Miss Hazel Pro Is Shower Guest

Miss Cecil Steel, Miss Marian Driggs, Miss Dorothy Sawyer, Miss Evelyn Cummings and Mrs. W. L. Lewis were hostesses for a charming affair at the home of Mrs. Lewis Monday night in connection with the wedding of Miss Hazel Pro, whose marriage will be an event of Friday afternoon at which time she will become the bride of Charles Dwight Hulings of Portland.

Spring flowers in profusion and suggestions of the coming marriage made the guest rooms a lovely background for the social evening enjoyed and the presentation of gifts to the bride to be. At a late hour the brides served an attractive luncheon.

The invited guests were Miss Hazel Pro, the honor guest, Mrs. George Pro, Mrs. Rose Sawyer, Mrs. Kate Smith, Mrs. Gordon Black, Mrs. H. B. Carpenter, Mrs. Harry E. Gardner, Mrs. W. A. Cummings, Mrs. Nix of Gervais, Mrs. Edward Heesman, Mrs. Steel of Gervais, Mrs. Weisman, Mrs. A. L. Dark, Mrs. Edward Perrin of Roseburg, Mrs. Kelley Bonney, Miss Margaret Pro, Miss Frances Graham, Miss Frances Custer, Miss Leora Andrews, Miss Adaline Seymour, Miss Gwendolyn Hubbard, Miss Virginia Lane, Miss Wilma Horn, Miss Louvera Horn, Miss Kathryn Young, Miss Minnie Heesman, Miss Alice Claxton of Portland, Miss Sarah Dark, Miss Leona Gardner and Miss Pauline Miller.

Mrs. F. W. Steusloff Will Entertain

Mrs. F. W. Steusloff will be hostess to members of the Missionary society of the First Congregational church at her home 607 North Commercial street, on Wednesday afternoon. R. J. Hendricks will speak on the work which he is doing toward creating a "mission pageant" for Oregon and the "mission play" as it is given in California. Musical numbers will be given by Mrs. Gordon McElchrist and Mrs. William McElchrist, Sr.

Hostesses for the afternoon are Mrs. F. W. Steusloff, Mrs. R. B. Fleming, Mrs. W. P. Gier, Mrs. Sarah Coates, Mrs. E. R. Ross, and Mrs. E. L. Donnell.

Statesman Pattern

1812 The woman of more generous proportions will welcome this attractive dress for wear around the house because of its slenderizing lines and neat appearance. The long vestee which joins the skirt panel in a point tends to lengthen the figure. Tiny pearl buttons trim the bodice daintily.

Pattern 1812 is lovely made of printed gingham, percale, cotton broadcloth or pongee, and trimmed with white pique. The pattern gives both long and short sleeves set-in, making trim, well fitting shoulders.

May be obtained only in sizes 38, 40, 42, 44, 46 and 48. Size 38 requires 3 1/2 yards of 36 inch fabric and 3-3 yard trimming. No dressmaking experience is necessary to make this model. The pattern has ample and exact instructions. Yardage is given for every size. A perfect fit is guaranteed.

Salem War Mothers Increase Membership

The regular meeting of the Salem War Mothers at the public library Tuesday afternoon was one of the most enthusiastic and interesting that has been held for many months, with 45 members present. It was the first meeting following the beginning of the campaign for new members. Some workers had as many as six and seven new members each to report and it was necessary to secure additional application blanks to take care of the incoming members.

The reports from all the committees were not made for lack of time Tuesday afternoon and will be continued at the home of Mrs. J. G. Riegelman, 940 Mill street Tuesday afternoon beginning at 2 o'clock.

Members presented at the meeting were Mrs. R. V. Ohmart, Mrs. Ella M. Wilson, Mrs. J. V. Littlefield, Mrs. Mag. V. Gordon of Salmabury and Mrs. Rosa Schaeffer.

group. The Emerald-KORE contest will be completed tonight, and the five best programs offered by the houses will be announced in Saturday's Emerald.

