

Local News Briefs

Green High Officers—W. J. Mooney, supreme secretary of the Knights of Columbus, with headquarters in New Haven, Conn., was in Salem Sunday night to meet with members of the order in this vicinity. Members from all parts of Marion county were present. He is telling members throughout the west of the progress which the order is making, and getting first hand information on the affairs of local organizations. Others who spoke here were F. J. Hanley of Portland, state deputy; Joe Van Housen, deputy of district No. 1; George Kreutzer, Sheridan, deputy in district No. 2; F. R. Coleman, St. Paul, deputy in district No. 3.

FOUND GUILTY—J. Lincoln Hills of 487 Center St. has been tried and found guilty of selling glassy high quality "made-to-measure" clothing at about half what others charge, because he sells the "Scotch Woolen Mills" line so well known here. Your choice of 200 fabrics for suit or topcoat for $23.50. He has about 700 latest snappy samples of this and other "fall-wool" lines. Style, fit and workmanship fully guaranteed. See them at 487 Center street.

Want Educator to Come—The Salem Teachers' association is making an effort to induce Dr. Edna Bailey of the University of California at Berkeley, to address a meeting of the local teachers' group in March. Dr. Bailey is a noted health authority and is leaving shortly for Washington, D. C., to attend President Hoover's conference on child welfare. The Salem association hopes to induce her to stop off here on her way back to California after attending the conference.

Injured Boy Better—Hospital attendants at the Salem General report Alec Rataeyk 9, in fine condition in spite of the fact that he was thought fatally injured when he was knocked down and run over at the intersection of the Fairgrounds road and the Silverton road by an automobile driven by Mrs. C. W. Reed, route 8, Saturday afternoon. Alec is the son of Mike Rataeyk, 2630 Brooks avenue. The boy's injuries consist of a broken leg, fractured skull and bruises.

Big Legion Auxiliary benefit dance, Crystal Gardens, Feb. 14. Good music, old time dancing.

Payne's Name Dropped—Name of Robert L. Payne, pastor of the First Baptist church, was dropped from the roll of the Salem Ministerial association, when his case was presented to the group at the bi-monthly meeting held at the Y. M. C. A. yesterday morning. This action was taken because he had not paid his dues and because he had stated previously he did not consider himself a member of the association.

Jury Gets Trip—The first jury to be drawn for the February term of court opened Monday morning with the Harris case and when the location of accident between S. P. Train and the automobile owned by Harris was under discussion, it was decided to send the jury to the scene. Harris is suing for damages to his machine as well as personal damages.

Pleads Not Guilty—Although prohibition officers found a 20 gallon still on his place, C. C. Killingsworth, Broadacres, denied having any knowledge of the ownership of the still when he appeared in justice court Monday. Bail was fixed at $1000 and Killingsworth will be given a hearing next Saturday.

Y. W. C. A. Board Meet—The Y. W. C. A. board will hold its regular monthly meeting at the association building this morning and early afternoon. Discussion of the budget for the new working year is expected to occupy the center of attention.

Auto Stolen—An automobile belonging to A. B. Caples of the Grand theatre, stolen in Salem Sunday night, was found along the highway near Albany the same night.

Camp Fire Council—The Nowetompattina Camp Fire Girls of the high school met last night at the home of Willie Ames, 753 North Winter street, for a council fire.

Lila Wheeler, beauty specialist, is now located at Lila's Beauty Shop, 385 N. High St. Phone 2555.

Rates in City—Ansley G. Bates, former resident of this city but now of Astoria and Seaside, was a business visitor here yesterday.

Leaves for Colorado—Ada Welty, who has been residing at the Virginia apartments, will leave today for Monte Vista, Colo.

