"I think," says he, "that if you will look it up you will find that Woodard is hardly a first string time."

--0--That's one sure way to get a comeback in this man's town; take even am ild crack at anything connected with one of the big colleges. When we wrote about the O. S. C. alibi on that game, we had before us a roster of Ralph Coleman's squad, list ing Woodard as a pitcher apparently on even terms with the rest; not a letterman, but there were only two letterman pitchers, Boultinghouse and Nightingale,

The point with us is that Wood- "sport model," Washington Shell varsity squad for those positions; in an upset. so we are confident that our description of the situation was the strong northwesterly wind

Speaking of politics - of course we weren't, but after seeing how many candidates for office there were at the sportsmen's banquet the other night, we assume we have that right-we doubt if Ed Bailey will get the votes of many old grads of Willamette. It was related at the aforesaid banquet that Bailey, once upon a time, was football coach at Albany college when it had but 16
