

Kileen And Dolan All Ready For Fight at Armory Tonight

INDEPENDENCE LAD SEES TEST

Mexican Scrapper Furnishes Toughest Kind of Opposition in Ring

TONIGHT'S FIGHT CARD
Main Event—Terry Kileen, 158, Independence, vs. Jimmy Dolan, 158, Portland; ten rounds. Semi Final—Cliff Wetzel, 180, Jefferson, vs. Bob Steele, 180, Salem; six rounds.
Special—Red Hayes, 155, Stanton, vs. Bob Kelly, 155, Salem; six rounds.
Preliminary—Floyd "Salem Kid" Ambrose, 118, vs. Bernie Kuhn, 118, Salem.
Place—Armory, Time—8:30 p.m. Referee—Tom Loutitt.

Terry Kileen, always popular in Salem as a fighter but heretofore not too highly rated as a ring scientist, will either graduate into big league class or flop completely tonight. He goes up against one of the real stars of the middleweight division in the northwest, in the person of Jimmy Dolan. This Mexican is classed along with George Dizon and the rest of the recognized top notchers.

Whatever the outcome, the fans will be treated to a real battle in this main event. Kileen is one of those lads who never stop trying, and Dolan is the veritable personification of action when he gets in the ring. It may not last ten rounds, but there will be a lot going on as long as both boys are standing up.

In the supporting cast are to be found Cliff Wetzel, he of the blacksmith arms, who has been learning the fine points of the game under Trambles in Portland, and Bob Steele, Mel Brown's elongated protégé; Red Hayes of Stanton, another willing lad, and Bob Kelly, who revised his attitude toward his ring opponents and stole the show at Hubbard last week.

Jack Summers of West Salem will meet a newcomer to the local ring, Jack Stone of Independence. Floyd Ambrose and Bernie Kuhn have both vowed that they will show the fans some real action if given another chance, so Matchmaker Harry Plant has put them on, ancient grudge and all, for the curtain raiser.

CURT COMMENTS

All things considered, and not discounting Terry Kileen's improvement and change of style and his remarkable stamina and grit, we're sincere in selecting Jimmy Dolan as the winner of tonight's main event.

Recalling how, according to one fan, we've been doing our best to ruin the fight game in Salem, we'd promise not to say anything naughty about Bernie Kuhn and Kid Ambrose. If they put up a good fight we'll say so; but if they don't, we'll maintain a heroic and eloquent silence.

About a week from now we'll either see Des Anderson put up a battle to get that belt away from Henry Jones—or we won't. Jonesy, "It All Depends on You."

Des offered to wrestle for nothing in other words to give Jones all of the wrestlers' share of the gate—just for the chance to retrieve the ornamented pants holder which signifies the western afterthought. It's a P. O. S. Matchmaker Harry Plant doesn't think Des ought to do it. He didn't ask anything of the kind of Jones when he put it up.

We guess Des wasn't champion long enough to learn how to make it pay. Maybe he's just as well off without any championship so he'll continue to be a wrestler instead of a profiteer.

Harry says Jones called up Tuesday night and wanted to know if that $1,000 had been raised. It hasn't, and probably it never will be. Nevertheless, the matchmaker says he's doing everything possible to bring about that match, because the fans are demanding it.

We suggest, if it is put on, they leave the ropes off the arena, so Provo Henry can't save himself from that airplane spin.

Boo-o-o-o-o! Hear the institutions of higher learning saluting each other. Certainly a fine example of erudite culture. We suggest a supply of ear muffs be stocked at both schools and a set issued with each ticket to the games; put a pair on each of the players, and then let them boo till they bust.

The trouble with boogie is the same as with cussing; it doesn't provide any mental exercise. Why don't they turn the imaginative lads loose to invent new and exciting varieties of boogie; or install the glee club men as yell leaders and instruct the rooters—excuse it please, the boozers—to boo in harmony. Bet it would sound like a lot of steel guitars.

TILLAMOOK QUINTET LEADS IN DISTRICT

McMINNVILLE, Feb. 11.—(Special)—Tillamook high school won the lead in the district basketball league race last week end by winning from both Newberg and McMinnville. The Newberg score was 23-15 and the game here Saturday night resulted in a 23-14 victory for the Cheesemakers.

