

Community Clubs Making Plans For Talent Contests

CLUB GROUPS MEET MONDAY

Community Representatives To Gather at Aumsville

HUBBARD, April 4.—Dr. P. O. Riley of Hubbard, president of the Marion County Federation of Community Clubs, will be in Aumsville Monday evening April 7, to preside at the general federation meeting.

There will be a 6:30 dinner and large delegations are expected from Turner, Stayton, Mill City, Sunnyside, Jefferson and other community clubs in the county.

Dr. Riley will outline plans for the community talent contests this year which he says will surpass all previous ones.

All clubs in Marion county are invited to attend this meeting at Aumsville on Monday evening.

AMITY MAN HURT IN RUNAWAY

AMITY, April 4.—While working on his father's ranch west of Amity, Ernest Robbins was seriously injured when the team which he was driving ran away. The accident occurred Thursday afternoon.

The team was hitched to a wagon which was loaded with plaster. The team came to a small hill and became frightened at an object there. Immediately they began running. Ernest tried to work the brake, but it failed.

The team came to a corner and was going at such a rate of speed that when they turned, the wagon upset and dragged the wagon and Ernest quite a distance.

Mr. Robbins received a bad smash on his head and his leg was hurt badly. He also received minor injuries. He is confined to his home.

Ernest has lived in this community all of his life and is a graduate of Amity high school.

Former Teacher Visits at Perkins Maplewood School

LAKE LABISH, April 4.—Miss Ina D. Koon of Salem, former teacher of Perkins-Maplewood school visited friends both at the school and out on Wednesday afternoon. Miss Koon, since her retirement from teaching, is active in social and civic work in Salem and belongs to the Business and Professional Women's club. Miss Koon's mother, Mrs. Louisa Koon, is spending a fortnight in California and is expected home Wednesday of next week.

Kings Valley Has New Saw Mill

KINGS VALLEY, April 4.—Mr. Hunt has purchased a fine tract of timber from Charles Kerber, and is putting in a small mill to begin operations at once.

Mr. Hunt has a large mill and plant on the Bruce Miller place, but considers it more economical to put a small mill on the Kerber job, than to haul the logs to his larger mill.

LEGION SPONSORS MOVE MONMOUTH, April 4.—Monmouth Post No. 65 of the American Legion is sponsoring a move, "The Air Circus," in Monmouth Wednesday and Thursday evenings at the Ross theatre, as a benefit to help furnish the new Legion rooms. Wednesday night the Legion drum corps of Corvallis post furnished special music which was highly appreciated by the audience.

MOVE TO BROWNSVILLE KINGS VALLEY, April 4.—Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Daniels are moving to Brownsville when Mr. Daniels has employment.

Mr. Daniels has just bought a new truck, trading in his old one on the deal, so he goes well equipped for his work.

EIGHT KILLED IN SWAN TRAGEDY

Here is the wreck of the Columbia river dance barge Swan, rammed after midnight Sunday with 226 merry-makers aboard. Eight persons dead was the toll tentatively fixed Monday. Government officials will conduct an investigation of the tragedy. The barge collided with freighter Davenport. The tug Dix which towed the barge was sunk.

STUDENTS WORK TO PAY SCHOOL DEBT

AMITY, April 4.—Every window in the business section of Amity is clean and yards are raked in the residential districts due to the fact that Tuesday, April was "Work Day" at Amity high school.

There were no classes and school was dismissed so the students could work and each turn in one dollar or more if they earned it the same day.

The treasurer of the student body, Calhoun Monroe, reported $24 being turned in on Wednesday. This money will be used to help pay the high school debts. Amity high school has been in debt for the past four years. The students this year have been working very hard to pay off these debts. Calhoun announced that if there was a good turnout to the games this spring prospects were that the debt would be cleared.

Dallas Kiwanis Fete Basketball Team at Lunch

DALLAS, April 4.—The Friday program of the Kiwanis club was given over to entertainment of the Dallas high school basketball team, which made a very good showing in the recent state tournament. Abel Uglow was chosen as the out-standing player in the state and the members took pleasure in honoring him.

Brief talks were made by R. R. Turner, school superintendent, and David Wright, the coach.

It was announced that Harry L. Corbett would be the speaker at the next meeting to be held jointly with the Chamber of Commerce on April 11.

Bottle Milk Is Now Required In Rogue River

MEDFORD, April 4.—(AP)—Restaurants, confectioneries and other public eating houses where milk is served are now required to serve milk at the table in bottles in conformity with the new standard milk ordinance. The ordinance provides for opening the bottle in the presence of the patron. Dr. L. D. Inskip, health officer, said.

Many local confectioneries have already done away with milk pumps at their fountains, Dr. Inskip said.

The six honors students, all girls, are: Velma Critchlow, Agnes Helgeson, Elsie Jones, seniors; Lucille Mack, Hazel Ward and Lavon Morgan, sophomores.

AMITY MEN ON WASHINGTON TRIP

AMITY, April 4.—J. L. Miller and his brother, J. A. Miller of Monroe, Washington, accompanied by their friend, H. V. Skates of Portland, left Amity Tuesday, April 1, for Kennewick, Washington, where they will visit J. L. Miller's daughter, Mrs. R. L. Carpenter.

