Unusual Program Pleases Social Club

The Eastern Star social club ad one of the best meetings in months Tuesday afternoon at the Masonic temple on the occasion of its regular social afternoon meet-

The program committee comosed of Mrs. Myrtle Pierson, chairman, and Ether Melgaard, Margaret Doane, Alice Doane, Emma Bomback, Effie Bailey, and Margaret Fox presented an unuswal and attractive program of music and readings. William McGilchrist, Sr., sang a group . Scotch love songs and played the concertina. He explained these numbers before singing them and added much to the pleasure of his guests. He also explained the plaid suits of the Scotch pipers of Salem, John Charge and Arthur Hutcheon, who played several numbers on their bagpipes. They were encored several times.

Mrs. J. C. Russell gave a group of splendid readings, to complete this excellent program.

Tea was served late in the afternoon from a long tea table centered with a large basket of Oregon grape, pussywillows and flags. Wee hatchets were arranged about the cloth and red tapers added a final gay note.

There were about 40 members present for this social afternoon.

Rebekah Lodge Initiates

About one hundred and fifty members and guests of Salem Rebekah lodge No. 1 met in regular weekly session last Monday evening to enjoy the business and initiation ceremony and social hours.

The new degree and floor work showed the interest and hard work and practice that the new staff has done in the last few weeks.

Two new members were initiated-Clara Girrod and Eugenia Johnson. Several beautiful new character robes were in evidence to add to the picturesque part of

In such cases, a leading Philadelphia doctor recommends drinking a flavored milk beverage in the late afternoon, or eating two or three cookies or a piece of candy. The sugar in this food checks hunger and overcomes nervous fatigue in an appropriate way. Later, the evening meal can be eaten with calm

Such endorsement of sugar should not be overlooked. Too eften home diets are lacking in this important food. In this connection the tendency to eliminate desserts from balanced meals is dietetically wrong.

Aside from the quick energy sugar supplies, it can help in promoting a more balanced diet. A dash of sugar to s pinch of salt in cooking vegetables heightens their flavor and causes them to be eaten with more relish. As a matter of fact, such use of sugar increases the value of the food thus seasoned. Good food promotes good health The Sugar Institute.
