An error was made in yesterday's paper in announcing for Saturday radio events for Sunday. Dr. Daniel A. Poling of the National Youth conference will speak during the regular Sunday hour over KGW from 12 to 1 o'clock and Dr. S. Parkes Cadman will speak during the hour from 1 to 2. Dr. Poling will speak on "Lincoln's Spiritual Leadership" and Dr. Cadman on Washington and Lincoln.

From 11 to 12 KGW will broadcast a Portland church service. The afternoon Sunday concert will be from 2:30 to 3:30 with Annabelle Rose, contralto as soloist. It may be heard over KGO, Oakland, and KOMO, Seattle.

Two noted Russian singers and a renowned English orchestra conductor will be heard in a joint concert when Nina Koshetz, soprano, George Cehanovsky, baritone, and Eugene Goossens appear as guest artists tonight from 6:15 to 7:15 o'clock.

Miss Koshetz, whose voice has been acclaimed by critics as exceptionally beautiful, is a native of Moscow. Her father was a leading tenor in the Imperial Opera. The most illustrious teachers of Russia and France instructed her in voice and piano. She appeared in the Imperial Opera in numerous performances and then came to America following the Russian revolution. While with the Chicago Opera company Miss Koshetz created the role of Fata Morgana in Prokofieff's opera, "The Love of Three Oranges." She has also been heard several times with the Philadelphia orchestra.

Cehanovsky is a young member of the Metropolitan Opera company, where he has been singing since 1296. During the World War he had served as lieutenant-commander of one of the Russian "Czar's" torpedo boats. Today he is considered one of the most versatile artists in grand opera.

One of the most distinguished of the younger British conductors, Goossens is also a composer of great ability. In America, whence he came after serving as conductor of several of the leading English orchestras, Goossens is known throughout the country as director of the Rochester Philharmonic orchestra and guest conductor of the Boston, New York, Philadelphia and Hollywood Bowl Symphony orchestras.

The program for the concert is marked by diversity, with the gay Spanish song "Clavelitos," among Miss Koshetz's offerings and the appealing "Vision Fugitive" from "Herodliade" as a baritone solo, and famed Wagner and Debussy compositions among the four orchestral selections.

Details follow:
 Orchestra—March, "Antar."
 Soprano Solos—a. Cherry Tree. b. Songs My Mother Taught Me.
 Drorak. c. Clavelitos, Valverde.
 Orchestra—Valse de Concert, No. 2.
 Baritone solos—a. Lolita. b. Vision Fugitive—"Herodliade", Massenet.
 Soprano Solos—a. Over the Steppes, Borodin. b. Vocalise. E. Estrellita, Ponce.
 Baritone Solos—a. Morning Hymn. b. By the Sea.
 Orchestra—The Afternoon of a Faun, Debussy.
 Soprano and Baritone Duet—Vanka and Tanika.
 Orchestra—Overture—"The Flying Dutchman", Wagner.
 Pacific coast stations releasing this NBC System broadcast are KHQ, Spokane; KOMO, Seattle; KGW, Portland; KPO San Francisco, and KFI, Los Angeles.

Rosedale

ROSEDALE, Feb. 8.—Mrs. A. J. Haldy visited her parents in Portland the first of the week. O. D. Needham, roadmaster, is busy working on the roads in the western part of the district.

The Ladies' Missionary society spent a very pleasant afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. H. Smith Wednesday. The time was spent in piecing a comfort top to be given to the Salvation Army. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Albert Bates, February 19.

Albert Cammack motored to Portland Sunday evening with returning students. He returned on Monday evening.

Two typographical errors last week made two news items rather unintelligible. It was concerning Mrs. Davis who lives on the Gardner place and Mrs. Grubbe on the Blinsten place.

Paul Cammack finished his course at the Salem high school January 31 and is at home this spring to help with the ranch work. Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Tamplin, and two boys, former pastor of the church here, and who has been doing missionary work in Central America, are at the home of relatives in Portland. They were ordered home for the present on account of Mrs. Tamplin's health.

Dayton

DAYTON, Feb. 8.—Robert Cinnamon, who was reported badly injured last Tuesday, is getting along as well as can be expected, although his leg is not injured quite as badly as first reported. He is badly crushed from the knee down. Mr. and Mrs. Horace Cinnamon, a brother of the injured man, drove down from Seattle to be with him.

