

VALSETZ P. T. A. ENTERTAINED

Grade School Children Stage Clever Program for Parents

VALSETZ, March 31.—The March meeting of the P. T. A. was held Thursday evening at 8 o'clock in the community hall.

The third and fourth grades in charge of Mrs. Margaret March presented a very clever little program which was enjoyed by a large crowd.

The third and fourth grades room received the P. T. A. banner which is awarded monthly.

During the business meeting it was decided to give a card party April 22 to raise money.

LABISH CENTER TO PRESENT COMEDY

LABISH CENTER, March 31.—Rehearsals are being held for "The Private Tutor," the three act farce comedy which the social committee of the local Education society is presenting on Friday evening, April 4, at 8:00 o'clock at the Labish Center school house.

The plot, which is unusually amusing, concerns the endeavors of two college boys to disguise the fact from the family of one of them that they have been "rusticated."

The cast includes Delbert Bibby playing Fred Spencer, who believes experience is the best teacher; Cecil Schaeferman as George Carothers, Fred's chum at Clearfield college; Willard Hornschuch as Mr. Spencer, who owns a 40-barrel well; Frances Klumpe as Dolly Spencer, who has a mind of her own; Birney Schaeferman, as Mrs. Spencer, who feels the responsibility of the oil well and has social aspirations; Jimmy Sewell, as Hans Dinkledorter, the leader of a little German band; Valmer Klumpe as Richards, the servant of the Spencers; and Naomi Hornschuch as Miss Snapp, a detective.

Miss Emma McCloughry is the coach.