Tillamook has not yet been defeated. All other teams in the league have lost one or more games. League standings are:

W.	L.	Pct.
Tillamook	3	0	1.000
McMinnville	3	1	.750
Beaverton	2	2	.500
Hillsboro	2	2	.500
Forest Grove	1	2	.333
Newberg	0	4	.000

V. F. W. Group Has Meeting Monday

Marion county post 661, Veterans of Foreign Wars, held their regular meeting at the Woman's club house on Monday evening. A joint program with the ladies auxiliary was given, following the business meeting.

The program carried out the Valentine motif, with music and dancing. Refreshments were served by the ladies of the auxiliary.

Making Blackbirds Out of Robins

You cannot make blackbirds out of robins, yet the miracle has been performed in Salem right under our eyes.

Four years ago when Spec Kileen took over the Willamette athletics they were the worst in all history of the school. In fact, they were so terrible that the Willamette university faculty began to take notice of the fact. It looked so bad that Spec thought for a while he would have to recruit his first team from Lausanne Hall. The teams were the laughing-stock of all the kids in Salem and the business men snorted in disgust.

The first year he surprised everybody, but the "I told you so" hopes for the worst to come the next year when some of his best players unexpectedly pulled out. But the teams began to get better in every way. Even the old time "Mathews rooters" began to take notice.

Today Willamette's athletics are the best in Oregon in record in all its history. No even the Mathews shouters have a come-back. The Whitman jinx has been overcome. Oregon was walloped in basketball and next year we may look for another "Brasier Small" run to beat Oregon.

The present revival in athletics has been brought about by Spec's coaching plus another element: some other coaches do not have—and that is plus his personality and interest.

All the players today are good students, clean players and fine fellows and a credit to the school. They are not like Tom Cavanaugh, the Fordham coach, used to say about some university athletes, "They had faces of Gibson Girls, but the brains of monkeys."

All the Willamette stands high today with the town and business men. Spec's coaching is a credit to any university and he doesn't receive $11,500 for it either. All honors to Spec.

He attempted the impossible. He made blackbirds out of robins.

Primo Carnera Chalks Up Another Knockout in Second

ITALIAN GIANT DEFEATS COP

Buster Martin Fourth Victim During Invader's Tour Of United States

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 11.—(AP)—Primo Carnera ended his fourth fistic encounter in America in one round and 56 seconds tonight when he knocked out Buster Martin, Tulsa, Okla., policeman in the second stanza of their scheduled ten round fight.

It was Carnera's fourth fistic encounter in an American ring and he made nearly as short work of the Oklahoma officer as he did of his other opponents.

Martin, who scaled 209 pounds to 270 for Carnera, crossed a right to the big boy's jaw in the first which the Italian passed unnoticed. Carnera came out of his corner slowly and led with a left to the jaw, only to have Martin grab him with both hands and hang on. The gondoia puffer wrestled his way out and followed the policeman around the ring, Buster's head.

Carnera was short with three rights to the jaw just before the round closed.

The mauler made short work of the cop in the second round, landing a right to the head that sent Martin down for the count.

BOWLING MATCHES EXTREMELY CLOSE

Split series were the rule in the Commercial bowling league Tuesday night. The plumb line won two games from the Barr Plumbers, McKay Chevrolet took two from Valley Motor, and General Petroleum took two from Capital City Bedding company. Earl Newton set a new league record of 267 pins in his second game.

ST. PAUL GIRLS ARE LOSERS TWO TIMES

ST. PAUL, Feb. 11.—(Special)—The St. Paul high girls were the losers in two closely contested basketball games recently. Friday they played at Newberg and the score was 21 to 17; Sunday at Holy Child academy, Portland, they lost by a score of 21 to 20. Both of these games were fast and exciting as is indicated by the final scores.

The Monmouth troop will hold a father and son banquet tonight at the Christian church here, when Dean Roy R. Hewitt of Willamette university will be the principal speaker. West will accompany Hewitt to this meeting, at which about 40 persons are expected to be present.

The Dallas troops will hold a father and son banquet Friday night at their event in observance of the 20th anniversary of scouting, and West has also been invited to attend this affair.

Troop 13 of Salem is the only group that held any definite program in observance of the scouting birthday, however other groups attended church in uniform last Sunday in honor of the date.

