Bridge Luncheon Is Pretty Club Affair

Mrs. Lawrence Woodworth was hostess to members of her club Thursday afternoon for a bridge luncheon and a bridge afternoon. The luncheon table where covers were placed for 13, was attractively centered with a colonial bouquet, quite in keeping with the spirit of February 22.

Honors for bridge went to Mrs. Gus Hixon as a guest on the bridge table. Mrs. Clifford Farmer is club member. Special guests for the afternoon were Mrs. Roy Keene, Mrs. P. C. MacDonald, and Mrs. Gus Hixon. Club members present were Mrs. Carl Nelson, Mrs. P. D. Quisenberry, Mrs. Donald Young, Mrs. Clifford Farmer, Mrs. Allan Carson, Mrs. John Carson, Mrs. Hollis Huntington, Mrs. Paul Hendricks, Mrs. Karl Becke and Mrs. Woodworth.

Salem Rebekahs Active

With the visit to Kirk Rebekah Lodge of Carby Tuesday in company with Carl O. Engstrom, Mr. and Mrs. George Naderman and Mrs. Ida Hochstetler and to Butteville, Wednesday in company with Mr. and Mrs. Engstrom and Mr. and Mrs. Sig. Harris. As a conclusion of the year's calls Mrs. Engstrom will entertain with a tea in the near future at which time the junior noble grands, the senior noble grands, and the press correspondents of all the orders in District number 4.

Monday night the Salem Rebekahs are expecting an enjoyable regular meeting at which time they will present the new fancy drill and degree work in the initiation of several new members. This affair will be made under the new staff whose captain is Mrs. Gertrude Cummings.

P. E. O. Chapter Guest Of Mrs. W. T. Hickey

Mrs. W. T. Hickey was hostess to members of Chapter G of the P. E. O. sisterhood Thursday afternoon for its regular meeting. Roll call was answered with interesting incidents from the lives of Washington and Lincoln. Mrs. William Hughes gave the main part of the program which was an interesting paper on Ida Tarbell's "Life of Lincoln."

Mrs. Rae Beldin and Mrs. W. L. Newton, both from out of Salem were special guests for this meeting. Mrs. Hickey was assisted at the tea hour by Mrs. C. K. Logan.

Mrs. G. W. Ladlar will be hostess for the next meeting, March 6. At this time there will be an election of officers for the year.

D. A. R. Tea to Be Event of Afternoon

One of the most attractive events of the week will be the annual Colonial tea to be given this afternoon at the home of Mrs. John Carlin, 610 South Winter street.

The Daughters are for the most part gowned in Colonial costumes and because of this the affair will be both unique and colorful. The public is invited to this tea.

The proceeds of the tea will go to the scholarship loan fund of the D. A. R. organization. This fund has already made it possible for some very excellent local aid.

Mrs. W. I. Staley Is Hostess

Members of the Woman's Union of the Congregational church met at the home of Mrs. W. I. Staley Wednesday afternoon and spent the afternoon in sewing and work for the Marion county health unit.

Following the business meeting Mrs. E. J. Hentricks spoke concerning her recent visit to churches in and about Los Angeles. The next meeting will be with Mrs. R. B. Fleming, 785 Court street, March 19.

Mr. and Mrs. William Allen entertained informally at their home on Wednesday evening in honor of Mrs. Roy V. Ohmart on the occasion of her birthday. The affair was a complete surprise to the honor guest. After a pleasant evening spent in conversation, and in listening to the radio, refreshments were served. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Roy V. Ohmart, Miss Louise Allen, Miss Velleda Ohmart, Mr. Paul Allen, Mr. Leo Ohmart and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. William Allen.

The University polyphonic choir will appear for the second time since its organization under the direction of Arthur Boardman, head of the voice department, at vesper next Sunday afternoon. There are several Salem students that are members of the choir; Nancy Thalesen, Edward W. Fisher, and Margaret Simms. All are also members of the glee club, and prominent in music circles.

Gervais Organization Elects Officers

Gervais—Election of officers for the ensuing year was the main order of business at the monthly meeting of the Presbyterian Women's Missionary society held at the church Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Scott Jones was again elected president; Mrs. H. Grafious, vice-president; Mrs. Robert Harper, secretary; Mrs. A. R. Sigmund, treasurer; Mrs. J. D. Brehaut, secretary of literature; Mrs. D. B. DuRette, secretary of stewardship; Mrs. Virginia Booster, secretary of missionary education; Mrs. R. S. Marshall, secretary of overseas sewing; Mrs. G. J. Moisan, secretary of membership. Mrs. Grafious led the devotional service and Mrs. Jones the lesson study. Mrs. Herman Jelderks gave a vocal solo. An interesting letter from Miss Irene Forsythe, missionary in China was read by Mrs. William Allsup. A committee composed of Mrs. Grafious, Mrs. Brehaut and Mrs. McAdoo was appointed to prepare a program for the World's Day of Prayer, which will be observed by the society on the afternoon of March 7. Mrs. A. R. Sigmund will have charge of the devotions and Mrs. D. B. DuRette the topic for the March meeting, and Mrs. G. T. Wadsworth and Mrs. B. D. Manning will be hostesses.

