Salem High Hoopers Defeat Scrappy Milwaukie Basketball Team 32-21

Willamette has at least an arguable claim to this year's championship. Tonight's game will tell the story.

Know what we heard? We heard a Salem high crowd boo a referee for calling a foul on the opposition!

"Quartet, Be Still, Be Still" is announced as one of the numbers on the program Sunday at a local church. Well, to tell the truth, we had to shift the quotation marks slightly to make it look that way.

Now the Eugene high school is seeking a name for its athletic teams. Why not call them the "Patenters"? We believe in names that have a real significance.

We've got the western welterweight wrestling championship belt in Salem, though Henry Jones may take it away with him next Wednesday night. How not? We also have the Pacific coast welterweight belt. But there isn't any northwest welterweight championship belt. Now here's an idea for the Salem boxing and wrestling commission. We won't charge anything for it. Down on State street there is an auction sale going on, and among the things advertised is "leather goods." Why not look in and see if there isn't a diamond studded belt offered for a song? Let Onas Olson sing the song, and then put up the belt for the northwest championship tournament to be held here.

Seriously speaking, there are belts and belts. We don't know about the one that Anderson won from Sampson at Albany this week. No doubt it's authentic, put up by some wrestling commission under auspices which assured that its holder would be a champion. But we don't know.

The western welterweight belt represents all that is claimed for it, yet a belt hung up by the Salem commission would receive equal recognition as designating the northwest championship, provided that before it was awarded to anyone, all the leading welterweights in the area had a crack at it.

Remember when the height of bleacher wit was to tell the pitcher he had a "glass arm"? Or was it a wooden arm, and the batter who had a glass eye?

The editor of the Corvallis Gazette-Times advises the Staters to pay no attention to the boozing, but just hand it back to the Webfoots. Maybe the boys at Corvallis are over the top about the "cow college" title. We'll prescribe a different medicine; Oregon's slights will be empty if the Staters will just beat Oregon a few times.

What's the use of denying it? Oregon does take a verbal crack at Oregon State every chance it gets. Oregon State comes back just as snappily, and both of them pan the small colleges unmercifully.

It's firmly believed at both Oregon and Oregon State, for instance, that all the men at Willamette are studying for the ministry. Yes, sir, you can't tell them. We know a young lady from Oregon who once was playing tennis with a Willamette man. She inadvertently said "kosh darn it" and then apologized!

Parrish Five Easy Winner Last Night

Although Coach Frank Brown's Parrish junior high basketball team played a ragged game, it succeeded in swamping the visiting Corvallis juniors by the score of 31 to 13 here Friday night. The invading quintet was no match for Parrish which held a substantial lead throughout the contest. The score at half time was 15 to 6 for the locals.

The victory over Corvallis moved Brown's aggregation another notch closer to the mythical state junior high school hoop title.

Outstanding players for Parrish were Brownell and Slater. Kelly also played a good game for the locals. Brownell took scoring honors for the evening with 12 counters.

CARDINAL IS HIGH SCORER

2 Players Ousted From Missionary Team on Personal Fouls

WALLA WALLA, Wash., Feb. 14.—(Special)—Crashing through to victory in the last few minutes of play after trailing the Missionaries for most of the game, the Willamette Bearcats defeated Whitman here tonight 38 to 31.

Cardinal

Cardinal was Willamette's outstanding performer, scoring 15 points and figuring prominently in the final rally, in which Scales also had a large part. This rally was staged after Croxdale and Hove, Whitman's regular guards, had been removed from the game on personal fouls.

Whitman was one point ahead, 16 to 15, after a hard fought first half. Croxdale led the Missionaries in scoring with seven points.

This victory for Willamette makes it a practical certainty that the Salem university will at least tie for the Northwest conference title, as Whitman was apparently its only close rival.

Second Game to Be Crucial One
If Willamette wins Saturday night's game, also to be played on Whitman's floor, the Bearcats will have the championship in their grasp to all intents and purposes. If Whitman even the series, much will depend on succeeding games with other conference teams, but it will be a big upset if either Willamette or Whitman is defeated during the remainder of the season.

INDEPENDENCE, Feb. 14.—(Special)—In one of the most thrilling games of the season here, the Independence high school basketball team defeated Rickreall high 18 to 17 Thursday night.

Rickreall led 5 to 0 at the end of the first period, but Independence came back strong in the second period and tied the score twice. The half ended in a tie, eight all.

Twice again in the third period the score was tied, but Independence led at its close, 14 to 12. The rival teams fought desperately in the last quarter, Independence emerging with a one point lead.

Cougars Are Winners of Oregon Tilt

PULLMAN, Wash., Feb. 14.—(AP)—Washington State's Cougar basketball team defeated the University of Oregon 26 to 23 in a colorful Pacific coast conference game here tonight. It was the first of a two game series here.