BEARCATS TRIM RIVALS EASILY

Athletic Club Defeated by 59-16 Score; Teachers Next Hurdle

UNION, Ore., Feb. 11.—(AP)—Willamette university defeated the Union Athletic club 59 to 16 in a basketball game here tonight. Union held the Bearcats 23 to 16 at the end of the first half but Willamette went on a scoring spree in the last half. Cardinal was high point man with 17. Coach Keene used his entire squad.

The Willamette team will play the Eastern Oregon Normal quiet tonight at La Grande and then proceed to Walla Walla, where Friday and Saturday nights it will play the Whitman quintet two games which will probably decide the Northwest conference championship.

Willamette is believed to have a slight edge over Whitman in actual strength, though any attempt to judge this matter on comparative scores is rather complicated.

Gonzaga has defeated Whitman both at Spokane and at Walla Walla; Gonzaga earlier in the season split a pair of games with the University of Oregon, which in turn bowed to the Bearcats twice. However, the Whitman gymnasium always constitutes a serious handicap to visiting teams, and Willamette will have to be considerably stronger than Whitman to overcome this handicap.

AMITY FIVE LOSES TO GASTON QUINTET

AMITY, Feb. 11.—(Special)—The Gaston high school basketball team defeated Amity high here Friday night, 23 to 19. The score was tied at 19 all late in the last quarter. Gaston getting the winning point on a throw. The Amity high tilters will play Sheridan here Friday, February 14. This game promises to be as interesting and exciting as the Gaston affair.

Four games were played in the gymnasium Friday, the Amity seniors defeating the Dallas high second team 26 to 9, the Gaston grade school boys winning 24 to 12 from the Amity grade boys who were playing their first game, and the Amity high girls defeating the Gaston girls 21 to 5.

SCOUT MOVEMENT NOW IN 20TH YEAR

Several Boy Scout troops in Marion and Polk counties are observing the 20th anniversary of the founding of the movement with appropriate program; reports Scout Executive O. P. West.

One of the most enthusiastic meetings so far occurred in Woodburn Monday night, with 75 boys and parents attending the annual meeting and anniversary observance of troop 22. West was in attendance and gave a talk on the educational program offered through scouting. He says an especially fine spirit is evidenced by both parents and scouts there. J. D. Woodfin is scoutmaster there. The dinner served on this occasion was directed entirely by Blaine McCord chairman of the troop committee, and his committee of five men.

The Monmouth troop will hold a father and son banquet tonight at the Christian church here, when Dean Roy R. Hewitt of Willamette university will be the principal speaker. West will accompany Hewitt to this meeting, at which about 40 persons are expected to be present.

On the Sidelines

The Walker cup team named at the annual meeting of the United States Golf association to sail for England, in April to defend the Walker cup against Britain's best 12 Sandwich May 15-16 will put forward the best golf foot of the United States.

If there are eight better amateur golfers in the United States than Bobby Jones, Jimmy Johnston, George Von Elm, Francis Oulmet, Dr. O. F. Willing, George Voigt, Jess Sweetser and Don Moe their names do not occur at the moment.

Modest Bobby Jones, who will again captain the team, does not expect to win the cup for the United States for the sixth time without a struggle. Last year the British amateurs were defeated at the Chicago Golf club, 11 to 1, winning only one single match.

It will be much harder on the other side," said Jones. "We shall have our hands full. The British side when it is selected will include eight strong players. Tolley, of course, Holderness, and a number of other veterans in international team play will be available and the British have some very able younger players who are all most sure to be sent against us."

The Americans have won the Walker cup five times but two of the contests were close, the winning margin twice being one point. The United States won 6 to 5 at St. Andrews in 1923 and by the same score at the same place, three years later.

The first matches were played at the National Golf Links of America, Southampton, N. Y., in August 1922, when the United States was returned the victor, 8 to 4, winning five singles and three foursomes. At St. Andrews in 1923, the British won three of the four foursomes and the Americans had to take five of the eight singles to pull the trophy out. Dr. Willing giving his team the deciding point with a two and one victory in the final singles.

