Peculiar Facts Unearthed by Officers Following Murder of Recluse

Legal Battle Promised Over $50,000 Estate Left by Arthur R. Manby

By GLENN M. BRILL, Associated Press Staff Writer
SANTA FE, N. Mex., March 11.—(AP)—Raw material for a thrilling mystery story continued to accumulate today with developments concerning the circumstances of the life and death of Arthur Rochfort Manby. Taos release found he capitulated in his home last July 3.

Attorneys girded themselves for a legal battle in federal court at Albuquerque tomorrow for possession of the 80-year-old Englishman's $50,000 estate and there appeared in Santa Fe the possibility of a contest over the right of Great Britain to demand United States intervention to solve the death mystery.

Robbery of Studio Laid to Woman
Terecia Ferguson, the woman whom Manby called in his diary "the princess of all my dreams," was at liberty under bond at Taos charged with robbing and burning the studio home of Mr. and Mrs. John Younghunter, artists of New York, and her nephew, George Ferguson, also charged with the robbery, was in jail in Taos with orders from District Judge H. A. Kiker that he is not to be permitted to talk with any one.

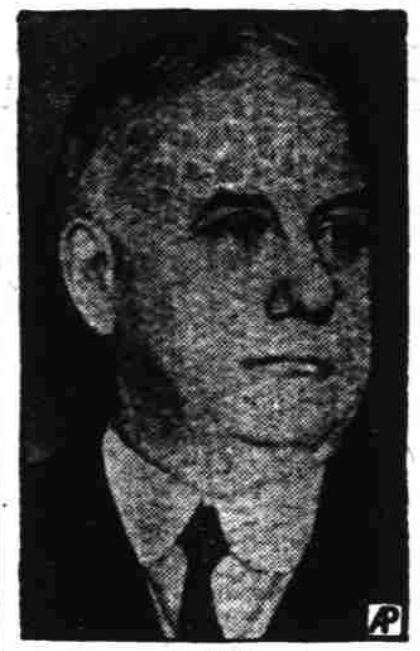

Late this afternoon Sheriff Gonzales found more loot from the Younghunter home when his deputies dug up a large box which had been buried in the back yard of Terecia's home at Canyon. The box was about 15 feet from the rear door and contained a valuable collection of Indian bead work. Last night dishes, silverware and clothing owned by the Younghunters were found inside the Ferguson home.

Tumbling upon these events too came an announcement from J. B. Manby, a brother in Denver, that at the time of his death, A. R. Manby was helping Terecia establish a claim to $40,000, 000 worth of Missouri property on the basis of a 150-year-old Spanish land grant.

Manby was always working on gigantic deals, his private papers reveal. In September, 1916, he wrote in his diary that at the time he was owner of 745,000,000 acres of land in New Mexico and the southwest. This property had been gained, he recorded, through the Taos Valley Land & Irrigation Co., and the Colonial Bond & Security Co., which he organized.

The suit over the Manby estate which centers at Albuquerque for the next few days involves an action by Dr. C. V. Thorne of New York to recover on a $12,000 mortgage granted to Manby.

Vare, who was refused a seat in the senate because of his extensive "slush fund," has thrown his support to James J. Davis, present secretary of labor, who will announce his candidacy in a few days.

PARRISH GIVEN PAROLE AFTER PLEA ENTERED

Judge Kelly Acts on Recommendation of District Attorney Here

Full Restitution to Be Made By Embazzler, Court is Told at Hearing

R. D. Parrish, ex-bookkeeper of the state tuberculosis hospital who confessed to the embezzlement of more than $1500 of state funds, was sentenced Tuesday to serve three years in the penitentiary by Judge Percy R. Kelly of the Marion county circuit court. But upon the recommendation of the state board of parole, the sentence was commuted to three months in the penitentiary.

When Parrish was brought before Judge Kelly for arraignment, he pleaded guilty to the embezzlement charge and waived time for sentence. The parole was granted following the sentence and Parrish was released to return to Bellingham, Washington, where he is employed as an instructor in a business college.

State to Be Repaid Entire Amount Taken
Under the provisions of the parole, Parrish is to make complete restitution to the state of Oregon of $191.82, the amount due the bonding company, and $874.60 due the state. The latter amount includes $130 which had not been (Turn to page 2, col. 2)

Joseph to Launch His Candidacy for Governor Shortly

Every indication from the political wisecracks of Portland Tuesday pointed to the early announcement of George Joseph as a candidate for the republican nomination for governor in May.

Joseph was said to have decided to announce Tuesday but was deterred by the death of Mrs. Sigmund Frank. Joseph is the attorney for the Meier & Frank company.

His announcement within the next few days seems virtually assured. Strong newspaper support has emanated from the Portland Telegram, Portland newspaper which has been closely allied with the Joseph interests since its change of ownership two years ago.

President Borno Has Change of Heart After Deciding To Oppose Idea

Recommendation for Provisional Government is Gaining Favor

PORT AU PRINCE, March 11.—(AP)—Tension was allayed here tonight following the Hoover commission's statement that it was standing by its recommendation for a provisional government in Haiti.