Washington State built up an early lead with a series of bewildering movements and reversions, but with the score at 8 to 2, Keenan was thrown in at guard by the Oregonians to live things up a bit. He did and the score mounted to 11 to 10 but the Cougar rally before the gun sent the ratio to 17 to 10 for the Staters.

In the second period the Cougars went forward easily to a 22 to 19 lead, but another Oregon rally brought the score to 22 to 19 for the winners. This was the closest to victory the Webfoots were permitted to approach. The Cougars finished their count by a series of long shots that found the ring. Oregon throughout was nervous and missed many free throws, which, if converted, might have changed things about.

Keenan, a little fellow, was the bright spot of the game, with a brand of trickiness that left the larger Staters standing in their tracks. Stevens, regular guard for Oregon, was high scorer with ten points.

WRESTLING BELT IS ON DISPLAY IN CITY
The western welterweight championship belt for which Des Anderson of Salem and Henry Jones of Provo, Utah, will contend at the armory here next Wednesday night, is on display in the window of Ken Brown's sporting goods store.

Anderson was one of the interested ringside spectators at the Jones-Wildcat Pete match in Eugene Friday night. Jones had stated Thursday that if he lost to the Eugene man, he would return to Utah and throw away his wrestling lights for good after his match with Anderson here next Wednesday.

The local boxing and wrestling commission has announced that the rabbit punch will be barred at the championship match here. Tickets went on sale at Adolph's cigar store Friday, and there was an instant heavy demand.

LOCALS APPEAR BIT OFF FORM

Kitchen Forced Out of Game When Eye is Injured by Opponent's Finger

Showing only infrequent flashes of the form which carried them to two victories against tough opposition in southern Oregon a week ago, the Salem high school hoopers defeated the light but scrappy Milwaukie high quintet 32 to 21 in the Salem high floor Friday night.

Kitchen, who has been Salem's high score man in most of the games, was incapacitated early in Friday night's fray when an opponent's finger was plunged into his eye. The eyeball was not injured and he will be able to play again next week, it was stated by Edward Lee Russell, school physician.

Milwaukie held the red and black to a close score in the first half which ended 16 to 12 in favor of Hollis Huntington's men. Anderson, curly headed, aggressive and speedy, Milwaukie forward, looped the basket from all angles to keep his team in the running.

Fouls by Visitors Prove Great Help
In the second half the Salem quintet acquired more smoothness in its attack, and this coupled with numerous fouls which forced two Milwaukie men out of the game, gave the red and black a long lead.

Sanford was both high point man and Salem's most effective player on the floor.
Salem high has two games scheduled for next week, one with Oregon City here and the other with Chemawa at Chemawa.

In addition to shooting much more accurately tonight, the Monmouth quintet broke up the worst passing game of the visitors. Bramhall starred on offense and Watkins on defense. Ayers and Schwartz were Ashland's outstanding players.

In a preliminary game the normal super-varsity defeated the Monmouth town team 26 to 9.

Carnera Again Wins Fight by Knockout Route

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Feb. 14.—(AP)—Primo Carnera, huge Italian brawler, knocked out Big Jim Sigman of South Carolina, in the first round of their eight round bout here tonight.

The fight was as one sided as have been all of Carnera's previous matches in this country. Sigman went down and out in 1:35 of the first round after taking eight or nine heavy rights and lefts to the body and face. He landed only two blows, neither of sufficient force to hurt the mammoth Italian.

VANDALS LOSE TO ORANGEMEN

Oregon State Hoopers Have Little Difficulty in Winning 37-28

MOSCOW, Idaho, Feb. 14.—(AP)—Oregon State college basketball team easily defeated the University of Idaho 37 to 28, in a Pacific coast conference game here tonight. The score was brought from 8 to 1 after five minutes of play to 17 to 12 at half time.

The Orangemen opened a fast, clever offensive at the start to send the ball always where a Vandal wasn't, and took a commanding lead early in the game. With the score at 8 to 1 against them the Vandals made a feeble spurt, but they failed at scoring.

In the second half Coach Hix started substituting by fouls, but the Oregon State men were headed for victory and unstoppable. The Vandals were out smarted and out guarded throughout, but Stowell, a master scorer, showed brilliant basketball even from behind the wall thrown up around him by the visitors. He counted for 11 points, the Idaho high. Ballard, Oregon State forward, was high scorer, with seven field goals and a free throw for 15 points.

WALKER WHIPS ABERDEEN LAD

Leo Lomski is Outpointed by Middleweight Champion in Detroit Fight

By CHARLES DUNKLEY
Associated Press Sports Writer
OLYMPIA STADIUM, Detroit, Feb. 14.—(AP)—Mickey Walker, middleweight champion of the world, made a successful invasion of the light-heavyweight ranks tonight by decisively defeating Leo Lomski in a ten round battle in the Olympia arena.

Walker, conceding 9 3-4 pounds, gave the western contender a one sided lacing, easily winning seven of the ten rounds by a wide margin.

He was in apparent distress in the ninth and tenth rounds and continually wrapped his arms around Mickey's body in an effort to stop his assault.
