SHEIK'S WIFE" BY WINIFRED VAN DUZER

"Who's been talking rot to you, dryad?"

CHAPTER VII.

wide as any girl's eyes possibly around snatching scalps-male could, her mouth fell open as scalps. Of course I don't see any well for she was too astonished about you anywhere . . . to live up to the dignity of her nineteen and a half years.

saw nothing wrong about a set of "Of course I'm a girl! And I'll teeth as even and white as hers bet," she cried, " know who you despite the fact that her chin had are. I'll just bet you're Norwood dropped almost to the throat of O'Rell, I'll bet anything you're the grass green frock. His lips Norwood O'Rell writing one of went into a twisted, whimsical your perfectly scrumptious storsmile as he talked on:

"Or maybe dryads don't drink she squealed, tea? Only dew from violet cups? wait a minute though-" He which laughed at her and at himclosed his eyes, counted solemnly self as well but still held someup to three before he opened thing of dignity. "Discovered," he them again, peering rather anx- confessed. "After all these years tously. "Yes." he sighed. "You're | . . . Which brings us back to the there. Thought maybe you'd be original point of argument, as it does to that hedge sometimes, And it so-well, there's 'Flowery you're so goldy-green and all. Japan' in the larder and some sil-You're not, by any chance," he ly little cakes with seeds in them. demanded. "A GIRL? You know; Not that I wouldn't try my own bones, blood, frills, fluff-that hand," he went on to explain, ser-

sort of thing? They breathe and Then Eve's eyes opened as eat, do you understand, and go

She laughed finally, walked toward the rickety table, pressing But the young man apparently her hands in a spasm of delight. ies. I know it-I just know it!"

He got up then, made a bow

6—Give in portions.
7—Organ of hearing.
8—National Guard (abbr.).

U. S. in 1884?

vented dynamite?

16-Wager.

21-Amongst.

Jargon.

love?

28-Amount paid.

29-Small children. 30-Part of "to be."

34—Spanish dance. 35—Listens.

36-Hawaiian food.

18-Human beings.

9-Who was the Republican candidate for President of the

and "The Secret Rese"?

"The Wind Among the Reeds"

-What river in Northampton-chire, England, passes Rugby and Stratford?

27-Who was the Greek god of 32-What Biblical character of great strength was betrayed by Delilah?

33-Daniel was the given name of what famous American pio-

39-What Roman god was iden-tified with the Greek, Ares?

40-What Englishman founded

Herewith is the solution to yes

42-Female of bovine animal-

47-Vice-President (abbr.).

neer in Kentucky?

-Male descendant

Pennsylvania?

43—Stinging insect. 45—Towards.

terday's puzzle.

Cross - Word Puzzle By EUGENE SHEFFER

- HORIZONTAL
- 1-Mark to aim at. -Who became American Secre-
- tary of the Navy in 1921. 12-In what play did Jeanne Eagles portray the character of Sadie Thompson?
- 15—What fortified scaport is the chief capital of Morecco?
- 17-Persian poet 19-Athletic association (abbr.)
- -Comply with the orders of. 21-Who was the second sea of Adam and Eve? -Strike.
- 23—Insect's egg. 24—So be it.
- 26-Receptacles.
- 26—Symbol for tastalum. 27—Bad. 28—Cavern. 29-Walked on.
- 30—Part of a vertebrate's skeleton 32—In a short time. 33—Most worthy. 34—Exist.
- 35—Coverings for the head. 36—Bard. 37—The sun.
- 38—Printer's measure (pl.)
 39—What satellite of the earth revolves about it from west to
- What is the given name of the motion picture actress, Miss
- Negri? 1—Like. 42-The name of what son of Adam is synonymous with
- What American poet won the Pulitzer Prize with his work, "John Brown's Body"? Part of a machine that re-
- volves. -Level.
- 48-In law, a thing. 49-Falls in the form of snow. 50-What is the name of Booth Tarkington's most juvenile character?
- 1-What city on Lake Ontario is the capital of Ontario?

 2—In what country did the adventures of Sinbad the Sailor
- originate? What English poet wrote
- LI OVER DEN L ANODES POTATO REFER ORATOR "Elegy in a Country Church-yard"?
 4—Consume.
 5—Note of the scale.

people know what you think?"

upon a little table all ready for him while he thought of things iously, "But it's a heavy hand as you can see. Whereas tea—but no doubt you know how it is. Tea to

