Delphian Society Complete Final Organization

Mrs. C. S. McElbinney was elected president of the newly formed Delphian society Monday afternoon at the organization meeting. Other officers eleceted were Mrs. Frederick Deckabach, vice president; Mrs. George King, secretary, Mrs. A. C. Gragg, treasurer; Mrs. George Rossman, appointed supervisor.

Mrs. Lena Latham Goble spoke wice during the organization; once before the organization was completed at which time she told the purpose of the club and etlined the work for this year. After the conclusion of organization Mrs. Goble again spoke in an inspiring manner concerning the ideals to be accomplished through study, and both organized and individual effort.

The next meeting date will be Monday, February 17, at the city library.

The regular meeting dates will be the first and third Monday of the month.

It is anticipated by Mrs. Page Eaton and Mrs. H. M. Berry that because of the number of request a second chapter of the Delphian society will be installed before they leave Salem. The chapter formed Monday afternoon was given the lacal name of Sigma Nu in the charter presented by Mrs. Goble. The charter members are the