Girl Reserves Meet—Seven members of the Pringle Girl Reserve triangle met yesterday afternoon at the Y. W. C. A. here for a recognition service, in which three new members were recognized. Mrs. Elizabeth K. Gallaher, general secretary, and Miss Florence Berndt, advisor of the Pringle group, met with the girls who were: Betty Taylor, president; Doris Cassidy, vice president; Hilda McDowell, secretary; Mae Pearsall, treasurer; Ruth Stapleton, Vivian Van Lydegar and Lucille Conklin.

"I shall not be responsible for bills charged to my account, except those contracted for by myself," Myrtle B. Arneson (Mrs. L. A. Arneson), owner of Inspiration Point on Garden Road, Salem, Oregon.

Appoints Carlton—George W. Hug, city superintendent and president of the Northwest association of secondary schools and colleges, has appointed F. E. Carlton, secretary of the O. S. T. A., to represent the northwest group at the national association of regional standardizing agencies which meets in Atlantic City Tuesday, February 25. Carlton is familiar with this phase of educational activities through his work in this state.

Drunk on Highway—Charged with being intoxicated on a public highway, E. A. Ligon, 1425 D street, appeared in justice court Monday and pleaded guilty. He was arrested Sunday evening when he was found in his car which was in a ditch this side of Aurora. Sentence will be imposed Saturday.

Clubhouse Planned—Construction of a new clubhouse is planned by the St. Louis parish of the Catholic church, to replace the present building, which is a converted dwelling. Plans for the new building were discussed at a recent breakfast held by the men of the parish.

For guaranteed repair work, Fitzgerald Sherwin Motor Co.

Operation Given—Miss R. T. Smith who went south to Cloverdale, Calif., with her sister, Mrs. S. W. Mann, to spend the winter was taken to a hospital on February third and operated on for appendicitis. She stood the operation fine and is slowly recovering her normal health.

Repeat Scotch Event—The Scotch program which played to a capacity audience at the Y. M. C. A. several weeks ago, will be repeated Friday night as the weekly lobby program, to accommodate persons who could not be admitted for lack of room on its first presentation.

Fire Damage Slight—A defective fireplace was blamed for the blaze which did a small amount of damage at the Joe Rund residence, Berry and Hoyt streets, Sunday night. The firemen found it necessary to cut a hole in the floor to extinguish the fire.

View New Road—The proposed route of the new highway to be extended from South Twelfth street to the Pacific highway was the point of attention for the members of the county court and State Market Engineer Scott, Monday.

Want used furniture, Tel. 511.

S. U. V. to Meet—Josiah Smith camp, Sons of Union Veterans, will meet tonight at 7:30 o'clock at the Woman's club building. T. J. Boyer, commander, has urged all members to attend in initiating a large class.

Board Meeting Tonight—Regular bi-monthly session of the Salem school board will be held at the city superintendent's office tonight, beginning at 8 o'clock. Several matters are expected to come before the group.

Latin Club to Frolic—The Latin club of the senior high school will hold a party at the school building this afternoon at 3:15 o'clock, the affair to carry through a Valentine motif.

Miller in Lane County—E. A. Miller, farm supervisor with Hawkins and Roberts, made a business trip to valley points yesterday, going as far south as Junction City.

Theatricals to Meet—The dramatic club at the Y. M. C. A. will meet tonight, at which time parts will be assigned for several one-act plays to be presented soon.

Speeding Charged—W. H. Noot was arrested Monday by a city traffic officer on a charge of speeding.

Sergeant to Lebanon—Staff Sergeant Henry Guinness was an official visitor to Lebanon yesterday.

Two Clubs Formed—Two additional boys' and girls' club projects have been organized, and blanks received by William W. Fox, county club leader. At St. Mary's school, Mt. Angel, the new club is the growth and health project with Rose C. Hanning, leader, and the following officers: Thersilla Barr, president; John Bismius, vice-president; a d Margaret Gilles, secretary. This group has 18 members. At St. Louis, five girls are enrolled in a sewing club, under leadership of Mrs. E. E. Anderson. Officers are: Mae Long, president; Marie Bradetich, vice-president; Leona Anderson, secretary.

