

Society News and Club Affairs

OLIVE M. DOAK, Society Editor

New Members Are Announced by War Mothers

The Salem chapter of the American War Mothers met at the city library for its regular meeting on Tuesday afternoon and officially admitted to membership 19 new members. Several of those to have been admitted were not able to be present. Those announced are Mrs. Mattie Schramm, Mrs. Mary Kim, Mrs. Jennie Landgraf, Mrs. Caroline Hixon, Mrs. Anna Boyer, Mrs. Hattie Kennon, Mrs. Catherine Low, Mrs. Louise Kraps, Mrs. Lena Cherrington, Mrs. Mary E. Rauch, Mrs. Carrie Carrigan, Mrs. Sophia Anderson, Mrs. Eva Brady Hill, Mrs. Addie Mills, Mrs. Ida C. Traglio, Mrs. Emma B. Beckett, Mrs. Elizabeth Duffenback, Mrs. Kate B. Gaylord, Mrs. Nora F. Clutter.

Since the first of 1930 the local chapter has doubled its membership and is still working for greater interest. Mrs. A. A. Lee, local president, urged the group to get out and make further contacts with mothers of service men and thus increase the goodfellowship which is rapidly growing in the organization.

A letter of interest to the members was read from the national president of the group by Mrs. Mark Skiff.

It was announced that the invitation to the local group to meet with the Albany chapter had been made for this Friday at which time about 20 members from Salem expect to visit Albany.

The next meeting will be in two weeks and will be a social meeting but the definite place of the meeting has not yet been announced.

Anniversary Affair Is Beautiful

One of the outstanding affairs of the year for Chadwick chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star was the anniversary celebration in compliment to the organization of the order, April 9, 1895, at which time there were only 43 charter members. Covers were placed for 200 at the banquet which preceded inspection by the worthy grand matron, Mrs. Elizabeth Tipton, of Portland.

Eight charter members still in Salem and attending the lodge work were seated at a special table of honor. They are Josie LaFore, Lot L. Pierce, Lena Cherrington, Jennie Chapman, George Dunford, Frances Smith, May Pierce and Alice Meyers.

Other state officers present in addition to Mrs. Tipton were Mrs. Minnie White, grand conductress; Mrs. Theresa Castner, past worthy matron; Mrs. Lucia Kites, grand warder.

In attendance at this meeting and receiving special honors were Judge O. P. Coshov, past grand patron of Oregon; Milton Meyers, grand master of the grand lodge of Oregon.

Special services were given by the Rainbow girls in compliment to the anniversary celebration and the visit of grand officers. Special musical numbers by Mrs. Harry Harms, Mrs. Lyman McDonald, Joy Turner Moses, and Mills orchestra added much to the pleasure of the evening.

Following the dinner hour Mrs. Tipton assisted by other visiting grand officers, Mrs. Pearl Pratt, worthy matron of Chadwick chapter, and Herbert Hauser, worthy patron, inspected the work of the order.

Past worthy matrons and past worthy patrons given honors were Mrs. Alice Meyers, Mrs. Lottie Smith, Mrs. Marian Derby, Mrs. Rose Babcock, Mrs. Mabel Minto, Miss Lella Johnson, Miss Gussie Niles, Mrs. Mary Johnson, Mrs. Monnie Hauser, Mrs. Paye Wright, Mrs. Estella Smith, Mrs. Hazel Gillette, Mrs. Ida Godfrey, Miss Minnie Moeller, Mrs. Ida M. Babcock, Mrs. Lena Cherrington, Mrs. Josie LaFore, V. E. Kuhn, David Wright, H. B. M. Rodgers, W. M. Smith, G. G. Brown, W. C. Kautner, M. L. Meyers, Lot L. Pierce, Martin Ferrey, David Wright, William Neimeyer and Corydon Blodgett.

Alliance to Elect Officers Friday

Members of the Woman's Alliance of the Unitarian church will meet at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon in the Emerson room of the church and in the business meeting officers for the fiscal year will be elected.

Special music will be given under the direction of Mrs. W. J. Minkiewicz, and Mrs. W. E. Anderson will review the popular play "Journey's End" written by R. Sherriff.

At 6 o'clock following the afternoon meeting the members of the Unitarian church and friends will meet in the church social rooms for a potluck dinner in compliment to the new minister, Fred Alban Weil and his wife.

The evening will be in the nature of a reception for Mr. and Mrs. Weil and all members and friends of the church are urged to cooperate with this dinner.

Studio Recitals To Be Given

A number of spring recitals are being planned by Alma Weller in her residence studio on North Liberty street. A group of advanced students will be presented by Alma Weller this evening as the first of this series. Leon Jennison will be the assisting soloist for this program.

Monday night a second recital will be given in Miss Weller's studio and at this time a group of younger students will be presented.

