Loggers' Team Consisting Of Yearlings Shows Real Fight But Is Outclassed

THE Willamette university basketball squad outplayed the College of Puget Sound Loggers 48-29 in a hard fought session at the Willamette university gym Monday night.

Playing their first game since their victorious trip through eastern Oregon which ended with two victories over Whitman, the Bearcat squad failed to show the life that it had displayed earlier in the year.

NOT ENOUGH MARGIN.

So we'll have to pick C. P. S. again, though this business is getting costly. We'll also pick Chewa to beat the freshmen.

"The referee blew his whistle to start the game, and then put it in his pocket for 20 minutes until it was time to end the first half. He repeated the process in the second half." That's what Spec Keene had to say about Willamette's first game with Whitman. The Bearcat players corroborated him and aided a few details.

There was no question but that Leon Fabre was impartial in handling the Willamette-Whitman games, but as the Statesman was informed by a Walla Walla reporter Saturday night, he "let them get away with murder." Everybody took a hand in the rough stuff, and it got so that when a man started down the floor, he had to look out for tacklers instead of guards.

But that's history. The main thing is the boys brought back the bacon.

And we'd like to make a few comments about Monday night's game but unfortunately, we weren't present; we had to go and cover the fight at the city hall.

When the boxing and wrestling commission's $100 came up for acceptance, it looked as though there might be some boxing and wrestling over who should get it. But the council split it evenly between the Associated Charities and the Salvation Army, and everybody was satisfied excepting Mark Poulsen.

Getting back to basketball, we hear the Willamette freshmen beat Salem high. Presence of two married men on the freshmen quintet must have had something to do with that.

We heard the Bearcats were a little bit slow Monday night; maybe over confident, or maybe that trip really did wear them out pretty badly. They said the strain was the worst Friday night.

And we also heard that Circuit Judge Arlie Walker was in the crowd, despite all the injuries he received a few weeks ago. It would take a lot to keep that in bed when there was a Willamette basketball game to go to.

AMBLING ALP AGAIN WINS BY KNOCKOUT

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Feb. 17.—(AP)—Primo Carnera, Italian giant, knocked out John O. (Man Mountain) Erickson, Chicago Swede, in the second round of their ten round bout at the Coliseum here tonight, the end came after one minute and 45 seconds of the second round.

Primo Carnera stepped into the ropes and he stayed down for a count of nine. Erickson came up and the vast Venetian rushed him across the ring. A left jab sent Erickson sprawling across the ropes again and he took a nine count. That was followed by a left hook and a right cross to the chin and the Swede went down, to be helped to his corner.

Carnera weighed 284 and Erickson 227. The big Swede fought gamely during the first round and the crowd estimated at 6,000 persons, roared its approval. However, the Ambling Alp grew furious in the second round after the "Man Mountain" stung him on the jaw with a right and a short jab to the stomach, and swinging wildly with both fists, floored Erickson twice in succession before he took the final count.

OREGON WINS OVER VANDALS

Webfoot Quintet Takes Idaho Hoop Team to Camp By 33-30 Score

MOSCOW, Idaho, Feb. 17.—(AP)—The University of Oregon basketball team defeated Idaho 33 to 30 in a Pacific coast conference game here tonight. Oregon held a 22 to 18 lead at half time. Two Idaho forwards, Harold Stowell and Frank McMillin, bore the brunt of the Idaho offense and between them counted for all but three of the Vandal scores. Stowell, once scoring leader of the northern division, dropped six field goals and five free throws for 17 points, and McMillin concerted four field goals and two free throws for ten points.

It was nip and tick in the first period, with the Vandals opening scoring. Their dominance, however, was short lived, for Oregon caught up at five, and excepting for tied scores at 6 and 16, held the lead the rest of the way. In the second period the Webfoot coasted on their short lead and played defensive ball under Idaho's basket for the most part. Near the end Stowell was fouled and given two tries for points. He converted one, bringing the final score to 33 to 30.

FIELDS HAS REFUSED TO BOX CORBETT FOR YEARS. HOW WILL HE FARE IN THEIR NON-TITLE SCRAP?

Young CORBETT. FRESNO SOUTHPAW WHO MEETS JACKIE FIELDS

Old-fashioned grudge fighters are possible in this business age of boxing, then San Francisco should be the scene of a July in that line next Saturday, when Young Corbett III, strong local favorite, finally gets a shot at Jackie Fields in an "over-weight" 10-rounder. Champion Fields' welter title will not be at stake because of the weight arrangements, but, next to winning that crown, Young Corbett III would rather show up Jackie than do anything else for three reasons. He is: (1) Sure he can beat Fields. (2) Certain Jackie has been ducking him. (3) Bitter because the welter

Free Passes to Wrestling Match Cut Out Wednesday Night for Championship Go

A good many of the loyal fans who are accustomed to getting in to the armory on free tickets are going to be disappointed Wednesday night on the occasion of the Des Anderson-Henry Jones bout for the western welterweight championship.