Grand Piano Bargain—$100. Factory discount on any new Kimball Grand piano and a $220 eight tube electric radio thrown in. Terms to suit. Now is your chance to get the piano for the children and the radio for the folks. Kimball Piano House, 2029 N. Capitol St. Salem, Ore.

Showing Films—Dr. Estill Brunk, dentist with the county health unit, is showing two films, "Tommy's Troubles" and "Tommy Tucker's Teeth," in the city schools this week in a concerted attempt to bring school children to a greater consciousness of necessity of care and preservation of their teeth. He showed them at the Garfield and Englewood schools yesterday and will be at the Grant school this morning and Highland this afternoon.

To Appear at School—The DeMoss concert entertainers will appear February 25 at a special 3 o'clock assembly at the high school. It was announced yesterday. These singers and performers have traveled the country for more than 50 years. A small admission will be charged at the school, and only students who desire to do so will stay to hear them. Parents or others who care to attend the assembly are invited to do so.

To Attend Meeting—Mrs. Brazier Small, president of the Marion county public health association, Mr. and Mrs. Geddes Smith, who are here from New York City, and Dr. Estella Ford Warner will be in Eugene Wednesday evening to attend the annual meeting of the Lane county public health association. Lane county has just started a full time health unit.

Dollar dinner every night 5:45 to 8 at the Marion hotel.

Realtors Class Meets—The study group on appraisals, conducted each Tuesday night at the chamber of commerce by the Salem realty board, will consider "Building an Annual Expense Schedule for Income Property" at its session tonight. This meeting will be the sixth in the series of 10 arranged for this course.

Young Fasching III—Ray Fasching, Jr., seven-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Fasching, is able to be up and about the home after suffering a light attack of pneumonia. The youngster will be able to return to his classes at McKinley school in a few more days.

Hubbard Man Here—A. W. Hathaway of Hubbard was a business visitor in the city yesterday.

Obituary

Gile—Died at the residence on North Winter street Sunday afternoon, Mrs. Amanda Jane Gile, aged 90. Survived by the following children: H. S. Gile of Salem; Robert Gile of Roseburg; Miss Mina Gile of Salem, and Mrs. Ella Brown of North Bay, Canada; and the following grandchildren: Schuyler Gile of Salem; Robert Gile of Roseburg, and Ora Brown of Canada. Funeral services Wednesday at 2 p. m. from the Clough-Taylor chapel, Interment City View cemetery.

Paul—William Edward Paul, 38, died February 10, at the residence. Survived by his mother, Mrs. Grete Paul of Carlton, Ore., and brother H. Paul of Salem. Services will be held at Yamhill, Oregon, today under direction of Clough-Taylor.

McFeron—John R. McFeron, age 18, died in this city February 10. Survived by father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. McFeron of Portland and two brothers, Jimmie and George. Funeral services Wednesday at 10 a. m. at Clough-Taylor chapel, Interment City View cemetery.

City View Cemetery
Established 1908 Tel. 1200
Conveniently accessible
Perpetual care provided for Prices Reasonable

Belcrest Memorial Park
A Park Cemetery with perpetual care
Just ten minutes from the heart of town

Willamette Valley Transfer Co.
ROBERT R. BAILEY, Mgr.
Salem Division Office Front and Trade Tel. 1400
Portland Office Terminal Bldg.
Two Trips Daily from Portland to Salem
All southern Way Points connection to Ashland
Daily Service—Express service at Freight rates
Also Local Hauling

Stayton May Organize—Louis H. Metzger, farm union organizer and representative of the Apple Vendor sales company, of Santa Rosa, Calif., who is here for an indefinite stay, was in Stayton yesterday for the purpose of organizing a farm union there. He reports that it is likely a union will be perfected shortly. Metzger hopes to establish farm-ers' unions throughout Oregon before he returns south. He says this method of cooperative handling of fruits and grains has been widely adopted to the north and south of Oregon.

