Patriotic Tea Is Well Attended Event

Barbara Fritschle lent, Daughters of Union Veterans entertained with an attractive tea in compliment to the birthday of Lincoln Wednesday afternoon between the hours of 2 o'clock and 5 o'clock at the Woman's club house.

Nearly one hundred members of the organization, representatives from other women's patriotic orders of the city, and friends called during the afternoon. Among the out-of-town guests present were the department president of the Daughters of Union Veterans, Miss Maud Stevens; Mrs. Margaret Becker, department treasurer; Mrs. Alice Brandon, department secretary; Mrs. Hammond, Mrs. Earl Treese, Mrs. Martin, Mrs. Ruella Shafer, all of Portland; and Mrs. May Cleary, a visiting daughter from Montana. A group of members of the G. A. R. from Dallas were present.

Among the prominent guests from the city was the department president of the War Mothers, Mrs. Mark Skiff; Mrs. Frank N. Waters, president of the American Legion auxiliary and her staff of officers; and a large number of G. A. R. members as well as representatives from other organizations.

The reception room was attractively decorated with flags and flowers and a large picture of Lincoln hung on one wall with lighted tapers and small flags arranged beneath it.

The tea table was lovely in a color scheme of yellow. Yellow papers, garlands and accents decorated this table where past presidents of the order presided at the tea urns. During the first hour Mrs. F. A. Elliott and Mrs. Mabel Lockwood poured; the second hour Mrs. Mary Entress and Miss Julia Webster poured and the third hour Mrs. Elizabeth Waters and Mrs. Mable Neidham poured.

A much appreciated musical program was given throughout the afternoon. Those appearing were the Sacred Heart Academy in a special number, Miss Grace Falk, Mrs. Truma Huston, and Lena Belle Tartar, soloists; and Miss Mildred Abbott, piano soloist.

Mrs. Helen Howard Entertains With Tea

Mrs. Helen F. Howard entertained members of the division of the state school for the blind of the institutions department of the Salem Woman's club with a silver tea at her home Tuesday afternoon. The afternoon was the first of a series of a number of such affairs which are to be given by the various individual and committees of the club in order to swell the fund to care for the expense of the state confederation meeting to be held in Salem in May.

It was decided by this group to accept the invitation of Mrs. L. O. Clements to use her home as the scene of another tea to be given February 18 for members of the institutions department and invited friends.

The committee in charge of this tea will be Mrs. Estelle G. Ford, Mrs. Ray L. Farmer, Mrs. G. L. Forge, Mrs. Fannie Brown Tibbets, Mrs. J. A. Bernard, Mrs. Fred A. Erixon, Mrs. R. K. Stockwell, and Mrs. S. M. Endicott, who is general chairman of the institutions department. The proceeds from this tea will also go to the convention fund.

Miss Alice Anderson added much to the pleasure of the afternoon with a group of songs. At the hour Mrs. Howard was assisted by Miss Virginia Thompson. Those who were present were Mrs. F. A. Tschantz, Miss Ruth How, Miss Virginia Thompson, Mrs. S. M. Endicott, general chairman of the institutions department, Mrs. Fannie Brown Tibbets, chairman of the blind school division; Mrs. Maude Pointer, Mrs. Mary Bayne, Mrs. Ida F. Shade, Mrs. Josephine Davis, Mrs. G. H. Swift and Mrs. Freeman P. Phipps.

UNDERWEIGHT DUE TO TASTELESS DIET

Often True in the Case of Children

"Get correct weight on children," says the doctor. For the underweight child is more subject to disease than the one up to standard.

However, the old saying about horses being "fed to water" can be paraphrased to describe underweight children. Sugar is a great aid in this respect. A dash of sugar on essential vegetables as carrots, peas, cabbage and spinach improves their flavor to a marked degree. A leading child specialist in Pennsylvania invariably suggests that tomatoes be sweetened to taste.

In such cases, the mother or the cook must take extra pains to make the foods in the child's diet inviting and palatable. Sugar is a great aid in this respect. A dash of sugar on essential vegetables as carrots, peas, cabbage and spinach improves their flavor to a marked degree. A leading child specialist in Pennsylvania invariably suggests that tomatoes be sweetened to taste.

This recommendation should be followed even in the case of adults who are underweight. In addition to using sugar on vegetables, a sprinkling on fresh and stewed fruits, also cereal, makes them more tasty and is dietetically correct. It must also be remembered that nourishing desserts such as custards, puddings and ice creams are invaluable. Most foods are more delicious and nourishing with sugar. The Sugar Institute.

Sons of Veterans Auxiliary Initiates

Mrs. Gertrude Goble and Mrs. Edith Johnson were formally initiated into the Sons of Veterans auxiliary Tuesday night at the Woman's club house, and C. E. Holliday was obligated into the order in an impressive ceremony.

Following this plans were made for a patriotic program to commemorate the memory of the birthday of Lincoln and Washington, February 25.

There will be a second program given which is planned for March 11 at the Woman's clubhouse. At this time a skit will be presented by a group of members from the Rebekah lodge and Mrs. Clifton Mudd will present a group of her students.

TREE TEA

Music Teachers Will Present Artist

It was decided at the regular meeting of the Salem Music teachers association Tuesday night in meeting at the home of Mrs. Steven Stone, that during the week of the state music teachers convention in Salem an artist of repute would be presented to the public as well as to the musicians convened. This artist will most likely be either a violinist or a pianist.

As a special guest Tuesday night the association had David Schoetz Craig of Seattle, editor and publisher of "Music and Musicians" magazine. Mr. Craig addressed the group on "What's the matter with music?" and made it clear to his audience that there is nothing the matter with music—that whatever is wrong is wrong with people who produce the music.