Drama League Seeks "Mrs. Dowey"

Hark ye! There is wanted by Mrs. Lucile Paulus, director of the Salem Drama league's next production, one "whimsical, fragile, mirth-loving and gay" little old lady or a woman who can make herself into that sort of character to take the part of "Mrs. Dowey" in the one act play, "The Old Lady Shows her Medals."

The part is one of much opportunity and it will be a joy to the person taking it for "Mrs. Dowey" has an excellent part to play and does much to make the play the delight that it is. Anyone who knows such a person or who will try out for such part call Mrs. Paulus at 1789-R.

Silverton—Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Satern were hosts at dinner Sunday evening. Guests were Rev. and Mrs. H. L. Foss, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Larson, Miss Viola Larson, Mr. and Mrs. Hans Jensen, Norman Jensen, Mervin Jensen and Miss Annabelle Jensen.

Mrs. George Vehrs will entertain with luncheon for 6 followed by an afternoon of bridge at her home Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. J. Garnjobst Is Afternoon Tea Hostess

Mrs. J. H. Garnjobst entertained 50 members of the ladies of the Salem Golf club with a delightful afternoon tea at her home Monday afternoon.

A short business session preceded the social afternoon at which time Mrs. E. N. Gillingham was made captain for this year. Mrs. J. H. Garnjobst is retiring captain. Plans were also made for the coming golf activity this spring. The first thing that will be done will be an old fashioned "box social" which will be held at the clubhouse of the Salem Golf club. The committee in charge of this is Mrs. Gus Hixon, Mrs. H. K. Stockwell, Mrs. Curtis Cross, and Mrs. Donald Young. It is expected that this affair will be held in two weeks.

Plans for matches and tournaments will be ready to announce soon and the spring playing will be under way.

Lloyd Drorbaughs Have "500" Evening

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Drorbaugh entertained with "500" at their suburban home Saturday night. Cards were in play until a late hour and a pleasant evening was concluded with a luncheon served by the hostess.

The guest list included Mr. and Mrs. George White, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. O'Neil, Mr. and Mrs. Fay Collier, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Eyre, Miss Charlotte Eyre, Miss Marjorie Drorbaugh, Mrs. Lillian Caldwell and Mrs. Lloyd.

Word has been received here that a daughter, Shirley Louise, was born February 1 to Mr. and Mrs. Francis Groth of Seward, Alaska. Mrs. Groth was Miss Bernice Clemens, a graduate of Willamette university in the class of 1928 and a member of the Alpha Phi Alpha sorority.

Aumsville Women's Club Meets

Aumsville—The Women's club met at the home of Mrs. Gladys Claxton Thursday afternoon. During a short business session, the members voted to send $7 to the Children's Farm Home fund. Mrs. J. E. Fowle, vice president, presided. The rest of the afternoon was spent in conversation and needlework. Mrs. Claxton was assisted in serving by Mrs. J. E. Towle, Mrs. John Ransom and Mrs. E. T. Pierce.

Special guests for the afternoon were Mrs. Ivan Putnam and Mrs. Neal W. of Shaw. Members present were: Mrs. Margaret Strayer, Mrs. Lee Highberger, Mrs. E. T. Piece of Salem, Mrs. Will Dougherty, Mrs. E. N. Speer, Mrs. Charles Hein, Mrs. Millie Martin, Mrs. John Ransom of Sherburne, Mrs. J. E. Towle of Shaw, and Mrs. Gladys Claxton.

Mrs. Prince Byrd Is Club Hostess

Mrs. Prince Byrd was hostess for a 1 o'clock luncheon in connection with members of her club Tuesday afternoon. The luncheon was followed with cards.

Special guests for the afternoon were Mrs. Dan MacLellan, Mrs. P. D. Quisenberry, and Mrs. Phil Newmeyer. Club members present were Mrs. Dan J. Fry, Jr., Mrs. W. Connell Dyer, Mrs. Harry Hawkins, Ms. Frits Slade, Mrs. Erce Kay, Mrs. John H. Carson, Mrs. T. A. Roberts, Mrs. Arthur Rahm, Mrs. Max Hofer, and Mrs. Byrd.