Dr. Byrd Speaks—Dr. Prince Byrd of the state hospital will speak tonight at the Y. M. C. A. at 8:00 p. m. on the topic "Mental Illnesses and Their Prevention." This meeting is open to the public and is being sponsored by the Marion County Health Association in conjunction with the program of adult health education of the local Y. M. C. A.

I. O. O. F. attention. You are all invited to be present at O. F. Temple, Court and High street on Feb. 12. Grand Master Emil Peterson will be with us. Program and other features for the evening.

Legion to Meet—Capital Post No. 9, American Legion, will meet tonight at 8 o'clock in McCornack hall. The principal topic of discussion will be the Fourth of July celebration, with two alternative plans proposed: the Indian congress which the executive committee has been discussing recently, or a "home talent" celebration.

Baby Boy Arrives—A seven and a half pound baby boy was born Saturday night to Mr. and Mrs. Austin Wilkinson, 641 Edgewater street, West Salem. Mrs. Wilkinson and baby are at the Bungalow Maternity home.

Shed dry wood-coal. Prompt delivery. Tel. 13. Salem Fuel Co.

Mrs. Wood Recovering—Mrs. E. T. Wood, 465 South 12th street, who has been under care of a nurse and physician for the past week following a slight stroke, is reported to be somewhat improving from the illness.

Dawson to Marshfield—Major C. A. W. Dawson, army instructor attached to the national guard, left yesterday morning on one of his regular instructional trips to Marshfield.

Army Officer Here—Lieutenant Colonel William G. Scott, chief surgeon of the Oregon national guard, arrived at guard headquarters yesterday for a conference with Major General George A. White.

Smith to Speak—"Traits of Abraham Lincoln" will be the subject of an address by W. Carlton Smith at the Rotary club luncheon Wednesday.

Graham Stops Here—A. B. Graham of Missions will be Monday business visitor in the city while enroute to Eugene.

Housemaids Will Hold Class Today
First meeting of the housemaids' course sponsored by the part time continuation school and the Smith-Hughes fund will be held at the high school in room 1-K at 3 o'clock this afternoon, announces Miss Lilah Holloway, director of the school. Enrollment in the class has reached the limit that can be accommodated. Mrs. Gladys Jensen will be the instructor.

FOR INFORMATION
ABOUT LOCAL OR EASTERN RAILROAD RATES
Oregon Electric Ry.
Willamette Valley Lines
PHONE 727

FREE!
To Adults Calling at Our Store
Autographed Photo of
MAURICE CHEVALIER
Hear Him With a Philco

THINK OF IT!
A 7-Tube Screen Grid All-Electric
PHILCO—Balanced-Unit Radio
In the beautiful new Console Model
Only $119.50 less taxes

Only with Philco Balanced-Unit Radio can you reproduce such a charming voice as that of Maurice Chevalier, star of "The Love Parade". This new Philco Console with the wonderful new Philco 7-Tube Screen Grid chassis is the greatest buy in all radio history, we confidently believe. Power, distance, pure tone, sharp selectivity—more radio for less money than ever offered before.

X-L-Cliff Furniture Co.
COMPLETE HOUSE FURNISHERS

$56.85 IS GIVEN TO CHARITIES MONDAY

Cash contributions to the Associated Charities yesterday totaled $56.85, the few workers in the field were able to report last night. And while workers were out seeking funds, representatives of families, some destitute and some near destitute, were applying at the Charities office for aid and succor.

One especially hard case, that of a man who can find no work from which to secure funds to feed his wife and three children, appeared at the office on Front street yesterday and after a time his story of no food at home came out, pride notwithstanding. If anyone has work, either part time or full, for this man, Mrs. Mae Young, Charities secretary, is particularly anxious to know of it.

