

Events of Interest in Social - Musical - Club Circles :-

OLIVE M. DOAK, Society Editor

THE past week of parties, teas, and dances has held much of interest for a large part of Salem's social world. The college folk have taken advantage of the vacation week by entertaining and being entertained—the largest event for this group was the dancing party given by Miss Dorothy Moore and Miss Margaret Heltzel, and the bridge tea given by Miss Roberta Mills. A farewell dinner for Miss Margaret Brown, popular member of the younger set who left for San Diego, was also an event which drew attention.

Among the older circles was the delightful bridge tea given by Mrs. C. K. Spaulding at which time 17 tables of bridge was enjoyed in her attractive home on Court street.

The distinctive lecture tea given by Mrs. W. H. Burghardt was the center of interest for over 300 members of Salem's prominent folk. Mrs. Burghardt was assisted in this tea by Mrs. William Lytle who was in charge of the tea arrangements; Mrs. L. H. Tarpley and Mrs. Clifford Brown in arranging the decorative note of the tea room. The members of Mrs. G. E. Kirk's drama class of which Mrs. Burghardt is a member, assisted about the rooms; and Mrs. Otto Paulus, Mrs. Willard Marshall, Mrs. Claudine Rose Edgerton, Mrs. Virgil Stoliker, Mrs. Chester Cox, Miss Claudia Plank, Miss Nancy Thielsen, and Miss Dorothy Livesley, acted as ushers and also assisted in serving at the tea hour.

Those who received with Mrs. Burghardt were Mrs. Clifford Brown, Mrs. L. H. Tarpley, and Mrs. Charles Messer Stow.

Those who poured during the afternoon were Mrs. Curtis Cross, Mrs. Donald Young, Miss Elizabeth Lord, Miss Mabel Robertson, Mrs. Paul Wallace, Mrs. William Walton, and Mrs. Frits Slade.

This week there are scheduled three outstanding musical events. Monday night Miss Hager will give a concert at the Fox Elsinore theatre, in which she will be assisted at the Madrigal club and the Salem Civic Men's chorus, each of which is directed by Professor E. W. Hobson.

Tuesday night the MacDowell club present the Beethoven society in concert for the March program which was delayed. This program is given at Waller hall, Willamette university.

Wednesday night the last of the series of three concerts given by the Portland string quartet will be given at the women's club-house.

Other social events which are on the calendar so far is the bridge afternoon for which Mrs. Wallace Carson will be hostess in compliment to her sister, Mrs. Dan McLellan, who has only recently come to Salem.

The Merry-Go-Round club will be the guest of Mrs. E. C. Cross Friday evening. Mrs. T. A. Roberts and Mrs. Frits Slade will entertain the Tuesday club Tuesday.

Other events will be announced during the first of the week.

The total number using this fund in the past 10 years is 958. Many applications are in for aid.
