Mrs. George Hubbs, president of the club, opened the meeting and disposed of routine business before she turned the afternoon over to Mrs. Benson, chairman of the program committee. Musical numbers were furnished by Miss Irene Morley, violinist, with Campbell as accompanist, and Mrs. J. C. Currie, vocal soloist, with Mrs. Edson Comstock as accompanist.

There will also be the usual artists' and students' programs which have been so greatly enjoyed in the former music week programs here. The schools, Mrs. Cameron said, would also have something special each day of music week.

Following Mrs. Cameron's talk, Mrs. Madeline Callin of the Oregon Statesman staff, told the club members just how a newspaper is made and how the news is gathered. Mrs. Callin also explained how some of the errors creep into the papers.

Mrs. Callin also spoke briefly on "How Woman's Club Justifies Its Existence." This, she said, the club did when it had in view a purpose outside of itself.
