Eastern Star Has Delightful Afternoon

An afternoon of bridge and "500" marked a happy time for a large group of members and friends of the Eastern Star social club at Masonic temple Tuesday afternoon. The Valentine's idea was carried out in the decorations of the room and tea table.

Honors for bridge went to Mrs. John Orr and for "500" Mrs. Katherine Bernard held high score.

Cards were in play from 2 o'clock until 4 o'clock. Tea was served between 4 and 5 o'clock. The tea table was attractively arranged with hearts, ferns and red tapers in green holders. Mrs. Charles Pratt and Mrs. Lee Olson presided at the urns.

Mrs. Florence Purvine had charge of the arrangements for the afternoon served at the tea hour assisted by her committee, Mrs. Mary Crawford, Mrs. Stella Henry, Mrs. Charabelle Hauser, Mrs. Addie Curtis, Mrs. Emma Godfrey, Mrs. Jennie Emmons, and Mrs. Elva Daughton.

Statesman Pattern

By ANNE ADAMS

Just as stunning as can be... but very easy to make... this frock with simple blouse and pleated skirt. The clever neck and the short sleeves are bound in contrasting color which is repeated in the narrow leather belt. Note the straight French panties which have replaced bloomers to a great extent particularly with tailored dresses.

For Pattern 1837 we suggest linen, pique, broadcloth, gingham or pongee, in solid color or white printed in gayly colored designs. The binding may be made of fabric or of braid. Red and white combinations are lovely.

May be obtained only in sizes 4, 6, 8 and 10. Size 4 requires 2 5/8 yards of 36 inch material and 1 1/2 yards braid.

No dressmaking experience is necessary to make this model. The pattern has ample and exact instructions. Yardage is given for every size. A perfect fit is guaranteed.

Patterns will be delivered upon receipt of fifteen cents in coins carefully wrapped or stamps. Be sure to write plainly your name, address, style number and size wanted.

Books in fifteen cents, but only ten cents when ordered with a pattern. Address all mail and orders to Statesman Pattern Department, 245 West 17th street, New York City.

Hubbard Dinner Party Attractive Affair

Hubbard — An attractive affair of the weekend was the "bridge dinner" at which Mrs. A. J. Smith and Mrs. Julius Stauffer were hostesses at the home of the former Saturday night.

Valentines in a color scheme of red and white were the motif for the beautifully decorated rooms and for the favors.

Unique place cards made by forming rhymes from the initials of the guests, marked the covers at the tables.

Following the dinner, six tables of bridge were in play with prizes awarded to Mr. L. A. Beckman, Mrs. O. H. Boje, Elmer Stauffer and E. O. Erickson.

Present were Mrs. A. J. Smith, Mrs. Julius Stauffer, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. McManis, Mr. and Mrs. George Crump, Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Erickson, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Beckman, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Cleaver, Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Boje, Mrs. Nina McKenna, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Stauffer and Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Smith.

American Legion Auxiliary Plans Dance

One of the events of the week that is attracting much attention in a large circle is the dance which is being sponsored by members of the American Legion auxiliary. The date is set for St. Valentine's night, Friday, at Crystal Gardens. Dancing will begin at 9 o'clock.

The committee in charge is headed by Mrs. Chester Moffitt, and assisting her are Mrs. L. B. Endicott, Mrs. A. Lochar, Mrs. Bert Victor and the president of the Auxiliary, Mrs. Frank Waters, is also acting on this committee.

The proceeds of the affair will go into the fund of the child welfare and hospital committee fund. These two committees have been called upon for much work this winter and still have more than they have been able to care for to date. Both assistance to ex-servicemen as well as to families of ex-servicemen are given aid in time of need.

The dance Friday night will be a semi-old fashioned ball and will be informal.

Mr. and Mrs. Hans Christofferson were delightfully surprised at their home Saturday evening when a group of their friends called for a social evening. Cards and music were enjoyed the first part of the evening and at a late hour refreshments were served. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Wirtz, Mr. and Mrs. Hans Christofferson, Mrs. Barbara Christofferson, Mr. and Mrs. Royal Christofferson, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Welke, Miss Hazel Welke, Billie Welke, Mr. and Mrs. Waelke, Miss Eva Waelke, Walter Stryker, Mrs. Mary Stryker, Miss Ethel Chapman, Burns Roberts, Boffie Roberts, and Elmo Fry.

Mrs. L. C. Hockett will be hostess to members of the North Salem W. C. T. U. at her home 1602 North Commercial street Thursday afternoon beginning at 2 o'clock. The organization will observe Frances Willard day. In addition to this the topic of the lack of proper Canadiana government control of liquor questions which affect this country will be discussed as well as what the anti-prohibition forces are doing in this country. An invitation is extended to all to attend.

Zena — Mrs. Enola Myers, and Mrs. James Clark of Salem entertained in compliment to the 40th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Frank McClench of Lincoln Sunday at the McClench home. This date also marked the birthday of Mrs. McClench. This dinner is an annual affair and serves as a joint celebration for all the birthdays of the families represented. Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Higgins were additional guests for this dinner.

The Hayvenille Women's club will meet for an all day meeting Thursday at the home of Mrs. Arthur Rylander. Miss Case of Oregon State college will be present to speak about and demonstrate the making and use of sandwiches. A "no-host" luncheon will be served at noon.

The Willing Workers class of the First Christian church will meet Thursday at 3 o'clock with Mrs. A. D. Wagner, at her home, 355 South 15th street.

Mrs. Jennie Miller will be hostess to members of the Westway club at her home, 351 South 19th street. This will be a business and social meeting.
