

Events of Interest in Social - Musical - Club Circles :-

OLIVE M. DOAK, Society Editor

MRS. C. S. McELHINNEY

Social activity has shown the marks of spring in its sweep of affairs this past week. It all began with the brilliant Subscription club costume ball. Then the McDowell club program Monday night in the residence studio of Prof. and Mrs. T. S. Roberts gave a splendid impetus to the present week. One new chapter of a national club, the Delphians, met for its first regular meeting in addition to many other social and civic clubs, one of the largest of which was the Woman's club with its special Camp Fire girls program; Mrs. Lloyd Legarie has inspired several affairs as a farewell to her; Mrs. A. L. Adolphson, Mrs. H. R. Worth, and Mrs. George Arbuckle, Mrs. S. J. Butler, Mrs. F. G. Meyers and Mrs. Max Buren, have all been special hostesses during the last week. Two teas have been given, one at the home of Mrs. L. O. Clement as the first of several affairs to be given by the Woman's club this spring, and the other at the home of Mrs. John Carson when D. A. R. entertained with their annual Colonial tea. The crest of the social wave came with the end of the week in the military ball for Major General and Mrs. George A. White when several hundred people danced in the flag draped armory.

Military Ball Brilliant Event

ONE of the outstanding events of the social world for the past few months was the military ball of Saturday night, given by officers of the Oregon national guard stationed in Salem, in compliment to Major General and Mrs. George A. White in honor of the recent promotion of Major General White and also in compliment to the silver wedding anniversary of the general and Mrs. White. Nearly a thousand people were present at the armory Saturday night. A large number of these were from various points of the state, especially Portland, and from Vancouver barracks.

The armory was brilliantly lighted and the full ceiling was hung with the various flags of the army and an especially interesting collection of flags of the Oregon naval militia, now extinct, but the flags of which were in use on the old battleship Oregon when it was brought to Portland. Around the upper balcony was arranged masses of hawthorn, the whole presenting an impressive and formal setting for the beautifully gowned women, men in evening dress, and the many army officers in dress uniform, who gathered there to congratulate Major General and Mrs. White and to dance.

The receiving line which greeted the guests was Major General and Mrs. George A. White, Governor and Mrs. A. W. Norblad, Judge O. P. Coshaw, Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Kay, Mr. and Mrs. Hal Hoss, Mayor and Mrs. T. A. Livesley, and Captain and Mrs. H. G. Malson.

Hosts for the evening were Lieutenant-Colonel Rilea, Lieutenant-Colonel Irwin, Major Elmer Wootton, Captain Willis E. Vincent, Captain H. G. Malson, Captain Arthur Bates, Captain J. H. Garbaj, Captain E. F. Pound, Captain Robert L. Wood, Lieutenant Harry L. Riches, Lieutenant Joe B. Davis, Lieutenant Dow H. Lovell and Lieutenant R. S. Radcliffe.

The feature of the evening was the presentation to General and Mrs. White of a beautiful complete silver set in honor of the silver wedding anniversary. The presentation was made by Chaplain Gilbert, chaplain of the Oregon national guards. Chaplain Gilbert introduced Gen. and Mrs. White when they met for the first time in their early history.

Another special feature of the evening was a specialty dance by Emily Ann Kollenborn and Pauline Zoe Chambers, pupils of Barbara Barnes.

Hazel Green—The occasion of her birthday anniversary inspired a group of her friends to surprise Mrs. Edward Dunnigan, Jr., with an old fashioned surprise party at her home recently. The evening was spent in playing "500" with honors at the conclusion of playing games. Mrs. Frank Clark and James Lauderback.

At a late hour refreshments were served by Mrs. Peter Woelke assisted by Mrs. Clarence Johnson, Mrs. Lewis Wampler, and Mrs. Henry Dunnigan.