On account of the expense of bringing Henry Jones here for this all-important match, the boxing and wrestling commission has decided that the pass list will be cut to an absolute minimum. Anderson came back from Portland Monday all hopped up with some new thunder to try out on Jones. It would be giving away a secret to tell just what Des has in mind, but it may be revealed that he is not worrying nearly so much as one might expect over Jones' ability to apply that headlock.

Des worked out with Ted Thye while he was in Portland. And here's another interesting point. Thye, who not so long ago was the world's light-heavyweight champion, has considered Des as one of his proteges for a long time; he told Des before the latter entered the professional ranks, that he had the goods to be a world champion too.

So if Thye can arrange his affairs so as to make it possible, he will be Anderson's handler here Wednesday night. Thye considers that he is in better shape than he has been at any time since he started wrestling in Salem. The 147 pound limit suits him exactly, as it is his normal wrestling weight. Jones weighed only two pounds over that when he wrestled Wildcat Pete in Eugene last Friday, so he will not be greatly bothered by the weight consideration either.

Anderson saw the match in Eugene and was rather of the opinion that Jones was rather badly robbed. Anderson says he wants to promise Jones a fairer deal in Salem—and also a good beating.

MAX SCHMELING TO SEEK MORE FIGHTS

NEW YORK, Feb. 17.—(AP)—With a stately gesture of forgiveness toward the New York State Athletic commissioner, Max Schmeling announced himself today as ready and willing to furnish one half of the competition for the world's heavyweight championship in the ring at the Polo grounds next June.

Der Maxie, hibernating in Germany since his victory over Paulino Uzcudun and the bitter quarrel with the commission that followed the fight here last June ushered himself back into the picture in a cablegram to William Muldoon, agreed cauliflower king. Muldoon, with Muldoon's oft published statements that the winner of the Jack Sharkey-Phil Scott tussle in Miami should fight him for the crown vacated by Gene Tunney at the Hearst milk fund show now scheduled for June 27 at the Polo grounds.

As matters stand now Schmeling is in dire disrepute with the solemn fathers. His license, along with that of his manager of choice, Joe Jacobs, was revoked by the commission when he refused to have anything more to do with his German pilot, Arthur Buclow, and repudiated a contract made for a bout with Phil Scott.

COUGARS BEAT OREGON STATE

W. S. C. Quint Comes From Behind to Nose Out Orangenmen 28-25

PULLMAN, Wash., Feb. 17.—(AP)—Washington State college basketball team came from behind a half time score with an outburst of free throwing wizardry to defeat Oregon State college 28 to 25, in a Pacific coast conference game here tonight. The teams played again tomorrow night. The Cougars went to work at the start and for 15 minutes held Oregon State to a single free throw. The Orangenmen dropped in a field goal and started from behind a 11 to 3 score to take the lead at 12 to 11 just as the half time gun sounded. Grayson, guard, and Ballard, forward, led in this advance.

Washington State went to war with its free throwing battery and some superb field shooting by McLarney after the score had been tied at 13 in the second period. The Cougars took a lead of 22 to 13 before the period was half over. Ten free throws helped to build the total. The Orangenmen rallied near the end after Callahan, a reserve forward, was thrown in, and brought the count to 24 to 23 for Washington State.

McLarney, Washington State guard, was high scorer with five field goals and four free throws for 14 points.

NEW YORK, Feb. 17.—(AP)—Louis B. Daley, of New York, newly elected president of the United States Lawn Tennis association began his regime today by reappointing Joseph W. Wear of Philadelphia chairman of the important Davis cup committee and Fitz-Eugene Dixon, also of Philadelphia, non-playing captain of the team.

They will serve with Holcombe Ward of New York of the Davis cup committee. Mr. Daley declared this committee will have absolute authority in all matters pertaining to the Davis Cup campaign. It is much smaller than usual. A committee of 17 served last year.

Merseman, New York, will constitute the Wightman cup committee responsible for arranging the annual women's team matches with England. Mr. Knox succeeds Julian S. Myrick, New York, who for the first time in years was not given any office.

The advice of seven veterans of international tennis play will be available to both of these bodies as the international play committee, whose functions are wholly advisory, will include Bill Tilden and Frank Hunter, America's first and second ranking players. Willamette Rooks Beat Salem High

The Willamette university Rooks won over the Salem high squad 31 to 21 in a fast game of ball at the Willamette university gym Monday night. Taking an early lead the Rooks kept it throughout the game with Salem playing rather temperamental ball.

Nutter of the Rooks and Kitchen of the Salem high shared the scoring honors with eight points apiece. Salem played slowly at times but often showed a spurt of speed to prove to the public that they were a ball team which was just having its night off. Kitchen and Graber led most of the play and made the Rooks play a close checking game in order to keep the score down.

The addition of Walt Erickson and Wilson, both from Washougal seemed to add new vigor to the yearling squad. Erickson played a beautiful passing game but Wilson at center had several chances to shoot and did so to advantage.