Miss Florence Marshall has as her week-end guest, Miss Paty Cooley of Willamette university. Miss Cooley is a member of the Delta Phi sorority. Her home is in Frairie City, Oregon.

Mrs. Dan McLellan, who has just come to make her home in Salem and who was complimented Wednesday afternoon with an attractive bridge tea given in her honor by her sister, Mrs. Wallace Carson.

Attractive Bridge Tea Is Lovely Affair

A lovely affair was that for which Mrs. Wallace Carson was hostess at her home, Wednesday afternoon in compliment to Mrs. Dan McLellan, who with Mr. McClellan has just come to make her home in Salem after having been away for several years in Bend, Oregon.

The gay spring color of yellow dominated the guest rooms and formed the note of color for the attractive service table at the tea hour. Baskets and deep bowls of flowers mostly in yellow were artistically arranged about the rooms where bridge was in play at seven tables. To add to the soft beauty of the room lighted orange tapers in pewter holders shed their shadowy light over the guests.

Honors for the afternoon of cards were held by Mrs. Carl Nelson and Mrs. Roy Simmons. Mrs. Carson was assisted at the tea hour by Mrs. Milton Steiner, Mrs. Frank Deckerbach, Jr., Mrs. John Coughell, Jr., Mrs. Tom Wood and Mrs. Rex Adolph.

Guests for the afternoon were Mrs. Dan McLellan, the honor guest, and the Mesdames: Carl Nelson, Paul Hendricks, Oliver Huston, H. G. Malson, Paul Newman, Roy Simmons, Tom Wood, Brazier Small, Rex Adolph, Homer Egan, Milton Steiner, Leo Steiner, Frank Deckerbach, Max Page, Jr., Walter Page, John Coughell, Jr., Frederick Deckerbach, Allan Carson, W. Wells Baum, Donald Carson, Gus Hixon, P. D. Quisenberry, Roy Keene, Karl Becke, Richard Slater, Harry Hawkins, Fritz Slade, Dan Fry, Jr., Jack Elliott, James Young.

Scotts Mills Group Is Entertained

Scotts Mills—Mrs. C. D. Hartman entertained with an afternoon party Monday at her home in compliment of Mrs. Duzel, mother of Mrs. Earl Hartman, who is here visiting from Wisconsin, and expects to leave Sunday for her home. Spring flowers were used in profusion about the rooms.

Three tables of "500" were played with Mrs. Duzel receiving high score and Mrs. Amundson the consolation prize.

Lunch was served by the hostess assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Ted Lounson. Those present were the honor guest, Mrs. Duzel, Mrs. Earl Hartman, Miss Spencer, Mrs. Lena Madson, Mrs. Lum Whitlock, Mrs. Harve Smith, Miss Jane Hartman, Mrs. George Hubbs, Mrs. George Helvey, Mrs. W. T. Hogg, Mrs. J. N. Amundson, Mrs. Giffard Smith, Mrs. Hugh Range, Mrs. Ted Lorenzen and the hostess, Mrs. C. D. Hartman.

SOCIAL CALENDAR

Thursday

Raphaterian club, 2:30 o'clock, Mrs. A. A. Seiwert, 388 North Winter street.

Chapter G. of the P. E. O. Sisterhood, luncheon meeting, home of Mrs. C. K. Logan; Mrs. G. Knapp and Mrs. F. G. Voight and Mrs. Logan hostesses.

Encinitis club, 6:15 dinner meeting, Y. W. C. A.

Ladies of the G. A. R., U. S. Grant circle No. 5, will meet at armory, 2 o'clock.

Friday

First Spiritualist church, circle, George Stoddard home, 1420 North 4th street, 8 o'clock.

Hal Hubbard, 2 o'clock armory. Luncheon meeting postponed.

Women's Alliance, Unitarian church parlors, 2 o'clock. Election of officers.

Potluck supper, 6 o'clock, reception for minister, church members and friends will be present. Social rooms of Unitarian church.

Brush College grange, at Brush College school house. Election of state officers, all members urged to attend.

Saturday

Rainbow Girls' initiation, 7:30 o'clock, Masonic temple; grand worthy advisor, Shirley Stuart, is expected.

Woman's Relief Corps, 2 o'clock, Miller's hall, D. A. R., with Mrs. Homer Gouley.

Mrs. D. B. Flemming and daughters, Jean and Barbara Lou opened their country home on the Yakima, Washington, are guests at the M. B. Wagstaff home for the next fortnight.

Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Jones opened their country home on the river road Wednesday. During the winter months they have been at the Court apartments.

Mrs. Homer Gouley To Be D. A. R. Hostess

The first country meeting of the year for members of Chemeketa chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution will be Saturday at the home of Mrs. Homer Gouley. During the year the Daughters plan to have at least one such country meeting in the spring. This year there will be two, Mrs. Seymour Jones will be hostess for the second spring country meeting.

