Sprague, who having been duly sworn according to law, deposes and says that he is the editor of the Oregon Statesman, and that the following is, to the best of his knowledge and belief, a true statement of the ownership, management, circulation, etc., of the aforesaid publication for the date shown in the above caption, required by the Act of August 24, 1912, embodied in section 411, Postal Laws and Regulations, printed on the reverse of this form, to-wit:
1. That the names and addresses of the publisher, editor, managing editor, and business managers, are:
Publisher, Statesman Publishing Co., Salem, Oregon. Editor, C. A. Sprague, Salem, Oregon. Business Manager, S. F. Sackett, Salem, Oregon.
2. That the owner is: Statesman Publishing Company, Inc., Salem, Oregon, C. A. Sprague and Sheldon F. Sackett, individually and as purchasers under contract of sale from R. J. Hendricks and Carle Abrams all of Salem, Oregon, stock under such contract being in escrow with Ladd & Bush Trust Co., Salem, Oregon. Note: Ownership of certificate for 200 shares (par $10) of old preferred stock of Statesman Publishing Co. in dispute among R. J. Hendricks, holder of record, C. J. Roads of Portland, and W. C. Winslow of Salem.
3. That the known bondholders, mortgagees and other security holders owning or holding 1 per cent or more of total amount of bonds, mortgages, or other securities are:
C. A. Sprague, Salem, Oregon.
S. F. Sackett, Salem, Oregon.
Walter Scott Printing Press Mfg. Co., Plainfield, N. J.
Pacific Savings & Loan Assn., Tacoma, Wash.
Mergenthaler Linotype Co., Brooklyn, N. Y.
4. That the two paragraphs next above, giving the names of the owners, stockholders and security holders, if any, contain not only the list of stockholders and security holders as they appear upon the books of the company but also, in cases where the stockholder or security holder appears upon the books of the company as trustee or in any other fiduciary relation, the name of the person or corporation for whom such trustee is acting, is given; also that the said two paragraphs contain statements embracing affiant's full knowledge and belief as to the circumstances and conditions under which stockholders and security holders who do not appear upon the books of the company as trustees, hold stock and securities in a capacity other than that of a bona fide owner; and this affiant has no reason to believe that any person, association, or corporation has any interest direct or indirect in the said stock, bonds, or other securities than as so stated by him.
5. That the average number of copies of each issue of this publication sold or distributed, through the mails or otherwise, to paid subscribers during the six months preceding the date shown above is 6,161.
C. A. SPRAGUE.
Sworn to and subscribed before me this 2nd day of April, 1930.

BUTTER MARKET IS WEAK; QUIET
* * * * * * * * * * * *
ASPARAGUS GROWTH IS TARDY

Potato Markets Are Firm, Report of Portlanders

PORTLAND, April 4—(AP)—Egg and butter prices were unchanged today. Receipts continue to exceed demand, but surpluses were still going into storage.

Reviewing the fruit and vegetable situation, the Portland bureau of the United States department of agriculture says:

"Cooler weather in the northwest is resulting in delayed growth of asparagus; consequently Portland's receipts from Hood River, McCredie and other points are still limited to a few crates daily. Liberal receipts and rather low prices of California asparagus is the cause of lower prices on northwest grass; the latter is still commanding a 50 per cent premium over California stock however.

"Potato markets continue firm at all points, with some districts, as Minnesota, reporting the market much stronger.

Onions Finding Outlet

After an entire season of dullness and discouragement in the onion trade, some improvement is noted this week. Middlewestern inquiry is especially active, and some Oregon onions are finally finding a profitable outlet there. Many of the remaining storage holdings will not 'stand up' under the long haul, however. Good quality stock is arriving at eastern markets in excellent condition, though.

5000 FARMERS IN WOOL GAME VALLEY

CORVALLIS, April 4—(AP)—Western Oregon wool growers have been receiving average prices that have fluctuated from 15 cents a pound for low grade wools in 1921 to 50 cents higher in 1925, the best price year in the last decade, according to a study completed by Dr. E. B. Mittleman, economist at the Oregon Experiment station. The study was of the marketing of Willamette wools through the Pacific Cooperative wool growers.

Dr. Mittleman found that there are about 5000 farm flocks owners in western Oregon and that the Pacific cooperative of Portland is the largest single marketing company and agency. In spite of the marketing difficulties encountered by the cooperative, he found that it had succeeded in holding its wool past the season of depressed price and had marketed it either at the high points of the year's quotations or when these were in the making.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, April 4—(AP)—In a big, rapidly swinging market, new upturns of wheat prices today encountered heavy profit taking sales, but resulting setbacks were followed by fresh rallies.

Reports of hazardous crop conditions because of persistent drought in Kansas, Oklahoma and Nebraska met something of an offset in assertions by some experts that needed moisture was likely to be received before damage became severe. There were late advices, however, of huge dust storms over the Canadian prairie provinces and of unfavorable weather as well for seeding in domestic spring wheat territory.

Changes None Locally Within Last 24 Hours

No price changes were recorded on Salem's market row on Friday. The butter market was reported slightly weaker, due to the increased supply. Portland market has been short of butter for some time and this has strengthened the local price.

Change of Plans Save Couple From Ill Fated Swan

RICKEY, April 4.—Rickey has cause to rejoice that two members of the community were not among the passengers of the ill-fated Swan.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Humphreys had planned on making the trip, but were forced to change their plans at the last minute.

NAPLES.—(AP)—Prof. Hans Hartmann is planning to search for an undersea city which he thinks lies in the Mediterranean between Sicily and Tunis at a depth of 375 feet. He has already surveyed the site by underwater photographs.