Miss E. Ruth How also spoke giving a very interesting discussion of the means of conveying music to the blind. Mrs. Stone was assisted in serving by her two oldest sons. The spirit of St. Valentine was carried out in clever decorations for the service tables, and in the menu.

Those present were: David Schoetz, Miss E. Ruth How, Miss Frances Virginia Melton, Mrs. Henry Lee, Mrs. Joy Turner Moser, Frol, and Mrs. T. S. Roberts, Mrs. Frank Liburn, Miss Elman Weller, Mrs. Bertha Junk Darby, Miss Helen MacMillan, Mrs. Waters, Miss Alice Chandler, Miss Lena Belle Tartar, Mrs. W. R. Bush, Miss Elizabeth Levy, Mrs. Martin Ferry and Mrs. Stone.

Mrs. Romeo Goulet Heads Gervais Group

Gervais — Mrs. C. T. Brizay entertained the Past Matron's club at her home south of Gervais Tuesday afternoon. After a one o'clock luncheon business was taken up and officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: Mrs. Romeo Goulet, president; Mrs. John Harper, vice president; Mrs. George Ramp, secretary-treasurer. Mrs. G. T. Wadsworth was initiated into the club and Mrs. Louise Lamberton was taken in on affiliation. An additional guest was Mrs. Sarah Jones of Salem. Mrs. Scott Jones assisted Mrs. Brizay in serving.

Arts League Hears Interesting Lecture

Mrs. L. H. Tarpley, an artist and traveler and an authority on Japanese prints, gave the lecture for the Arts league open meeting Tuesday evening in the auditorium of the city library. Her topic was "Japanese prints" and it was appreciatively received by a large group of interested people.

There were on exhibition from Mrs. Tarpley's private collection about 35 Japanese prints. From this list Mrs. Tarpley chose 10 artists and discussed their characteristics and special artistry. These a print from each artist was displayed and discussed. The remarks of Mrs. Tarpley were delivered in a most interesting and understanding manner much to the delight of her audience.

To supplement the discussion of the artist, Carol Dibble gave interpretative readings and thus showed the relation of the poets of Japan and the artists. It is almost necessary to understand one to completely appreciate the other.

Mrs. Richard Cartwright, president, presided at this meeting. Just before the lecture a business meeting was held in which further discussion was carried on concerning the need of a room for the housing of works of art and the beginning of an art museum for Salem. It was decided to solicit the aid of W. G. Purcell, president of the Oregon Artists, to assist in this plan.

Corvallis Concert of Interest to Salem

Of interest to music lovers is the announcement which comes from Oregon State college that the Oregon state symphony orchestra will play a program of modern music, written by composers that are still living, Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, in the women's gymnasium. And what is of more interest to Salem folk is the fact that Miss Adeline Stopp of Portland, a young harpist who has appeared to decided advantage in Salem will be the guest artist on the Sunday program.

The program will contain such works as those of Jean Sibelius, and Ernest Bloch, composer of cycles of American life. The concerto Grosso by Bloch will be heard for the first time in Oregon and of interest again to Salem folk is the fact that Byron Arnold will play the piano obligato.

Say it with FLOWERS

ROSES ARE RED
VIOLETS ARE BLUE
SHE IS EXPECTING
Flowers FROM YOU

IN days of old the aspiring young knight wrote roundels to his lady love. But today the young business man has little time for literature.

But how shall he tell the fair one of his yearning? Wise, indeed, is he who lets flowers do the talking. They whisper just the things he'd like to say. And in such a captivating way!

Mrs. D. G. Kumler Elected to Office

At the regular meeting of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society of the First Methodist church Mrs. D. G. Kumler was elected to the position of stewardship secretary Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Herbert Rabe was elected student hostess at Willamette university and it was announced that among the first things accomplished by her would be the bringing of Dean Milan of O. S. C. to speak to the university students.

Lectures were read from India missionaries among them one from Laura Helst which requested that a collection of Christmas cards, ribbon and such like things be sent to her for her work. She also stated that 1000 Christmas greetings were sent out to the mission people there by herself and her assistant.

Musical numbers were given by Mrs. Fred Fargo accompanied by Mrs. Clifton Mudd. Mrs. J. M. Cases had charge of the afternoon program and was assisted by Mrs. H. F. Shank, Mrs. E. M. Kershner, Mrs. A. J. Heathfield, Mrs. W. D. Smith, Mrs. Delbert Burton, Mrs. Lloyd Lee, and Mrs. J. T. Cook.

Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Kafoury will entertain members of the Kensington club and their husbands at their home Thursday for an informal evening.

The P. L. M. and F. club will meet Tuesday at Fraternal Temple for an all-day meeting. There will be a potluck dinner at noon.

COME AND SEE HOW THE MODES OF TOMORROW HAVE BEEN ANTICIPATED IN THE VOGUES OF TODAY

captivating refreshing
these early spring fashions

MUCH has been said and written about the new mode, but it is only by seeing for one's self that the true beauty of the spring fashions can be enjoyed and appreciated. In reflecting the modern trend towards moderation in everything, fashion has swung from the angular form of the flapper to the naturally rounded form of nature.

Softly flowing curves and delicate feminine appeal are as much a part of the woman of today as post-war mannishness was a part of the woman of yesterday. This return to the more normal and natural figure is a decided step forward in the road to beauty. For daytime activities, simple clothes that are based on the lines of the sports costume answer every requirement of comfort and convenience.

For evening, the flowing lines of the modern mode not only enhance the charms and grace of the modern woman, but they add immeasurably to her poise, dignity, and loveliness. We extend to you a cordial invitation to call and see our exhibition which will give you a clear and thorough understanding of the technique and taste which underlies the styling of the vogues of today.

The second of a series of living model fashion revues will take place at Millers soon... Watch for announcement in this paper!