Mrs. Annie Westerfield of Bremerton, Wash., is spending some time visiting friends and relatives here. Mrs. Westerfield left Wednesday for Junction City to spend a few days with friends before leaving for her home in Bremerton.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Detmering and two sons, Carl, Jr., and Don Charles of Toledo, Oregon, are visiting a few days this week at the homes of his two sisters, Mrs. Harry Sherman and Mrs. Oscar Dower.

A baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Miller January 28, 1930. The Millers reside in the Pleasantdale neighborhood. Cards are out announcing the birth of a son to Mr. and Mrs. Winnie McDougall on January 31, 1930. He is to be known as Arland Dobby McDougall. The McDougalls are spending the winter in Ventura, California, with Mr. McDougall's sister, who resides there, and will be returning to their farm east of Dayton in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. Arvid Johnson and family have purchased a home in Dayton across the street from the Baptist church recently owned by Earl Kidd.

Oak Point

OAK POINT, Feb. 8.—Church and Sunday school was resumed last Sunday for the first time since the snow and quite a large crowd was in attendance. Mr. Bell, a student pastor of Salem, preached the sermon.

There has been no clue as to the identity of the prowlers who broke into the Oak Point school and stole a set of encyclopedias besides all the food that was in store for hot lunches.

The choir practiced at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Zille last Tuesday evening.

Harry Walker, of Canada, who has been spending the winter with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Walker is leaving soon for a trip to California before returning home.

Mrs. Whipple who fell during the recent snow storm and broke two ribs is able to be about.

OFFICERS ELECTED

MONMOUTH, Feb. 8.—The Odd Fellows Building company of Monmouth held an annual meeting and election of officers Friday evening. W. R. Graham, president; Ed Rogers and D. R. Riddell, directors; R. B. Swenson, secretary-treasurer, were all re-elected. Stocks already issued has reached the sum of $9,000, so it was voted to discontinue issuance of stock as dividends, but allow stockholders who have a credit of dividends to buy outright the completion of such shares.

Dallas High to Close First Term During the Week

DALLAS, Feb. 8.—The mid-year finals at Dallas high will start next Tuesday, Feb. 11. There will be school Monday, but after that only those who have to take the finals will have to attend the school. The finals this year are coming late on account of the late start last fall. School will be in session here until about June 20.

The second term will start Monday, Feb. 17. The first day the classes will be shortened and will only occupy the morning periods. The term will really begin Tuesday, February 18, when the regular classes will start again.

So far in debate Dallas high has only scored nine points this year. She won one debate unanimously for four points, won another two to one for three points and received one point each in two debates she lost two to one.

By carrier you should receive your copy of The Statesman not later than 6:30. We guarantee carrier service.

Summit Hill

SUMMIT HILL, Feb. 8.—Margaret Shifferer spent the week end with her friend LaVerne Whitehead at Turner.

Sanford Norris came home from Kings Valley where he has been employed in the mill. Work is closed down on account of needed repairs caused by the freezing of pipes.

Will Shifferer met with a very painful accident recently. While unloading baled hay, a bale fell, striking his shoulder, dislocating it. His brother John, a World War veteran, used his knowledge acquired there and his shoulder was soon in place without the assistance of a doctor.

Several ladies from this community attended the W. C. T. U. meeting on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Frank Cook. The meeting was a very interesting one.

The day was spent quilting, intermingled with conversation, condemning Mayor Livesley's attitude toward the return of beer making.

G. F. Booth returned from Portland where he has spent several days on business.

The patrons of the telephone company are well pleased with the improved service. Ben Whipple and Louie Hennessy took the contract to repair the line and their work has been most satisfactory.

The freezing caused the roads in this locality to be very bad, but we see our efficient road commissioner, Carl Whipple, at work and they will soon be back to normal.

Mrs. Florence Schaefer and son of Portland are spending some time with Mrs. Schaefer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Morris.

GUESTS AT DAYTON

DAYTON, Feb. 8.—Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Taggart are spending the winter with Mrs. Taggart's sister, Miss Lena Stillwell, also with their son Max who is attending O. S. C. at Corvallis. Mr. and Mrs. Taggart have disposed of their hardware store in Ontario, Oregon and after their visit with numerous friends and relatives here they will return to their farm home near Ontario. Mr. Taggart has been in business there for the past twenty years or more.