Those present were the honor guest, Mrs. Edward Dunnigan, Jr., and Mr. Dunnigan, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Clark and Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Lauderback of Salem; Mr. and Mrs. James Lauderback and sons Junior and Dean of Bethel; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Johnson, Mr. Ivan Buster, Mr. and Mrs. John Lauderback and daughter, Jean of Central Howell; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dunnigan and children, June, Orville and Will Dunnigan, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Woelke and children Hazel and Billy, and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Wampler and children Marion, Lou and Clinton.

Mrs. G. L. Newton will be hostess at her home, 2190 South High street for a silver tea between the hours of 2 o'clock and 5 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. Members of the Woman's union of the Congregational church and their friends are invited to attend.

Mrs. J. J. Lightner Entertains

An attractive one o'clock luncheon was that for which Mrs. J. J. Lightner was hostess at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Norine Fick, Tuesday afternoon. Covers were placed for Mrs. Robert Aiken, Mrs. George Rose, Mrs. C. D. Gabrielson, Mrs. W. Carlton Smith, Mrs. R. J. Hendricks and Mrs. Lightner.

Mrs. Lightner who has been a guest of Mrs. Fick during the winter months left this week end for California where she will visit in Sacramento, and Los Angeles.

Dinner Parties Inspired By Ball

SEVERAL gay dinner parties were inspired by the military dance of Saturday night.

Some of these parties were given before the dance and others were given after. No host parties were given at the Marion, and in the new banquet room of the Coffee Shop. Many other smaller ones were given in homes.

One of the largest given was the one given by Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Huntington and Mr. and Mrs. Errel Kay at the home of Mrs. Kay. Covers were laid for 50 guests.

Another smaller but no less gay party was that for which Miss Henriette White was hostess at the White home at 7 o'clock. The centerpiece of the dinner table carried out the idea of Washington's birthday with the use of red and white and blue tapers in silver holders.

Guests for this affair were Captain and Mrs. Gordon Stryker, Captain and Mrs. Douglas Borrows, Captain and Mrs. George Dutton, and Lt. Tom Davis, all of Portland; Captain and Mrs. Willis Vincent and Miss Henriette White of Salem.

Following the dance, General and Mrs. George A. White were hosts for a large buffet supper party at their home.

The feature of this party was the cutting of the silver and white wedding cake which was in honor of the silver wedding of General and Mrs. White. Mrs. White cut the cake with the handsome silver sword presented to General White by members of the Portland chamber of commerce at a luncheon given by it in compliment to the recent promotion of General White.

A group of maids assisted in the serving. These were Miss Henriette White, Miss Dorothy Moore, Miss Margaret Wagner, and Miss Virginia Holt.

TURNER—The Turner W. C. T. U. held their F. E. Willard program and silver tea at the home of Mrs. G. W. Farris Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. E. J. Gisttrap led the devotions. Mrs. W. S. Burgoine of the program committee read the program which consisted of songs and readings dealing with the eventful years of Miss Willard's life.

A dainty lunch was served. Those present were Mrs. W. T. Riches, Mrs. M. A. Hill, Mrs. B. Herrling, Mrs. C. L. Standley, Mrs. L. H. Small, Mrs. J. L. Webb, Mrs. R. O. Witzell, Mrs. H. W. Smith, Mrs. E. C. Bear, Mrs. F. C. Gunnung, Mrs. W. S. Burgoine, Mrs. E. J. Gisttrap, Mrs. A. E. Robertson, Mrs. M. O. Pearson, Mrs. E. S. Prather, Mrs. S. Miller, Mrs. F. Whitehead, Mrs. J. R. Cox, Mrs. H. Crume, Mrs. D. B. Parks, Mrs. R. Lee Theissen, Mrs. C. W. Sloan, Mrs. N. Edwards, Mrs. C. A. Bear, Mrs. G. W. Farris, Mrs. S. Girardin and Miss Mary Condit.

W. C. T. U. Institute Holds Session

The Marion county W. C. T. U. Institute assembled for an all day meeting Thursday with a program beginning at 10:30 o'clock and a lunch served at noon. Mrs. Nellie Gunning of Turner had charge of the devotions, following which the W. C. T. U. pledge was given.