After spending a few days there they plan on visiting Mr. Miller's father, David Miller, lives at Watsburg. Their father, who is 90 years old, is quite ill.

Rickey Contest Winners Feted

RIKEY, April 4.—Mrs. Marie Kelly, the principal of the school and the winners in the "cleaner teeth" contest in the advanced room, were entertained at an out door frolic and wienie roast, on Tuesday evening from 7 to 9 o'clock in the woods on the M. M. Magee farm.

Two huge fires were built to furnish light and games were enjoyed for some time after which an out-of-door meal, consisting of roasted potatoes, and wienies, pickles, cake and toasted marshmallows was enjoyed.

Present were Marie Blanchard, Dorothy and Patricia Fitzpatrick, Etta and Francis Flood, Eloise Raymond, Joyce Kelly, Margaret and Hazel Magee, Clyde and Gordon Randall, Olive Holeman, Howard Pallefer, David Splid, Albert Kelly, Wallace and Donald Cadwalder.

Amity High Frosh Lose Banner

AMITY, April 4.—The president of the Freshman class of Amity high school, Gwendolyn Davidson, presented the Freshman pennant to the associated student body on Wednesday, April 2.

The president, Elmer Wood, was absent and the vice president Clifford Stephens, was also absent so Miss Dorothea Biggs, secretary accepted the pennant and gave a short speech.

The pennant was placed on the library table in the back of the assembly. The next morning the pennant could not be found. Whether it was taken for a joke or not remains to be found. The freshmen are quite indignant about the matter.

GERVAIS P. T. A. PLANS PROGRAM

GERVAIS, April 4.—The Parent-Teacher association will hold its first meeting since organizing at the school building on Monday evening. Dr. Russell, of Salem, county health officer, will be the principal speaker. A program in which all rural schools in the surrounding territory will participate, will be given and light refreshments will be served after the meeting.

One number of the program will be the oration written by Florence DuRette for the district high school oratorical contest and on which she won a place in the finals to be held at Corvallis on April 11. Miss DuRette is the only pupil from a small school who won a place in the finals. All others are from schools like Salem high, Albany high, University high of Eugene and Corvallis high, and Gervais is justly proud of her.

STILL AND MASH TAKEN NEAR CARLTON

McMINNVILLE, April 4.—Jack Conrad, 35, of Carlton, was arrested Wednesday night by sheriff's officers when he was found at his home in possession of a still.

The still, which was hidden in a barn near the residence, was not operating, but 50 gallons of mash were found buried near the still site, and Conrad was in possession of a small amount of liquor at the time of his arrest. He is now in the county jail pending a hearing, which will be held next Thursday, officers said.

DETROIT HAS NEW SAW MILL

100 Men to Be Employed When Operations Begin May 1

MILL CITY, April 4.—F. W. Foulkes of Eugene, was a visitor in Mill City briefly while enroute to Detroit from Eugene. Foulkes is owner of a new saw mill which is now under construction about five miles above Detroit in the heart of a big timber area. The new mill will have a sawing capacity daily of from 75,000 to 100,000 feet and will employ about 100 men at the start. It is expected to have the new mill in operation by May 1.

The mill will specialize in timbers, car material and cross-arm stock and will be capable of cutting timber up to 60 feet in length. It will be operated by steam.

The Southern Pacific railway company has a crew of men relaying the track from Detroit to Idanha and into the new saw mill site. The track from Detroit to Idanha was taken up a few years ago.

Harry Christian who has been running the hotel at Detroit, has taken over the operation of the cook house at the new mill and has leased the Detroit hotel to a Portland party.

GRANGE INITIATES AT KING'S VALLEY

KINGS VALLEY, April 4.—Eleven candidates were initiated in the third and fourth degrees of the King's Valley grange at the last regular meeting. At the close of the work, a harvest feast was held, and it is needless to say that ample justice was done to the viands.

An entertainment and picnic is being planned for April 18. The proceeds to be used for equipment for the grange.

The first of our series of pioneer history is now ready, and will be presented at the lecture hour of the next regular meeting, April 11. This historical data of local pioneers will be collected, read at grange meetings, and made a permanent record in custody of the grange.

Dallas Couples Observe Golden Wedding Date

DALLAS, April 4.—Two Dallas couples celebrated their golden wedding anniversary during the past week. Rev. and Mrs. M. J. Ballantyne held a very quiet family re-union at their home the evening of March 31. Rev. Ballantyne has been in very poor health for some time, and it was impossible to hold a reception for them. All of the children were home for the occasion however.

Sunday afternoon from 3 until 5 o'clock a reception was held at the Evangelical church in honor of Rev. and Mrs. M. J. Young at which friends gathered to present a program and entertain for the guests.

CORBETT TALKS TO CLUB AT AMITY

AMITY, April 4.—The Amity commercial club held the regular monthly meeting at the Christian church on Wednesday, April 2.

The speaker of the day was Harry L. Corbett of Portland. Elijah Corbett, M. F. Corrigan, and Sam Sawyer all of McMinnville were present. H. C. Patty of Dufer was also a guest.

The Howepwell orchestra furnished several numbers. The dinner was prepared and served by the ladies of the Christian church.
