'DOC' RILEY'S BOOSTERS MANY

Hubbard Editor Has Loyal Following Among Schools and Communities

HUBBARD, April 12—Hark! A drum is beating. It is Friday just before noon. League baseball games are on in the afternoon for both the high school boys and girls and for the grade boys. High school students are out for a pep serpentine march through the town and as they pass a neat little building, the Hubbard Enterprise office, they are halted by the editor, Dr. P. O. Riley, who delights them with a money donation toward athletic supplies, and after a hearty "rah! rah! rah! Riley! Senator!" the lines move on.

Dr. Riley, who is always interested in the school and its welfare, has lived in Hubbard four years. He is one of Hubbard's staunchest boosters and is interested in all advancement.

He is active in the work of the Hubbard Commercial club, having been its secretary for two years. Not only is Dr. Riley interested in his own community but he is an ardent community club organizer. He has been president of the Marion County Federated clubs for three years and has been a great factor in promoting the community spirit of co-operation throughout the Willamette valley.

Sponsors Talent Contests The Community club talent contests that caused such favorable comment throughout the country were created by him and he is giving much time now toward planning for the contests that are to be held next month by the communities.

Dr. Riley was the inspiration for the organization of the United West Side Community clubs of Portland with its membership of over 2000. This club was organized seven months ago.

Dr. Riley, who has been and is an indefatigable worker for all of the Willamette valley, has a legion of friends not only in Marion county but over the entire state. These friends who speak of the community club leader as "big hearted, friendly and honest Doc Riley" will rally to his support in his campaign for state senator of Marion county.

Dr. Riley, editor of the Hubbard Enterprise, is known as a fluent speaker, a well known writer and educator, and quoting the Cottage Grove Sentinel, "if elected to the senate, Marion county will have a real orator to plead its cause."

Dr. Riley was born in Boston, Mass., and will be 50 years old May 3, but says of himself, "I am growing younger each year." He is a graduate from the public schools, from Worcester "Tech," and from Harvard and spent six years in Europe studying. He received degrees Ph. D. and L. L. D.; taught in schools and colleges in Illinois; was a student of public speaking at the Emerson School of Oratory, Boston and was head of Romance Language, and History department at Viator college, Kankakee, Ill., when Paul Schissler, now coach at O. A. C. was in charge of athletics there.

In 1916 Dr. Riley and Mrs. Riley (Edith Knox), a graduate of Valparaiso university, were united in marriage.

In 1923 Dr. Riley was editor of the "Better Man," a psychological magazine, in Portland.

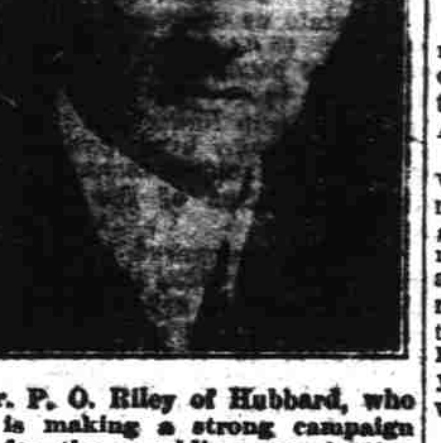

In 1924 he was night superintendent of Americanization classes in Jefferson high in Portland.

Dr. Riley is a Rotarian and an honorary member Oregon City Kiwanis club, has always been a staunch republican, is opposed to extravagant legislation and favors fewer laws and better enforcement. His campaign slogan is "On the job all the time for Marion county."