At Garden City in 1924, the Americans won easily 9 to 3, but ran into another storm at ancient St. Andrews in 1924, when the British took four of the eight singles and the visitors had to grab three of the four foursomes to hold the trophy. In this competition Bobby Jones won from Cyril Tolley, 12 up and 11 to play. Jess Sweetser stopped Sir Ernest Holderness and Wats Gunn defeated Hon. W. Brownlow but Francis Mackenzie and Gullford, Roland Mackenzie and Bob Gardner were defeated. George Von Elm and Major Charles O. Heslet finished all square. In the foursomes Jones and Gunn, Von Elm and Sweetser, Gardner and Mackenzie won.

Bobby Jones has won the four singles matches he has played in Walker cup matches and has been on the winning side in three of the four foursomes in which he has participated.

ANDERSON WINS NEWBERG BOUT

Salem Grappler Throws Harry Kuehne Two Out of Three Falls

NEWBERG, Feb. 11.—(Special)—Des Anderson of Salem used some rare strategy to win his match from Harry Kuehne, former western welterweight wrestling champion, here tonight. Anderson took two falls and Kuehne one.

Anderson won the first fall with a series of leg splits, in 23 minutes. Kuehne took the second by applying a series of headlocks which rendered the Salem man groggy and almost "out" when Kuehne pinned his shoulders to the mat. That fall required 11 minutes.

In the deciding round Anderson showed all the signs of becoming groggy again as Kuehne applied his punishing headlocks. Just as Anderson was coming out of one of these, looking as though he was through for the day, Kuehne forgot caution and Anderson in spinning free, kicked the Newberg man and put him totally out of commission.

The match was poorly attended. Just as Anderson was coming out of one of these, looking as though he was through for the day, Kuehne forgot caution and Anderson in spinning free, kicked the Newberg man and put him totally out of commission.

COUGARS WIN OVER WASHINGTON 29-26

PULLMAN, Wash., Feb. 11.—(AP)—A determined, accurate shooting bunch of Washington State college basketball players defeated the University of Washington, 29 to 26 in a Pacific coast conference game here tonight. Washington tied the score twice, but was never able to take the lead.

Archie Buckley, Cougar forward, was the big battery at the opening. He was responsible for five points before the Huskies found the hoop, and after Washington had dropped a single field goal, Buckley led an onslaught that ran the score to 13 to 2. Then Stork McClary, gangling husky center, found the basket and Washington rallied to bring the count to 15 to 9 for the Cougars at half time.

With their second period about half gone, Coach Edmundson of Washington started a strategic campaign of substitution strengthening his team in all departments. After Washington gained steadily, McClary came forward again with a field goal and a free throw to tie the score at 21. Washington state piled up to 24 points, and Washington tied the count again at that point. A Washington State spurt added five more points and the Huskies got two more before the end.

Although this game was dropped, the Huskies still are considered safely niched in first place in the northern division standings, with victory over the Cougars last night and a twin victory over Idaho last week end putting them there.

Just as Anderson was coming out of one of these, looking as though he was through for the day, Kuehne forgot caution and Anderson in spinning free, kicked the Newberg man and put him totally out of commission.

ROW DEVELOPS AT MINNESOTA

2 Members of Athletic Committee Resign Protesting New Coaches

MINNEAPOLIS, Feb. 11.—(AP)—Apparently dissatisfied with the manner of selecting H. O. (Fritz) Crisler, of the University of Chicago, as head football coach, and E. E. (Tad) Wieman, of Michigan, as his assistant at the University of Minnesota, two alumni members of the senate committee on intercollegiate athletics resigned today.

Adding a new phase to the already embarrassing coaching situation at the gopher school, R. B. (Bunny) Rathbun and Araold Oas, both former star athletes, withdrew from the committee after expressing sharp criticism of the way in which negotiations were conducted for the new football coach.

What effect this development would have on the athletic situation at the school was not apparent tonight, but it was pointed out that neither Crisler nor Wieman has definitely accepted the Minnesota offer. Although President L. D. Coffman, who recommended their appointments, would not comment, he had previously said he expected them both to accept.

In his letter of resignation Rathbun charged that alumni representatives on the committee had been virtually ignored in the negotiations for a coach to succeed Dr. Clarence W. Spears. He added that "representation of Minnesota alumni on the committee appears to have become so futile that I cannot justify my continuance thereon."

Rathbun charged that E. B. Pierce, the committee chairman, had broken a promise to call a meeting of the full committee after the subcommittee had assembled sufficient information about the various applicants for the coach's post before making any recommendations.
