BUTTER, EGG PRICES ARE CONSTANT FRESHSTRAWBERRIES ON MARKET

12 Pint Crate of Ber- General Markets ries Sell Rapidly at $2.50 Point

PORTLAND, April 11 .- (AP) -Butter and eggs were still in a weak position, but prices remained unchanged. Reviewing the fruit and vegetable situation, the Portland bureau of the United States department of agriculture says: "First carlot arrivals of California strawberries were of excellent quality, and moved read- to $2 more. ily to retailers at $2.50 per crate of 12 pints. Quality was superior to the season's earlier L. C. L. offerings.

"Asparagus declined further, as result of continued heavy arrivals of California stock, which ranged from 3c to 6c per lb., depending on quality. Some California 'grass' is of decidedly coarse woody quality. Oregon-Washington asparagus declined to $1.25 per dozen 1-lb. bunches Receipts of Northwestern stock northwestern grass, next week.

Rhubard Supply Light "Rhubarb is in increasingly libslow at 3c per 1b. to retailers. "Cauliflower is cleaning up, @ 20c. with not carlot shipments from Roseburg, and both Oregon and 3.50. California 'flower' in light supply, at slightly stronger prices.

"After last week's strong potao market, a few days of comparative inactivity characterized the past week-end. Renewed activity and higher prices are shown today at Chicago and California terminal markets: also at Idaho and

Washington shipping points." NOTICE OF APPOINTMENT OF EXECUTOR