Donations received yesterday were from: D. A. White, $5; Skagg's Safeway store, $2.50; W. H. Dancy, $2.50; cash, $5 cents; Charles Knowland, $1.50; J. F. Ulrich company, $1; Anonymous, $5; Union Abstract company, $2.50; W. C. Kem, $2; R. A. Harris, $5; state highway department machine shop employees, $4.25; cash, $25.

West Salem

Mrs. Arthur Sprout, daughter of Mrs. F. O. Needham of Second street, is on her way to Beaumont, Texas. She wrote to her mother from Agua Puerta, Mexico.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Lamb and family, who have been residing in West Salem, are now residing in North Salem. Their son, Virgil, is still attending school in West Salem.

Earl Burn has been very busy lately cleaning away the leaves, driftwood, etc., from the River Side Auto park, getting ready for the summer's tourists and other campers. Most of the cabins have been full all during the winter, as several people who stay in them have children going to the West Salem school.

Several pupils of the seventh grade in the West Salem school are preparing a debate for the near future. Those on the team are the following for the first question: Paul Gooder, Catharine Applewhite, and Eugene Krebs, are on the affirmative side. Lorraine Thompson, Ruth Maerg, and Virgil Lamb are on the negative side. The affirmative for the second question are Wilma Crum, Ruby Davis, and Malala Radky. For the negative side are Mildred Crum, Ethel Davis, and Harold Forrest.

The questions to be debated have been full all during the winter, as several people who stay in them have children going to the West Salem school. Several pupils of the eighth grade of the West Salem school has been elected. Miss Doris Hanby was elected and Miss Jewel Richardson and Miss Inez Stewart were elected to help her in this work.

Erwin Benson, who attends the West Salem school, has been ill for some time but is now able to resume his school duties. Miss Vera Stewart of Edge-water street, has been suffering with a bad case of poison oak. She is some improved at the present time.

For Expert Truck and Tractor Motor Reconditioning
See
G. A. Raymond Machine Shop
425 Chem. St. Phone 8

Delbert Mohr has now started in school at West Salem. He is the new pupil for the sixth grade. He formerly went to school in Woodburn.

A surprise birthday dinner party was given Sunday honoring the sixth birthday anniversary of L. A. Swigert of Ruge street. A number of relatives were present. Mr. Swigert received several nice presents as well as a beautiful birthday cake, which had his name written on it. Those enjoying the bounteous dinner were the following: Mr. and Mrs. Harry Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. Rex Swigert and children, Charlie Swigert and Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Swigert.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Carter of Rosemont avenue, West Salem, recently received a letter from their son, Professor H. S. Carter, who is at the head of the Civil Engineering department of the South Dakota State college at Brookings, S. D.

Mr. Carter is brother of Mrs. Herma Carter Pfister of the teachers staff of the McKinley school of Salem, who is making advancements in her work, is a graduate of the State Normal of Monmouth.

Mr. Carter was a graduate from the 921 class of a civil engineering from the Oregon State college of Corvallis. He is one of the leading young men there and has been appointed a member in the State Examination board of South Dakota.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Taylor of the Ambassador apartments of Salem, and Mrs. T. Van Orsdol of McMinnville, were Thursday evening guests at the home of Mrs. Van Orsdol's sister, Mrs. L. E. Davis, of 1138 Ruge street. Mrs. Davis then visited for a short time Saturday, at which time Mrs. Van Orsdol returned to her home in McMinnville and Mr. and Mrs. Taylor left for a motoring trip to Portland.

The pupils of the sixth, seventh and eighth grade of the West Salem school are preparing for a spelling contest, which will be held soon. Several prizes are being offered. The editor of the Polk County Observer is offering a large, new dictionary as the first prize. Also five cash prizes will be given. Anyone in Polk county of school age is permitted to try in the spelling contest. It will take place in Dallas.

