ASPARAGUS LIBERAL; IN DEMAND

Cauliflower Moves on Slowly; Potatoes

Are Firm PORTLAND, March 28.—(AP) Produce exchange, net prices: butter:

Butter and egg prices remain extras 41, standards 40, prime firsts 38, unchanged today, but there was a slight weakness in butter which many took to indicate that the reent advance might not hold. "Asparagus supplies are liberal, are lower again at 10c per pound for best green asparagus. Increased consumption of asparagus is probably affecting demand for other fresh vegetables. Caulia 25c premium over Oregon.

Cabbage Weaker

"Cabbage weakened in response to lower shipping-point prices; but is still a luxury at 8c per pound.

"Potatoes continue firm at all northern shipping districts, and carlot sales at Yakima were a shade higher. The Portland jobbing market is firm, but movement to retailers is rather slow at unchanged prices. Many of the city's current unloads are going into storage."

PORTLAND, Ore., March 27—(AP)—Milk—raw milk (4 per cent), $2.30@ Milk—raw milk (4 per cent), 25c premium over Oregon.

FIRST CARLOAD OF

Miles Linen company shipped its first carload quantity sack twine manufactured at the local plant, last Saturday. A shipment of 20,000 pounds went forward by Salem Navigation company for California markets. This is the first of several cars of sack twine which will be manufactured and shipped this year. Other products are fish twine, fish nets and similar products made of liven fiber.

A big market for sack twine exists on the coast in caring for the sacked grain. The Miles company is running at capacity working on orders with orders ahead to insure steady production for some months. Of General Knowledge