Unrest had been caused by President Louis Borno's reported change of mind regarding the commission's plan. He had agreed to support it Sunday, but yesterday he said to have issued a statement that he was still president of Haiti, that a new president would be selected on April 14 by the council of state and that there would be no legislative elections until 1932.

That aroused the opposition but today James Clement Dunn, counselor of the commission, notified the members at Cape Haitien that the situation was "in hand."

Newspapers Approve
Political Situation
Thus with the capital quiet tonight, the press took a favorable view of the commission's proposals for a provisional government and reestablishment of legislative elections.

Le Temps states that all wishes have been satisfied. La Presse asks all to accept the plan and see pride to attain great results. La Journal says the commission has approved the most important desires, and it expresses the hope that everything will be settled in a spirit of cooperation and conciliation.

The government paper, Le Matin, says the commission's statement without comment.

Le Sol says it is necessary for everyone to show good faith and not be partisans, but Haitians.

GOOD FRIDAY NOT STUDENT HOLIDAY

Only Day Following Easter Authorized as Recess By Directors

Although Salem teachers had asked that Salem follow suit of Portland and allow Good Friday and the Monday following Easter as school holidays this year, only the Monday following Easter will be a holiday. This was decided at the school board meeting last night when Superintendent George Hug reported the teachers' request and then recommended that but one day be given.

A patron of the Parrish junior high school district and his son appeared before the school board to ask that all board members pay for a hospital bill incurred when the son, a 12-year-old student at Parrish junior high, fell on the rocks while engaged in outdoor gymnasium work and bruised his leg. As a result of the accident, a costly operation resulted.

The board heard the case, but took no action, the general feeling being that a district was not responsible and that the board could not set a precedent of paying, or partly paying, in such cases.

The board also ordered that the heads of the machine and auto mechanics shop make a monthly turn-over of funds to the school clerk.

COUNCIL GROUP HALTS VERDICT WATER FRACAS

Public Utilities Committee Considers Issue at Special Gathering

Hope Still Held for Submission of Charter Amendment to Voters

Submittal of a charter amendment at the May election, providing authority for the expenditure of $5000 or some similar amount for the appraisal of the local water utility, looking toward its acquisition by the city, may possibly be the recommendation of the public utilities committee and City Attorney Frindle to the city council next Monday night.

This was indicated at the meeting of the committee and its three bankers advisors Tuesday night, although no definite action was taken. If a charter amendment is submitted, it will not include provision for any expression of the voters for or against municipal ownership, although the passage would naturally involve the assumption that a majority of the citizens favor municipal ownership in principle.

Members of the public utilities committee are Aldermen O. A. Olson, Hal D. Patton and Chris Kowitz.

Bankers Strong for Delay in Procedure
Although contending that the voters should be given an opportunity to decide for or against acquisition of the water plant, the banker advisors were unanimously of the opinion that it is not advisable to submit the matter at the May election; because of the program of major improvements which the water company has under way, because the bond market is not favorable and because the voters will be better able to decide wisely after the company has demonstrated whether or not it is going to provide adequate service.

These advisors, William Walton, D. W. Eyre and E. F. Siade, made it plain that they were speaking only in the advisory capacity for which they were appointed, and after giving their candid opinions, would not expect the committee to be swayed unduly thereby.

Water Firm's Lawyer Voices Objections
Objection to the submittal of a test vote, or any procedure not originally proposed by the committee, was brought before the committee by Walter Keyes, attorney for the water company. He declared that the charter amendment proposed would be essentially the same as a test vote, and urged against its submittal.

Alderman David O'Hara, who originally proposed the resolution looking toward municipal ownership, warned Mr. Keyes that unless the council takes some favorable action next Monday night, the Hollywood community club will have initiative petitions to force the issue in circulation within 48 hours thereafter.

Mr. Keyes replied that a would not object to that, as the public must decide, but urged against any action on the part of the council. He stated that except for the petition which he circulated, asking that the council give the company time to complete (Turn to page 2, col. 5)

Safe is Blown Open at Dallas Monday Evening

DALLAS, March 11.—The safe in the office of the Polk County Farmers' warehouse was blown open sometime during Monday night and a small amount of silver taken, according to the manager, Clarence Curry. Whoever was responsible for the affair, made an attempt to get away with the car of Raymond Syron from in front of his home, but was frightened away. It is thought the same persons, secured the small Pontiac coupe of Dr. L. A. Bollman, as it was found in the ditch near the former Leander Bilyeu farm on the Luckiamute. Byrd Expedition On Verge Of Bankruptcy He States

DUNEDIN, March 11.—(AP)—Rear Admiral Richard E. Byrd said that his expedition, which returned Monday from its conquest of the South Pole's vast region of ice, was on the verge of bankruptcy. He hopes, however, that it would "pull through alright."

