Mrs. A. Woolpert Is Re-elected To Office

Mrs. A. T. Woolpert was re-elected to the presidency of chapter G of the P. E. O. sisterhood at the regular election of officers Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. G. W. Laffar. Other officers elected were Mrs. W. M. Smith, re-elected vice president; Mrs. F. W. Lange, recording secretary; Mrs. G. W. Knapp, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Harold Hughes, treasurer; Mrs. P. J. Kintz, chaplain; Mrs. D. X. Beesler, guard.

Delegates were also appointed for the next state conference. In addition to the president, Mrs. A. T. Woolpert who will go, Mrs. W. H. Byrd was appointed as delegate, and Mrs. W. M. Smith and Mrs. D. X. Beesler were appointed as alternates.

A beautiful floral tribute was sent to the members at this meeting by Jerald Volk in memory to the late Mrs. Jerald Volk who was a member of the chapter.

After the election of officers a social afternoon was enjoyed with refreshments served at a late hour. Mrs. Harold Hughes and Mrs. W. T. Hickey assisted the hostess in serving.

Special guests for the afternoon were Mrs. N. L. Newton, Mrs. Mary Rauch and Mrs. Paul Gugat of Aberdeen, Idaho.

Mrs. F. W. Seiles will be the next hostess to the chapter and Mrs. H. S. Poisal will be assistant hostess.

Salem Students Win Honors

University of Oregon—Judges for the semi-finalists in the campus-wide song contest include two Salem students; Nancy Thielsen, and Ed Fisher. Five fraternities are lined up hoping to win the cup which is now held by the Theta Chi, and five sorority houses are working in the semi-finals to win the Pi Phi cup. This cup is being offered by Pi Beta Phi, national sorority, in place of the one they won for "keeps" last year.

Miss Thielsen sang in the "single idea"—name of the radio program put on by Kappa Alpha Theta in the recent radio contest. The Theta won the cup for the best program put on by any girl's living organization, and are in the final five to appear Thursday evening for the grand prize. Miss Thielsen has been prominent in music, being a member of the glee club and polyphonic choir. Mr. Fisher is also a member of both organizations.

Scott Mills—Mrs. Addie Smith was pleasantly surprised when a few of her friends gathered at the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Smith, Saturday evening, the occasion being her birthday. Many gifts were received by Mrs. Smith.

The evening was spent in playing games and in conversation, after which lunch was served. Present were: Mrs. Lila Brougher of Salem, Mrs. Wanda Edland and small daughter, Mrs. Vina Loefer. Mrs. Rank, Mrs. Maud Myres, Mrs. Annette Hicks, Mrs. Edith Hogg, Mrs. Chick, Mrs. Amanda Moberg, Mrs. Lulu Scott, Mrs. Anna White, Mrs. Caroline Brougher, Mrs. Delta Vallen, Mrs. Eddie Smith, Gail Smith and the hostesses, Mrs. Zella Smith.

Dallas—The Junior Matrons of the Methodist church were guests of Mrs. Forrest Martin, Monday evening, March 3. The evening was spent in a social good time, following which the hostess served refreshments to: Mrs. Wiley Carpenter, Mrs. Florence Hunter, Mrs. Homer Brown, Mrs. Louise Jepson, Mrs. Ruth Norris, Mrs. Miriam Murray and hostess. The group will not meet again until after the close of the evangelistic services which commence March 4.

Silverton—Mrs. E. Oeder was the inspiration of a handkerchief shower Wednesday afternoon. Those attending included Mrs. E. Holden, Mrs. Carl Specht, Mrs. M. Lentsch, Mrs. Shuler, Mrs. John Ray, Mrs. Gus Beck, Mrs. Bert Green, Mrs. Joe Hopfinger, Mrs. Benson.

Mrs. Oeder will leave for Astoria, Washington, in the near future to join her husband who is employed there. Mr. and Mrs. Albert Oeder are moving into the home vacated by Mr. and Mrs. E. Oeder.

Gervais—The Eldridge "500" club held two meetings during the past week. On Thursday evening of last week, Mr. and Mrs. F. Runcork were hosts for the club meeting, prizes for high scores going to D. Cannard and Mrs. F. H. Cannard. At the F. H. Cannard home on Tuesday evening of this week, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Warmer won for high scores. F. A. Mangold and daughter, Miss Marie, were additional guests at the Tuesday evening meeting. Both Mrs. Runcork and Mrs. Cannard served reasonable refreshments after the games.

Brooks—Mr. and Mrs. Cecil V. Ashbaugh entertained at dinner Sunday. Mrs. Ashbaugh's sister-in-law, Mrs. Gertrude Jackson and son, Malcolm, Donald and Francis McCleod of Albany, Mrs. H. H. Bosch was also a recent guest at the Ashbaugh home.