During the social hour Mrs. G. J. Moisan and Mrs. Sumner Stevens served lunch. Decorations were suggestive of Washington's birthday. This meeting day coming on the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Grafious, the hostess presented her with a beautiful birthday cake.

Those present were Mesdames Moisan, Herman Jelderks, Wadsworth, Vern Jones, Scott Jones, J. S. Harper, Robert Harper, Ida Schwab, Stockton, Sawyer, John Cutsforth, Irve Cutsforth, Ross Cutsforth, DuRette, Minaker, Man-Brehaut, Grafious, Wyan, Elizabeth, Allsup, Booster, Sigmund, both Siddell of Portland, guest of Mrs. J. S. Harper, and McAdoo.

Informal Evening At-Krebs Home

Those present were, Betty Atwood, Delores Mills, Jane Harblison, Kathryn Sheldon, Lottie Nash, Kathryn Rowe, Georgia Nash, Roberta Varley, Lucille Nash and the hostess Constance Krebs.

Members of the Y. K. K. class of the First Methodist church entertained with a jolly progressive party at the homes of members Wednesday night. The group started at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Scott at 8:30 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Clark were hosts to members of the Pagliacci club for an evening of cards at their home Wednesday evening. Supper was served at a late hour. The next meeting will be March 4.

Etiquette

By ROBERTA LEE

Q.—Are all guests at a wedding reception escorted up to the bride and groom?
A.—At a small reception, yes, but at a large reception only a chosen few.

Q.—In what order should silver be placed on the table?
A.—In the order in which each piece is to be used.

Q.—What is the secret of popularity?
A.—The forgetting of oneself, unselfish regard for others, deep interest in what others have to say, generosity in thought and action, and courtesy towards all.

Kill Kare Club Meets

Mrs. E. B. Taylor was hostess to members of the Kill Kare card club Wednesday afternoon in her home on Fairground Road. High score prizes were won by Mrs. C. E. Kerston and Mrs. O. W. ## 3 Squares

"I don't know what to cook," is the frequently heard plaint from housewives at this season of the year. Appetites are jaded, and the family wants something good to eat but does not know what.

At such a time epiqueant and savory dishes always appeal and variety is essential. At the same time the budget must be considered and the average housewife can not afford to buy every thing that happens to strike her fancy. Today we are giving a number of recipes in the hope that they will meet the need for variety, attractiveness and moderate cost.

As a main dish ham timbales are delicious and have just that savory tang that one enjoys.

Ham Timbales for 6
1 1/2 cups chopped, cooked ham
1 cup soft bread crumbs
2 tablespoons finely chopped onion
2 tablespoons chopped celery
2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon paprika
2 eggs
1 1/2 cups milk
Beat eggs and add other ingredients. Pour into small, greased pans. Set in a pan of hot water and bake 25 minutes in a moderate oven. Unmold and surround with a cream sauce. Garnish with parsley.

Piquant Salad Dressing
(For vegetable salads)
2 eggs
2 tablespoons flour
2 tablespoons sugar
2 tablespoons catsup
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon paprika
1/2 teaspoon dry mustard
2 tablespoons chili sauce
1-2 cup vinegar
1/2 cup water
2 tablespoons butter
Beat eggs and add flour and sugar. Blend and add other ingredients. When mixed, cook in a double boiler until thick and creamy, stirring frequently. Beat one minute and pour into jar which has been rinsed out in cold water. Cool and store in a cold place.

It is the really clever cook who provides attractive meals at small cost at this season of the year. It can be done however and most cooks are clever anyway, look at the happy, well fed families that prove it.

So many people like a tart sherbet served with the meat course and here is one that is delicious. Also it offers a welcome variation from the more common cranberry sherbet and is just as palatable.

Grapejuice Sherbet
(For dessert or meat course)
2 cups grapejuice
1 cup sugar
1-8 cup lemon salt
4 tablespoons lemon juice
1 cup milk
1 egg white stiffly beaten

Vegetable salads add zest to the meal and give the needed food values in the diet. They are much more attractive when served with a piquant dressing such as this.

Bowl sugar and grapejuice one minute. Cool and add salt and lemon juice. Pour into freezer and turn. When half frozen add milk and egg white and freeze until stiff. Remove dasher, pack sherbet and let "ripen" two hours.

Sandwiches are always welcome, if they are dainty and delicious. But oh the horror of "just sandwiches," thick slices of bread, a dab of filling in the center and dry crusts all around. Here is a filling that is both economical and interesting.

Relish Filling for 8 Sandwiches
(Using Leftovers)
2-3 cup chopped cooked meat
1 tablespoon finely chopped onion
1 tablespoon chopped sweet pickle
1-8 teaspoon salt
1-8 teaspoon celery salt
1-8 teaspoon pepper
4 tablespoons salad dressing
Mix ingredients and spread on buttered white bread.
