less than a foot.

Officials of the Chemeketans in charge of plans for the outing will keep in touch with conditions and reschedule the event when there is a sufficient amount of snow. Fifty-three winter sports lovers had signed up, and any of them who want their registration fees refunded will be accommodated at the Y. M. C. A., where registrations were made.

NAVIGATION TALKED PORTLAND, Ore., Feb. 7.—(AP)—Regular meeting of the Columbia Valley association will be held Monday, February 17, at the Multnomah hotel here. R. H. Kipp, executive secretary, announced today.

CURT COMMENTS

WOW! DROPPED TWO!

See what our support did for the red and black? But the guessing average suffers: 577, 15 right and 11 wrong. Have to quit giving them away; but first we'll pick Medford again for tonight and Oregon State to beat Oregon.

We read an item the other day about "Harry Plant, local greenhouse proprietor." There are a lot of budding fighters and blushing wreathers over at the armory where Harry holds forth but we thought Harry's slogan was "please omit flowers," not "Say it with flowers." Have to brush up on Who's Who, apparently.

The American Legion, in various Oregon cities, is starting to talk about junior baseball. Right here in Salem we have the state junior baseball chairman, in the Ray Rickreall high at Rickreall year there wasn't much interest in this worth while program. Largely it was because Capital Post had the state convention to worry about. Another unfortunate factor was that a certain man volunteered to coach the local team and then lost his enthusiasm just at the wrong moment.

There's no state convention here this year, and with an absent baseballer, Biddy Bishop commander of the post, the legion here ought to pitch right in and boost the game along. If there's no semi-pro ball here this season, so much the better for the junior variety.

Now is the time to begin planning.

Surely, the state convention brought a brilliant example of what the program amounted to, for the final game for the state championship was played here before a monster crowd and the Silverton team, in which the local fans were able to take a certain degree of proprietary interest, was one of the participants.

Another thing, the Portland team won, went a long way toward the national championship after the championship, and Pete has guaranteed to make the 154 pound limit.

Fans have long been clamoring for another match between the two fast and tough grapplers, Jones, who formerly held the belt, is desirous of regaining it. He has remained in this district especially for that purpose.

FRITZ CRISLER MAY COACH MINNESOTA

Salem ought to capture that state championship—it had the material last year, if proper encouragement had been forthcoming.

This was Monmouth's last conference game at home. It will person of Sue Kline, but last next Tuesday, and Falls City in a postponed game later.

The Monmouth girls trod on the Independence co-eds 58 to 16, with Madeline Riley the outstanding star for the local team.

Ancient Rivals Clash Before Record Crowd on Silverton Floor

SILVERTON, Feb. 7.—(Special)—Holding the Silverton quintet to one field goal, the Woodburn high school Bulldogs advanced into a highly favored position toward winning the county basketball championship by winning here tonight 15 to 12.

It was a thrilling game from the start with close checking, a feature of the play on both sides. Woodburn also was held to a lone field goal in the first half, which ended 8 to 3 in Silverton's favor due to the locals' success in sinking six free throws.

The Silverton boys dropped in four more from the foul line in the second half to stay in the running, but the Woodburn marksmen finally found the range and climbed into the lead.

Both of Woodburn's regular guards were removed from the game, L. Scholer on four personals in the first half and A. Scholer in the second half due to roughness. Strictness on the part of Referee Price from Portland was more responsible for the numerous penalties than any deliberate rough play.

The game was witnessed by the biggest crowd of the season, and the gymnasium was in a wild uproar throughout the contest. Harold Wood scored Silverton's lone field goal.

MONMOUTH WINS BY SCORE OF 34 TO 17

MONMOUTH, Feb. 7.—(Special)—In a game featured by a scoring duel between the opposing centers, Monmouth high school's basketball team defeated Independence high here tonight 34 to 17.

The scoring duel was practically a draw. Rogers of Monmouth bagged six field goals and Plant of Independence only five, but Plant piled up a total of 13 points to Rogers' 12. In general, the game was much more bitterly fought than the score indicates. Monmouth and Independence have always been bitter rivals and this game proved no exception.

This was Monmouth's last conference game at home. It will person of Sue Kline, but last next Tuesday, and Falls City in a postponed game later.