From a stack of cups and sauand butter from the next room and made thin little sandwiches, seemed to think so important? ion, not species. Remember Du carefully trimming away every She began, "Tell me, Mr. Maurier's story about the man carefully trimming away every particle of crust and finally slicing the bread across neatly. They sat opposite each other claring it to be all he had dreamed and more, she glanced about though her eyes were puzzled. It the room wondering where he seemed such a lot of intellect to had picked up the quaint old waste upon herself-did he al- pieces of furniture, the bits of ways talk this way? She decided pewter, the hooked rugs. But her thoughts went back to O'Rell. He had managed to twist "You see it seems to me you his long legs about his chair. wouldn't be forgotten. Or is it and he munched sandwiches and folks like me? So we couldn't away look in his eyes, fixing them |er actually understand each oth-"Only on Mondays when Lady upon the ceiling as if he had for- er? Luck sends me such a charming gotten her. She remembered all at hol lamp and a tea service was and she was sitting and watching minera'

cers this amazing young man se- of the gray threads at his tem- And she saw that his eyes could lected two and while Eve meas- ples he must be more than thir- be penetrating as well as humorured out tea leaves and coaxed ty-and likeable. Taking every-ous, going through and through water to a boil he brought bread thing for granted so-was this her as they did. because he was a writer? Was it which she took to be the kitchen one of those "differences" Mary dryad? The difference is in vis-

O'Rell-" not removing his eyes from the and while he praised the tea, de- ceiling.

Well-" "Nory is the name. To you." "What a nice person you are."

ought to write all that down so it which was tilted against the wall in are they a lot different from adjust your way—I mean of letting cake and sipped tea with a far- really be friends because we'd nev-

"Oh, I know," she hurried on, guest. And now, since you're so once that he did not know her "there's a difference. How could name; he had made no attempt to you have written 'Sky Tents' for She had not said she would find out who she was. She had example, if you weren't different make his tea. But he led the way happened along, a strange girl in from me? But I mean-well, to a low, shadowy living room a green dress, and Norwood we're not like separate species are where a kettle hung over an alco-O'Rell had invited her to tea— we? Far apart like vegetables and mething like this-He i his eyes down now, is legs and placed his An odd person, boyish in spite feet on the floor, lighted his pipe. untang.

"Who's been talking rot to you, who dreamed true? We see true. "Nory," he said this sleepily, Not truer than others maybe, but we stand by what we see. Not low shrug. He went on munch- souls. A little variation in atti- tercollegiate athletics. ig and sipping, staring at the tude! We accept life as we find it

(To be continued)

TAKES OVER REINS

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Feb. 15 -(AP)-The tumult and the shouting over selection of a head football coach at the University of Minnesota had died to a comparative whisper tonight with acceptance of appointments by Herbert O. "Fritz" Crisler and Elton E.

Tad" Wieman, Named head coach and assistant, respectively, a week ago by the board of regents, Crisler and Wieman withheld their decision of last Valentine day's massacre for nearly a week as a storm of of seven gangsters. criticism swirled about the goafraid of truth. That drops off a pher school, growing so bitter in by residents attracted to the lot of useless falderals—taking one instance as to bring the reiffe so-stuff that folks heap signations of two members of the shots. The man apparently had around themselves till they've no university's sports governing bo- been killed with a shotgun. His lean shoulders moved in a chance to let out what's in their dy, the senate committee on inand call it good while our critics pointments today, the faculty, the year ago, but police said the two "Tell me, Nory, are folks like dress it in masquerade and call student body generally and alum- were not related. The man killyou-you know, writers and art- it rotten. Why listen to me, dry- ni members prepared to throw ed in 1928 was an ally of "Scarhead coach who succeeds Dr. union Sicilian.

Clarence Spears, director of the gopher gridiron destinies for five years, who left to coach at the University of Oregon.

PICKPOCKET SLAIN

CHICAGO, Feb. 15-(AP)-An Italian identified at the detective bureau as Tony Lombardo. 35 year old pickpocket, was shot to death in a west side alley tonight. The slaying was the first major crime on the anniversary

The Italian's body was found scene of the firing by several

Another Tony Lombardo was shot to death on a crowded loop But with acceptance of the ap- street one afternoon more than a their full support behind the new face Al" Capone and head of the

By IWERKS

MICKEY MOUSE

be right must be coaxed-never pummeled. Wooed with the ferv-er of a sophomore's devotion, the craft of a prosecuting attorney,

woman and the common sense of your great grandmother. That makes tea, so to speak; some-

-you remember King Lear?-

Eve shook with laughter,

to ask him, hoping he would not

thing to 'down climbing sorrow'

and invoke the muse?"

be offended.

"POLLY AND HER PALS"

"Footprints Are Impressionable Things"

By CLIFF STERRETT

TILLIE, THE TOILER

"Losing No Time"

IN THE FIRST PLACE, MISS WHEN I PHONED YOU, MISS JONES, I' CAN APPRECIATE JONES I HAD NO IDEA THAT THAT YOU CONSIDER THAT

LITTLE ANNIE ROONEY

"The Constant Nymph"

By BEN BATSFORD

"The Man at the Door'

By JIMMY MURPHY

TOOTS AND CASPER