Dr. Clara Ingham of Portland, gave an interesting and educational talk on health and suggestions concerning W. C. T. U. work. She made special mention of a visit she had made to the Children's Farm Home at Corvallis, during which visit she noted the excellent management and training given the children housed there.

Mrs. Mary Charlton gave an excellent talk on the making out of reports. Mrs. Charlton also announced the death of G. L. Buland, husband of Mrs. G. L. Buland, W. C. T. U. state director of legislation, a matter of sincere regret to the institute.

Mrs. Ada Jolly, state president, gave an inspiring talk on several branches of the work and particularly advised a more general use of the Union Signal by placing it in public places, where it might be more generally read.

Mrs. H. F. Shanks offered the noonday prayer at 12 o'clock after which the lunch was served and a social good time enjoyed until 1:30 o'clock.

The afternoon session was begun with singing under the leadership of Miss Byrnes.

Mrs. Jolly conducted a round-table talk during which several interesting facts were brought out. Mrs. A. H. Deans of Woodburn and Mrs. Helen Prescott, president of North Salem union, gave informative talks on the narcotic situation. Miss Helen Byrnes gave experiences of her visit to the Y. P. B. convention in Denver, Colorado. Rev. Barry, pastor at Stayton, gave a few minutes of earnest talk that was much appreciated. Mrs. Jolly spoke briefly on organization work and the institute closed with song and prayer.

Among the out of town visitors from the various unions were: Mrs. Jennie McClelland, Mrs. A. H. Deane, Laura Rice, Mrs. Waldron and Mrs. Hartong, of Woodburn; Mrs. E. E. Hollingsworth, of Pleasant View; Mrs. Helen Prescott, Lorena Wayman, A. A. Hadley and Alta Hockett of North Salem. All went home feeling that much had been gained throughout this institute work.

ST. PAUL—A birthday party was given at the home of Charles Pelland, Wednesday evening. Those present were Theresa Ernst, Ivon Blosser, Raymond and Sylvester Smith, Kenneth Smith, Helen Fethswelles, Eleanor Leith, Agnes and Laurence Van, Lester and Norman Ernst, Marie and Frances Eder, Rose Marie Faber, Peter McDonald, Cornelius McCarthy, Lester Bunning, Helen Rasmussen and Elmer Gooding.

MONMOUTH—Miss Florence Johnson, instructor in public speaking at the Normal, was pleasantly surprised when the group comprising the senior play cast, gathered informally at her apartment at Winegar Faculty Women's home, following rehearsal, to remind her that they had not forgotten her birthday anniversary. Songs and a pleasant interchange of conversation were interspersed with refreshments.

Salem Camp Fire Girls Group Gives Woman's Club Program

ONE of the delightful programs of the year was that which the Salem Camp Fire girls sponsored at the regular meeting of the Salem Woman's club Saturday at the Woman's clubhouse.

They drove from Woodland, Calif., where they had been visiting two brothers of Mr. Pearce, George T. Pearce and Lot C. Pearce. Mr. and Mrs. Pearce went from here to Portland Thursday evening where they will visit other relatives until the first of the week when they will return to their farm home in central Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Roseman entertained for dinner at their home on South Liberty street Friday night in compliment to Miss Mildred Darr, Miss Hilgard Erpelind, Miss Madeline Erpelind. Music and a social evening followed during the dinner hour.

Richard Dunham, 6, of 123 Clay St., Topeka, Kansas, is the picture of health. No wonder his mother says: "I am proud as can be of my little boy. He's always bright, active, robust."

"I give California Fig Syrup a lot of credit for his wonderful condition. I have used it with him for every little upset or cold. It always has him back to normal in a few hours."

When a child shows, by bad breath, coated tongue, biliousness or feverishness, that the little bowels are clogged, you know the system needs a prompt cleansing. California Fig Syrup does the work quickly and gently. In addition it helps tone and strengthen weak bowels and stomach. So it gives lasting help.