Lyle Thomas, who teaches school at Dexter, Oregon, came to his home in West Salem Friday evening. On Saturday evening he was a visitor with President J. S. Landers of the Oregon Normal school of Monmouth, and in the evening was a guest for the senior formal which was being held that evening. Those on the team are the following for the first question: Paul Gooder, Catharine Applewhite, and Eugene Krebs, are on the affirmative side. Lorraine Thompson, Ruth Maerg, and Virgil Lamb are on the negative side. The affirmative for the second question are Wilma Crum, Ruby Davis, and Malala Radky. For the negative side are Mildred Crum, Ethel Davis, and Harold Forrest.

The questions to be debated have been full all during the winter, as several people who stay in them have children going to the West Salem school. Several pupils of the eighth grade of the West Salem school has been elected. Miss Doris Hanby was elected and Miss Jewel Richardson and Miss Inez Stewart were elected to help her in this work.

Erwin Benson, who attends the West Salem school, has been ill for some time but is now able to resume his school duties. Miss Vera Stewart of Edge-water street, has been suffering with a bad case of poison oak. She is some improved at the present time.

Erwin Benson, who attends the West Salem school, has been ill for some time but is now able to resume his school duties. Miss Vera Stewart of Edge-water street, has been suffering with a bad case of poison oak. She is some improved at the present time.

Erwin Benson, who attends the West Salem school, has been ill for some time but is now able to resume his school duties. Miss Vera Stewart of Edge-water street, has been suffering with a bad case of poison oak. She is some improved at the present time.

Erwin Benson, who attends the West Salem school, has been ill for some time but is now able to resume his school duties. Miss Vera Stewart of Edge-water street, has been suffering with a bad case of poison oak. She is some improved at the present time.

Erwin Benson, who attends the West Salem school, has been ill for some time but is now able to resume his school duties. Miss Vera Stewart of Edge-water street, has been suffering with a bad case of poison oak. She is some improved at the present time.

Erwin Benson, who attends the West Salem school, has been ill for some time but is now able to resume his school duties. Miss Vera Stewart of Edge-water street, has been suffering with a bad case of poison oak. She is some improved at the present time.

Erwin Benson, who attends the West Salem school, has been ill for some time but is now able to resume his school duties. Miss Vera Stewart of Edge-water street, has been suffering with a bad case of poison oak. She is some improved at the present time.

Erwin Benson, who attends the West Salem school, has been ill for some time but is now able to resume his school duties. Miss Vera Stewart of Edge-water street, has been suffering with a bad case of poison oak. She is some improved at the present time.

Erwin Benson, who attends the West Salem school, has been ill for some time but is now able to resume his school duties. Miss Vera Stewart of Edge-water street, has been suffering with a bad case of poison oak. She is some improved at the present time.

Erwin Benson, who attends the West Salem school, has been ill for some time but is now able to resume his school duties. Miss Vera Stewart of Edge-water street, has been suffering with a bad case of poison oak. She is some improved at the present time.

Erwin Benson, who attends the West Salem school, has been ill for some time but is now able to resume his school duties. Miss Vera Stewart of Edge-water street, has been suffering with a bad case of poison oak. She is some improved at the present time.

club. Several boys of the eighth grade are members. The officers are the following: president, Winston Gosser; vice president, Bill Summers, and secretary, Chester Fredrickson.

Mr. and Mrs. Avery Applewhite and daughter, Catherine, were Sunday dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Shepard of Zena.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Gebelar of Edgewater street, West Salem, were Wednesday evening callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rollin Bever and Mrs. Mary Beaver. The officers of the 4-H club of the West Salem school are: Erney Friesen, president; Thomas Osburn, vice president; and Gordon Lacey, secretary. Mrs. Lacey is the teacher, who is the leader of the club.

Due to the bad weather, they have not begun their active work for the club. The members consist of eighth grade students.

Miss Bessie Smith and friend of Salem, were Saturday visitors at the home of Mrs. Sarah McGee of Ruge street.

Mr. and Mrs. John Friesen of Second street, sang special numbers at the church service Sunday evening. The singing was much enjoyed by one and all.

Mildred Oakes of McNary avenue had been ill for the past week but she is able to be back in school now.

