Delphian Meeting Enthusiastic Event

The Sigma Nu chapter of the national Delphian society met Monday in the chamber of commerce reading room for its first regular meeting following the completion of the organization last Monday.

Statesman Pattern

By ANNE ADAMS

Every line of this frock is effective in attaining a slender appearance. The long pointed bodice line, the pointed skirt yoke and the front pleats combine to create a charming model that is the latest in fashion.

Flat crepe fashions this frock with vestee and sleeve trimming of contrasting crepe. Combinations of black, green, brown and beige, blue and grey or green and flesh are delightfully attractive.

May be obtained only in sizes 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28, 30, 32, 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, and 44. Size 36 requires 3-8 yards of 40 inch material.

No dressmaking experience is necessary to make this model. The pattern has ample and exact instructions. Yardage is given for every size. A perfect fit is guaranteed.

Patterns will be delivered upon receipt of fifteen cents in coins carefully wrapped or stamps. Be sure to write plainly your name, address, style number and size wanted. Book is fifteen cents, but only ten cents when ordered with a pattern. Address all mail and orders Statesman Pattern Department, 243 West 17th street, New York City.

Bad Breath spoils the sweetest smile

Every Stomach Sufferer Has It—Tanic Corrects It

"That disgusting 'brown' morning I taste in your mouth, a whitish or yellow coated tongue—these are sure signs your breath is bad."

The tongue and mouth is nothing more or less than the upper end of your stomach and intestines. When the condition below is upset and badly digested food is souring in these organs, your breath will be foul. The mouth washes and antiseptic can't disguise its offensive odor. You need Tanic and just what to do to get down on the excessive use of meat and fat to eat these foul fruits and vegetables.

Tanic is just about the best stomach cleanser and rebuilder you've ever used. It cleans out the accumulation of soiled, fermenting food in the stomach and intestines and brings renewed strength to these organs. It soothes the inflamed lining of the stomach and intestines, restores appetite and invigorates the system. It's the best remedy for indigestion, flatulence, gas, constipation, and all other ailments of the digestive tract. It's the only safe, reliable, and effective remedy for all these conditions. Accept no substitute. Satisfaction or money back.

Taste of Castoria, and its mildness makes it suitable for the tiniest infant, and for frequent use. And a more liberal dose of Castoria is always better for growing children than some needlessly strong medicine meant only for adults use. Genuine Castoria always has Chase H. Fletcher's signature on the wrapper. Prescribed by doctors!

Mildred Simmons Announces Betrothal

Orchard Heights — The announcement of the engagement of Miss Mildred Simmons to George Wilson came as a surprise to the members of the Orchard Heights club at their regular meeting Thursday. A single walnut was served on each lunch tray. On being opened, it was found to contain a small paper heart on which were written the names of Miss Simmons and Mr. Wilson. Mr. Wilson's home is near Chehalis, Wash.

The club meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Ralph L. Wilson with Mrs. John Simmons as joint hostess, Mrs. Edward Reed, president, not being present. Mrs. John Simmons led devotional.

The next meeting which would normally have been held on February 27, was postponed until March 13, owing to the fact that the majority of the club members wish to attend the meeting of the Federation of Rural Clubs on February 27, at Beuna Vista, Mrs. Roy McDowell will be hostess at the next meeting at the home of Mrs. Matthews.

Etiquette

By ROBERTA LEE

Q. What do the ushers do after their duties at the church are finished?

A. They should go directly to the house and continue their services.

Q. May typewritten correspondence be used for social purposes?

A. Yes; it was formerly considered discourteous, but is now accepted as proper.

Q. Should a wife accept her husband's courtesies as her due?

A. Certainly, and furthermore, a well-bred man will be just as courteous to his wife as to "other men's wives."

A. A. U. W. Has Interesting Meet

The Salem branch of the A. A. U. W. met Saturday at the Elks club.

"The Uncertain Trumpet" by A. S. M. Hutehinson shows great character development. The dominating character is the rector, who believes that a trumpet should not be feeble and uncertain but should sound strong and clearly or else people will not be aware of the presence of danger. He, therefore, sounds his trumpet forcefully against evils but he emphasizes the spiritual evils rather than those of the flesh.

The second book, "Berkeley Square," a play by John Lloyd Calder, is based on Henry James's unfinished story "The Sense of the Past." The play is a fantasy using the theory of reincarnation.

Miss Holt introduced Miss Helen Louise Crosby, who is affiliating with the Salem branch. Miss Crosby received the Bachelor's degree from the U. of C. in 1927 and the degree of doctor of jurisprudence in 1929. Soon after graduation she took the bar examination.

The hostess for next time will be Miss Mary Roberts, Mrs. John Canse and Mrs. R. M. Gathe.

Mrs. L. O. Clements has opened her home 345 North 17th street, to the members of the Woman's club and its friends for a silver tea this afternoon between the hours of 2:30 o'clock and 5 o'clock. This starts the series of teas, bridge afternoon and Kensingtons which will be given under the general direction of Mrs. V. E. Kuhn this spring prior to the state federation convention of Women's clubs here in May. The proceeds will go toward the funds necessary to care for convention expenses.

Keiser—Mrs. J. A. Gardner was hostess for the Keiser ladies' aid at an all day meeting Thursday. Sixteen ladies were present. Mrs. Jewell Brinkley assisted in serving at the noon hour. The next meeting will be with Mrs. E. T. Hall.

Business Women's Class Meets

The regular monthly meeting of the Business Women's class of the First Methodist church was held this month at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Mosher. After the business meeting a pleasant social hour was enjoyed, during which the hostess served delightful refreshments.

Among those present at the meeting were Isora Templeton, president of the class, Bessie Smith, Grace Robertson, Phoebe McAdams, Edna Miller, Minnie Miller, Elsie Miller, Clara Miller, Ruth McAdams, Josephine Shade, Edith Burch, Augusta Brethaupt, Lottie Robbins, Florence Waldo, Elizabeth Stockhausen, and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Mosher.

Quiet Wedding Unites Local Folk

A quiet wedding was that which solemnized the marriage of Miss Hazel Burgher, daughter of Mrs. L. Burgher, to Marion C. Erickson, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. Anderson. The ceremony was performed in the presence of only immediate relatives by Rev. P. W. Erickson at the German Lutheran church at 9 o'clock Sunday morning.

The bride, unattended, was dressed in a gown of bluebell blue georgette made bodice style with an uneven hemline. Immediately following the ceremony the young folk left for a week's motor trip through the north, after which they will be at home in Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Coward are receiving congratulations upon the birth of a daughter born February 17 at Maternity home on Cottage street.

HOW TO "REDUCE" REDUCING DIETS

The Appetite Will Demand Less Food If Sugar Is Part of the Diet

Too many reducing diets are lacking in satisfying qualities. According to a nationally known food scientist, every reducing diet ought to contain some sugar for the "well-filled" feeling it produces.

Such a use of sugar in the diet means that one can eat the minimum of essential foods and not go away from the table hungry. As far as sugar being fattening, medical science points out that sugar has no more fattening value than other carbohydrates—and far less than fats. The stout people of the world are, by no means, always big sugar eaters. It is the amount of food in general that produces fat—not sugar alone.

An example of a good "reducing" meal that will satisfy the appetite is a generous green salad and a sweet dessert. A consideration of this menu will be of value in planning other meals. The truth of the statement, "A bit of sweet makes the meal complete," will be apparent very quickly.

Sugar as a flavor for vegetables, stewed and fresh fruits, also increases their satisfying qualities and makes the meal enjoyable. There is no need to be unhappy when reducing. Eat less food and enjoy it more. The Sugar Institute.
