The "Economic" bears out its title and its design carries an air of distinction. The combined living and dining room makes for simplified housekeeping and the large room is ideal for parties. The small hall connects the two bedrooms, the bath and the living room-there is not an inch of waste space anywhere. The house requires but a 38 foot lot.

The unusual handling of the entrance the large corner windows and the pattern roof are noteworthy features. This little house would feel at home and prove delightful to its owner amid almost any surroundings.

Letters from Statesman Readers

To the Editor:

I have noticed the decided interest in prohibition and its enforcement manifested in the press. wish you would publish the following statement by Dr. Dan Poling, a former Oregon boy. I think the remarks are very fitting to the present controversy.

Dr. Dan Poling writes: "My friend, Gifford Gordon of Philadelphia, has received a let-ter from Elmore Philpott, editor of the Toronto Globe, Mr. Gordon invited the editor of The Globe to answer certain significant questions. Here are the questions with their answers.

"1. Is it your opinion that government control makes for real temperance?