Frank Louthier and son, Frank, Junior, of Blodgett, were Saturday visitors for a short time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Thomas. They then went on to Oregon City.

Buddy Pack, who has been attending the West Salem school, has started in school in Salem, as his parents have moved to Salem.

Mr. L. A. Swigert of Skinner street, was a Sunday evening visitor at the home of her friend, Mrs. L. E. Davis.

Mrs. Clyde Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Covey and daughter, and Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Goodlow

Erwin Benson, who attends the West Salem school, has been ill for some time but is now able to resume his school duties. Miss Vera Stewart of Edge-water street, has been suffering with a bad case of poison oak. She is some improved at the present time.

Erwin Benson, who attends the West Salem school, has been ill for some time but is now able to resume his school duties. Miss Vera Stewart of Edge-water street, has been suffering with a bad case of poison oak. She is some improved at the present time.

Erwin Benson, who attends the West Salem school, has been ill for some time but is now able to resume his school duties. Miss Vera Stewart of Edge-water street, has been suffering with a bad case of poison oak. She is some improved at the present time.

Erwin Benson, who attends the West Salem school, has been ill for some time but is now able to resume his school duties. Miss Vera Stewart of Edge-water street, has been suffering with a bad case of poison oak. She is some improved at the present time.

Erwin Benson, who attends the West Salem school, has been ill for some time but is now able to resume his school duties. Miss Vera Stewart of Edge-water street, has been suffering with a bad case of poison oak. She is some improved at the present time.

Erwin Benson, who attends the West Salem school, has been ill for some time but is now able to resume his school duties. Miss Vera Stewart of Edge-water street, has been suffering with a bad case of poison oak. She is some improved at the present time.

Erwin Benson, who attends the West Salem school, has been ill for some time but is now able to resume his school duties. Miss Vera Stewart of Edge-water street, has been suffering with a bad case of poison oak. She is some improved at the present time.

Erwin Benson, who attends the West Salem school, has been ill for some time but is now able to resume his school duties. Miss Vera Stewart of Edge-water street, has been suffering with a bad case of poison oak. She is some improved at the present time.

Erwin Benson, who attends the West Salem school, has been ill for some time but is now able to resume his school duties. Miss Vera Stewart of Edge-water street, has been suffering with a bad case of poison oak. She is some improved at the present time.

of Dallas, were Sunday dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Burk of Edgewater street.

J. E. Loggar of Burns, Oregon, is dangerously ill with pneumonia. He is the nephew of Mrs. S. L. Burk of the River Side Auto park.

Ernest Crum, who has been attending school in West Salem, has gone to Salem where he will stay with his ; and mother and attend Parrish junior high school.

Gordon Lacey has been ill for the last few days, but he is considerable better now.

Joseph Albert Montgomery of Albany, passed away at his home Friday, February 6. He is the father of Mrs. Emma Becker, and Mrs. Dora Roberts, all of Albany. Mr. and Mrs. Becker were formerly residents of West Salem and ran the grocery store on Edgewater street, which is now owned by Mr. and Mrs. Harry McDowell of the Tourist Auto camp. Mr. and Mrs. Roberts also were property owners in West Salem a few years ago. Besides these he leaves his wife, Mrs. Lulu G. Montgomery, his daughter, Miss Lillie Stewart of Astoria, and a grandson, Joseph Stewart.

The funeral services were held Monday at 1:30 o'clock at the Rigdon chapel. Rev. Esson of Albany officiated. He was buried in the City View cemetery.

Without operation or loss of blood.
DR. MARSHALL
329 Oregon Bldg.

Wood Coal Oil
Briquets

Fresh Shipments Arriving Daily

Just Call 3131

Schaefer's
DRUG STORE

Larmer Transfer Co.
HEAVY HAULING and TRANSFERS

To All--- INDEPENDENT MERCHANTS

A MEETING IS CALLED FOR Thursday Evening
8:00 o'clock