Scared by battering ice floes, his ships, the Eleanor Bolling and the City of New York, equipped at a cost estimated at $750,000 are being refitted at Dunedin's docks. Within ten days, it is planned, they will carry Byrd and his 41 courageous men home-ward through the Panama canal to New York. The ships will bear small cargoes. Behind them in the Antarctic they left the airplanes used by Byrd and his men to map 280,000 square miles of land

LABOR GOVERNMENT LOSES IN SKIRMISH

MacDonald Says He Won't Resign Until Defeat on Major Question

LONDON, March 11.—(AP)—Prime Minister MacDonald's second labor government met its first defeat in the house of commons tonight. The margin of defeat was 8 votes, one less than the margin with which it triumphed over the combined opposition force February 27.

It had been evident for a week that the liberals were lining up their strength and stiffening the party discipline in preparation for an attack against labor's controversial coal mine's bill and unemployment program.

Today they joined the conservatives and successfully pushed through an amendment to the coal bill by 282 votes to 274.

Immediately after the announcement of the result, MacDonald made it plain that he had no intention of resigning until he was beaten on a major issue. He said he intended to go on with the coal bill because the amendment carried by the opposition made no essential change in the main structure of the measure.

Former Prime Minister Baldwin, leader of the conservatives, provoked an indignant denial from him by asking whether he intended to go with it.

"I am amazed at the question," MacDonald asserted. "Mr. Baldwin will have an opportunity two days from now to move his party's vote of censure. I will be glad to accommodate him if he will make his vote of censure general and we will accept the decision."

The prime minister showed no signs of discomfort after the defeat and asked the house to continue its work. Debate upon another amendment then proceeded.

TAFT LAID TO REST AS NATION MOURNS

By KIRKE L. SIMPSON, Associated Press Staff Writer
WASHINGTON, March 11.—(AP)—Under rain-soaked soil of wooded glade, lonely in its peace and isolation, William Howard Taft lay tonight, the long, eventful story of his mortal journey ended.

At his feet, a dozen yards away down the gently sloping hill side, towers the ancient and mighty oak. Through its leafless limbs, thrilling now with the stir of the coming spring, the fair lights of Washington gleam dimly toward that restful sylvan nook in Arlington national cemetery where he sleeps in eternal fellowship with the other great dead.

There is an old highway that passes just below where the busy traffic of the workaday world ebbs and flows. Beyond that comes the wide, quiet sweep of the Potomac, and then the city where most of his life-time of public service was spent.

Edward Doheny Goes On Trial For Bribery Today

WASHINGTON, March 11.—(AP)—Edward L. Doheny, wealthy oil operator will go on trial tomorrow on an indictment charging that he gave Albert B. Fall a bribe of $100,000 for a lease to the Hidge Naval oil reserve at Elk Hills, California.

Evidence concerning the payment of the money to Fall then secretary of the interior, was presented to a jury four years ago. Doheny and Fall testified it was a loan of one old friend to another and their acquittal of conspiracy followed. Last October, however, the District of Columbia court took an opposite view of the transaction and found Fall guilty of accepting the money as a bribe.

Much of the evidence which was used by government prosecutors to secure the conviction of the former cabinet officer cannot be introduced against Doheny. Es-

MOONSHINE MAKER IS JAILED RAPIDLY

Paul Lunde Arrested, Sentenced and Placed in Cell in One Hour

Hardly more than one hour after his arrest on a liquor charge, Paul Lunde, a resident on the Garden Road, was locked in the county jail under sentence for the crime which caused his arrest. It is thought that the case sets a record for Marion county court procedure.

Late Tuesday afternoon Deputy Sheriff Walter Barber and Wab Haskins drove out to Lunde's place and put him under arrest for operating a still. It was only a matter of minutes before the entire liquor manufacturing apparatus was loaded into a machine and brought into town along with its former operator.

Lunde lost no time in pleading guilty to the charge when he was brought into justice court before Judge Small. And Judge Small exchanged the compliment 1/2 quickly dispensing with the case, imposing a fine of $250 and 90 days in the county jail upon Mr. Lunde.

The still used by Lunde was made from a washboiler. One gallon of liquor was seized and about 50 gallons of mash. Several empty pint bottles and a number of gallon jugs also numbered in the seized articles.

VIOLATIONS OF LAW PROVE VERY MANY

Delmer Russell, erstwhile baseball pitcher, and Kenneth Fugh, son of Dave Fugh, broke several laws when they recently leveled their guns upon a China pheasant in the vicinity of the state tuberculosis hospital.

Here are the statutory prohibitions which were violated: hunting out of season; shooting from a public highway; hunting without a license; hunting on a state game preserve; creating a nuisance and disturbing the peace.

But Game Warden Ben Claggett was big-hearted and only one charge was placed against Russell and Fugh—shooting from a public highway.

The two young men pleaded guilty to the charge before Judge Brazier Small in justice court Tuesday afternoon and were released upon their own recognizance to appear for sentence today.

Hop Price Drop Causes Lack of Work in Salem

The slump in the hop market is making itself felt in the unemployment situation in Salem, reports E. A. Kenney, acting manager of the local government employment bureau. There has been practically no call for men to do spring work in the hop fields, he reports.

There is some demand for workers in berry patches, Mr. Kenney said Tuesday, but spring farm work in general has not started, at least insofar as the hiring of men is concerned. Many men are out of work even though last week's report showed that the number of calls is catching up on the registration.