The meeting Saturday will open with a board meeting at 2:00 o'clock; at 2:30 o'clock there will be a business meeting and at 3:00 o'clock there will be a program followed by a social time.

The committee which will assist Mrs. Gouley in Mrs. A. D. Hurley, Mrs. A. E. Austin, Mrs. E. L. Loos, Mrs. Herbert J. Ostlund, Miss Edna Mings, Mrs. Frank W. Settle, Mrs. Herbert J. Powell, Mrs. W. H. Byrd, regent, will appoint her nominating committee. This year will be the first time that officers have been nominated and elected for one year only.

There will also be reports given of all the transactions of the recent state convention in Portland. It is also announced that the Post Regents club luncheon planned to be held at the home of Mrs. C. C. Clark has been postponed for this week.

Mrs. Ivan Martin Calls Committee Meet

Mrs. Ivan Martin called members of her housing committee together at her home Tuesday afternoon in order to make further definite arrangements to care for the 400 women who will be here during the convention meeting May 12, 13, 14 and 15.

The problem of taking care of this many women without inconvenience or embarrassment will be her small task and Mrs. Martin and her committee is urging all folk of Salem who will be able to assist in this matter to telephone at his earliest convenience to Mrs. Martin, 835 W., just what can be done.

"Ladies' Day" Begins At Salem Golf Club

Women of the Salem Golf club will commence their season for this spring Friday with a sweepstakes event.

At nine o'clock Mrs. J. H. Garnjobst, chairman of the committee to take charge of the furnishing of the clubhouse, is calling a meeting of both the committee and the members of woman's golf club. At this time there will be a roundtable discussion as to what is needed for the clubhouse and what shall be best to buy.

Because it is a matter of genuine interest to all the members Mrs. Garnjobst is urging all members and the committee to be present for this nine o'clock meeting prior to the playing.

Among the Salem folk who were in Portland Monday night to hear Roland Hayes was Elizabeth Levy. Miss Levy also stayed over in Portland for the Ben Greet players production of "Hamlet," Tuesday night.

A Personally-Conducted Special

Motor Tour of EUROPE

Visiting England, Belgium, Holland, France, Germany, Switzerland, Austria and Italy

THE modern way to tour Europe—now available at a decidedly moderate price... with such unusual features as a guide with every motor car and special lecturers in all important cities visited.

Sail from Quebec on July 2 aboard the magnificent Canadian Pacific liner "Empress of Australia" down the St. Lawrence River route. Visit such important places as London, Ostend, Brussels, Antwerp, The Hague, Amsterdam, Cologne, the Rhine, Heidelberg, Bern, Lucerne, Munich, the Passion Play, Venice, Florence, Rome, Pisa, Monte Carlo, Nice, Paris, many others. Arrive back in New York on August 30.

For literature and details apply to these tour conductors:

EDNA ELLEN BELL 1491 E. Lincoln St. Taber 5230

GWLADYS BOWEN 1020 Fairview Blvd., Br. 2385 - Atw. 2121

PORTLAND, OREGON

Elizabeth Reger
Home Economist of the Statesman Cooking School, selects

AWARDED FIRST PREMIUM OREGON STATE FAIR

Marion BUTTER

PASTEURIZED CLARIFIED

Made fresh each day in Salem; on sale at Your Grocer's

Marion Creamery Co.

New! a patented Griddle on the SPARK Lid-top GAS STOVE

Here is a new invention that we're anxious to show to every woman, because we know how much women will appreciate it. It's an exclusive feature of the Spark Lid-top, a built-in griddle that gives you 50% more cooking space without increasing the size of the stove. Heated by a patented gas burner and is not dependent on the Kitchen Heater. Wonderful for hotcakes, and equally good for pan broiling a large steak, or for French toast. We believe it's the greatest improvement ever made in gas stoves. Don't fail to come in and see it.

Trade in Your OLD RANGE on a new SPARK Lid-Top

Convenient Terms on the Balance

See The Spark Equipped to burn Shellane. Ideal Range for the farm home.

SPARK Stoves from $21.15 to $375.

Imperial Furniture Co., Inc.

Lebanon and 467 Court St. Salem

Nothing like this TAPPAN GAS RANGE

SPEED OVEN

Start baking the moment you light the oven.

No waiting for oven to come to temperature.

Fastest baking and most efficient oven Tappan has ever produced.

See the wonderful new Speed Oven Tappan Gas Range. Never a range like it before! Just turn on the gas and the oven is hot in a jiffy! No waiting, no time lost—marvelous convenience. A revolutionary improvement in gas range design! Oven heat control to simplify your cooking and free you from the kitchen. Don't worry longer with a slow, wasteful old stove.

Come in... see this wonder-range today!

Distributed by Portland Gas and Coke Co. 136 S. High St.

TAPPAN Stove Co.