Members of the U. S. Circle No. 5 of the Grand Army of the Republic will meet for regular business meeting at the Armory at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

FLYER CALLED OUT WASHINGTON, March 4. (AP)—The navy today ordered Lieutenant A. J. Williams, its crack air racer, to sea aboard the aircraft carrier Saratoga. He is to report next Saturday.

Oh These Women!

By LEOLA ALLARD
Here is an indignant saleswoman, who challenges me. What do I mean asking where saleswomen in dress shops come from! And what she'd like to know is, where do people come from who prow around shops, and who do they think they are?

Well, they THINK they are shoppers, and if the saw something they liked, and an agreeable salesperson tried to sell it, possibly they would become buyers.

There are educated people, in fact college graduates, in department stores" the lady tells me, "and well bred people do not high hat anyone, nor do they take it from snobs."

Customers often go to college too and if they are spending their money and they have to wear the clothes surely they should be permitted to look around. Snobs, my dear, are amusing to people who know better—except when you try to get service from one in a store.

Vegetables are outstanding in the class of foods that "go begging." Spinach is rejected because its flavor is too mild. Tomatoes are often "turned down" because their flavor is too sharp. Carrots and peas, when too old, or cooked too long, become tasteless.

By using sugar to season these vegetables as they cook, their flavor will be noticeably improved. A dash of sugar to a pinch of salt is a good rule to follow. It is surprising how this combination will heighten, for example, the mild flavor of spinach and pleasantly soften the sharp taste of tomatoes.

LOOKER, when they wanted to purchase they would have no difficulty. There are many women pointed out as impossible, and we never attempt to find anything for them as it cannot be done.

What a nerve to take that for granted! To good salespersons every looker is a prospect.

Don't think that's what we are paid for. It isn't. We are paid only when a sale is made and then only if the garment is kept. Many women take a dress out, wear it, keeping it several days, and then return same for credit.

Those are the well dressed ones you wait upon first, I imagine. My first argument, was that you can't tell by her clothes what her bank balance is.

She asks me to please print what she says, as the "public needs to be told a thing or two. She signs it "One who hasn't always been a saleswoman."

That signature tells the story. She wishes she were the buyer instead of the saleswoman so she takes it out on the buyer.

Thumb, Finger Cut Off in Mill

SILVERTON, March 4.—C. J. Dahlen had the misfortune to lose his right thumb and the upper portion of his right middle finger Saturday while employed at Silver Falls Timber company mill.

Lucky Mother

"My success with Betty Jean isn't just luck," says Mrs. D. H. Keating, 1218 Hwy. St., San Antonio. "It is due to a plan. She has escaped the ill-effects of colds and upsets because, at the first sign of a cold; or bad breath, coated tongue or feverishness, I open her bowels with California Fig Syrup. She loves its taste and I like its gentle, thorough action."

Mothers by thousands praise California Fig Syrup. For fifty years physicians have endorsed this pure vegetable product. It tones and strengthens stomach and bowels; stimulates appetite; encourages digestion and assimilation. Its use helps make salivary. Healthless children rosy and energetic. Look for the name California when buying. That marks the genuine; safe for infants, effective for children in their teens.

Instructions in Hooked Rug-Making

There's every good reason why Hooked Rug-making is going to be the talk of the town . . . first, because hooked rugs are a distinctive adjunct to the home from both beauty and service angles . . . second, because Hooked rug-making gives you the opportunity to express your own ideas as to what you want in the way of design and color . . . third, Hook Rug-making is made so simple by the use of the new "Blue-nose" needle that a small child can readily follow instructions.

Join the Classes Now!

Free instructions will be given during this demonstration which lasts ten days more beginning with today. Classes begin at 9:30, last until 4:30. Miller's will loan you the frame in case you do not have one, and with the splendid cooperation of Helen Michaels, instruct you in the art of making a beautiful, or may we say exquisite hooked rug for your living room, wall hanging, four-poster, etc.

It's as Simple as Breathing!

Remember there's nothing difficult about hooked rug-making if you use the "Blue-nose" needle. Miller's want you to test this needle for yourself . . . Won't you join our classes today?
