The Beauty By HELEN BOX FOLLETT Box

Five minutes of calisthenics in the morning, followed by a quick tubbing, provides one with a sense of well-being. Especially if one is a restless sleeper, awakening with a heavy head and a what's-the-use despair. During sleep the circulation is not as active as during wakened hours.

The heart action slows up slightly. Breathing is shallow. A little muscular activity shows up in the eyebrows, sets one on one's toes. When a woman stops being active she begins to get old, no matter what her age may be.

Muscles that don't work go flabby and soft tissues make for bad posture stooped shoulders and triple chins. This is a warning.

In case any of the paper friends seeking beauty may be curious about the small curl we will inform them that it is the flat beautician covered with a piece of three cornered paper, pinned securely and left to dry. A good

A beautiful back is rare beauty point. It must not be fat, neither should it reveal the hinges of the back bone. More than anything else, it is necessary that it should be straight with a lovely inward curve at the waistline. Throwing the shoulders or hips forward will ruin the most perfect back; a back isn't perfect unless the carriage is regal, the head held splendidly.

A brush or small string mop should be used when dishes are washed if the lady fair would keep her hands in good condition. Rubber gloves should always be worn when heavy work is done about the house—wiping up the kitchen floor or cleaning shelves on which dust has accumulated. A bottle of hand lotion, made of two ounces each of glycerine and rosewater and half a teaspoon of boric acid, is a soothing comfort to little mitts that are subjected to much housework.

Mandamus action against the directors was filed by Louis Sondheim and other members of the bondholders committee against Charles McCrain and Bonds of the district aggregating $150,000.

QUARRY OPERATOR MUST FACE TRIAL

SAN FRANCISCO, April 9.—(AP)—Homer P. Brown, a wealthy Placerville, Calif., quarry operator who for several months has resisted efforts to return him to Aberdeen, Wash., to face a bank fraud indictment, today lost his appeal to the federal circuit court of appeals here for a writ of habeas corpus.

The court's mandate will not come down for another 30 days, however, and in that time, if he chooses, Brown may take an appeal to the supreme court.

Brown was arrested here last year on a 1928 indictment charging him with filing a false statement of his financial condition with Hays & Hays, Inc., bankers since defunct. Gov. Young honored extradition and Brown unsuccessfully appealed to the state supreme court. He then went into federal district Judge Kerrigan's court last fall with a petition for a writ of habeas corpus.

Judge Kerrigan denied the writ and today Circuit Judge Curtis D. Wilbur affirmed the order of the lower court, ruling that "the indictment is a sufficient charge of crime for extradition purposes."

ROCKNE CHERFUL CHICAGO, April 9.—(AP)—Tanned by two months on Florida beaches, an expansively cheerful, Knute Rockne, Notre Dame's famous football coach, tonight left for the Mayo Brothers clinic.

MOTHERS now learn value of MAGNESIA

Because it is so helpful in keeping babies and children healthy and happy, every mother should know about Phillips Milk of Magnesia.

This harmless, all-natural, all-natural preparation is most effective in relieving those symptoms of babies and children generally caused by souring food in the little digestive tract, such as sour-belching, frequent vomiting, feverishness, colic. As a mild laxative, it acts gently, but certainly, to open the little bowels in constipation, colds, children's diseases.

A teaspoonful of Phillips Milk of Magnesia does the work of half a pint of lime water in neutralizing curdled milk for infant feeding, and preventing hard curds. Its many uses for mother and child are fully explained in the interesting book "Useful Information." It will be sent you FREE. Write The Phillips Co., 117 Hudson St., New York, N. Y.

In buying, be sure to get genuine Phillips Milk of Magnesia. Doctors have prescribed it for over 50 years.

"Milk of Magnesia" has been the U. S. Registered Trade Mark of The Chas. H. Phillips; Chemical Co., and its predecessor, Chas. H. Phillips, since 1875.—adv.

Oh These Women!

By LEOLA ALLARD

A Broadway girl who has a bit of grape fruit juice in her eye, writes me to say that women don't have to be beautiful—all they have to be is beautiful.

I'll bet some beauty walked away with the one she wanted. Well, I'll tell you something like that. I've seen a woman press their friends with, but when it comes to settling down for the long long trail, believe you me, they pick someone who can talk and listen and make them happy.

Not that some beauties don't do that, but I've found that a girl has to give so much time and thought to it, she hasn't any left for anyone else.

Take the average working girl. She gets up, gets breakfast, primping up a bit, goes to work. Neal piled high. People to see. Other people's mistakes to correct, visitors to coax off so the boss won't be bothered.

Before she knows it—lunch time. She's lucky if she doesn't have to have the office boy bring in a ham sandwich so she can finish tying her letters.

At five o'clock she is so tired that it is with very little enthusiasm that she goes before the mirror to put on rouge and lip stick and arrange her hat. Home—more than likely in a packed subway or a crowded elevated. Hanging to straps or iron poles and being stepped on and jostled about doesn't improve the facial expression. It doesn't give a merry gleam to the eyes.

Then dinner and the chances are she is dead tired. Perhaps she sees a movie. Maybe she dances.

Now will someone tell me when, where and with what monkey a girl like this can get prettier to the point where she looks like a Peggy Joyce?

The woman who can give her time to massaging, beauty culture, hair tonics, scalp treatments, water waves, and eye rests, can look like a picture out of the advertising section of a magazine. But it takes time. And it takes money.

I don't blame men for falling for something that looks like that. But when he marries it and expects it to wait upon him, and be content to sit before the fire with him while he reads the papers, and no longer be paraded before the eyes of men, and to make cherry pies for him or see that they are made, and entertain his friends at dinner, he has a terrible fall coming, and only Lucifer could tell him what it is like.
