4-H Club Workers Stage Exhibition at Public School

HUBBARD, April 18.—Prizes were offered to winners of the 4-H club members of the Hubbard school for exhibits at the school fair held at the school house on Thursday afternoon.

The sewing club exhibit was judged by Miss Audrey Wienken of the Domestic Art department of the Woodburn high school and by Mrs. Ella Stauffer and Mrs. George Knight both of Hubbard. Leona Hopkins won first prize, Leah Kromling second and Minnie Jones third.

Prof. Ronald Burnett of the Smith-Hughes department of Woodburn high school was judge for the pig club. First prize went to Lester Barrett, second to Boyd Brown and third to Maurice Spagle.

Frank Shanks of Hubbard was the judge for the chicken club. Bobby Beckman won first prize, William Hecker, second, and Kenneth Bidgood third.

The girls of the sewing club under the supervision of their leader, Mrs. Waldo Brown, entertained with a song and the 4-H club pledged after which the members, Minnie Jones and Betty Brown, gave a sewing demonstration.

Members of the boys' club with their leader, Prof. Arthur Myers, watched the judging of the pigs and chickens.

Professor Burnett was accompanied by several boys, pupils in his class at the Woodburn high school.

The art exhibit of the grade pupils was highly praised by the many patrons of the school who were present.

Mrs. Lorena Duncan's room, the first grade, entertained with songs and dramatization of a story "The Birds' Community Sing," with Phyllis Brown, Eula Mae Von Essen, Jimmie Stewart and Omer Bidgood, the leading characters.

Mrs. Arthur Myer's room, the third and fourth grades, had a reading club meeting with Marvin Beer, the president, and Earl Scott, the secretary. The president called the meeting to order and the secretary read the minutes of the previous meeting. The president explained that the club was an organization that met every Monday for the purpose of reading selections on different subjects. At the Thursday afternoon meeting history stories were read.

Mrs. Lottie Fry's room, the fifth and sixth grades, entertained with health exercise drills performed in time to music and directions furnished by a Victrola.

PUZZLED CENSUS TAKERS IN FILMLAND

The census man is on the job, and there is trouble ahead of him in Hollywood, when he begins counting noses in the famous movie colony. Unless he is careful he is likely to get his names all twisted on official records. The above segregation of stars of filmland with the names by which they are known on Uncle Sam's roster are a test for your memory of faces and names. An interesting thing is to carefully go over the picture, just as the census man must go over the colony, and try if you recognize your favorite film stars by these names.

PRISONER FORGES HIS OWN PARDON

TOPEKA, April 18.—(AP)—Convicted by a jury today of forging his way out of Leavenworth Federal penitentiary, Hayes Van Gorder had five years added to the long term which he must serve before his many sentences expire.

After less than 15 minutes deliberation, the jury returned a verdict finding the writ of habeas corpus which opened the prison gates for the 54 year old convict forger March 2, 1929, was his own handiwork and not that of officials.

Judge Richard J. Hopkins of the federal district court sentenced Van Gorder to five years on each of two counts, the sentences to run concurrently and after expiration of his present terms for mail order forgery convictions which his record shows aggregate approximately 20 years.

Van Gorder's record discloses he is serving sentences on commitments from federal courts in Missouri, Iowa, Wisconsin, Tennessee, Illinois and Kansas, all for forging money orders.

He was convicted today of falsifying a public record and of causing the record to be presented to the penitentiary officials, who released him.

An exhibit is to be held by the clubs in this district at the North Howell school on Friday, April 18, when County Club Leader William Fox will be present.

The work will be taken to Salem where a county fair and exhibit will be held at the Commercial club and prizes awarded, on Friday and Saturday, April 25-26. Mrs. Florence Oddie is club leader in this district. There are eight girls in her club.

JONES TALKS AT WOODBURN HIGH

WOODBURN, April 18.—William C. Jones, assistant professor of economics and history at Willamette university talked to the students of Woodburn high school Thursday morning on the cultural value of education.

His talk was exceptionally interesting and well received by the students. He talked especially on the "slang" habit. He said the value of being able to speak the English language well and that if we had the ability to speak good English, we would make a much better impression upon the persons with whom we come in contact with, than if we could not express ourselves well. The person who speaks good English characterizes himself as possessing culture, a quality which makes him more enjoyable to society and does not mean he is self-satisfied.

Following his talk to the students, he talked to the seniors on the importance of choosing the college which will give them what they want and not follow the dictations of others.

FOODSTUFFS USED AS TICKETS TO MOVIES

Listen, Mothers. If your young children ask for a few potatoes from the sack, or a can or two of vegetables, or maybe a jar of fruit today, don't say no.

Because, in the first place, those small children want to see the matinee at the Fox Elsinore this afternoon. In the second place, the vegetables or fruit which they ask for (and which will be used as admission to the movie) will be piled with contributions from scores of other children and given to the Associated Charities for distribution to children and parents who have a hard time finding food and to keep them from hunger.

The Fox Elsinore, through its Mickey Mouse club, has generously offered to collect food and vegetables, instead of nickels Saturday for its matinee, making this proffer as an Easter contribution to the unfortunates of the city.

AIR MAIL ROBBED BY CHICAGO GANG

CHICAGO, April 18.—(AP)—Robbers tonight held up a mail truck enroute to an air field to the postoffice and escaped with five sacks of registered air mail.

The mail had just arrived from Green Bay. Two automobile loads of robbers participated in the holdup. The value of the loot was undetermined.

Police received notification of the holdup from the driver who telephoned the news. They did not have his name. He said the robbers drove his truck to the western limits of the city and there released him. He found a telephone and gave the alarm.

The mail had just arrived in a plane from Appleton, Wis., on the Green Bay-Chicago route. Two automobile loads of armed men overhauled the driver and forced him into one of their cars, drove off with him and the loot. The driver was later liberated and reported the robbery to police.

The mail plane, piloted by A. R. Manning, Jr., arrived on the schedule of a Minneapolis plane which usually brings much valuable registered mail. The Minneapolis ship, however, was forced down at Lacrosse, Wis., by bad weather.

Postoffice officials thought the robbers were in search of the Minneapolis plane's shipment.

Police Lieut. Albert Mikes doubted if any of the major gangs in Chicago were responsible for the holdup.

THIEVES CARRY OFF AMITY HIGH SAFE

AMITY, April 18.—The Amity high school safe was stolen from the office on April 16 some time during the night.

The safe contained $2. It was taken through the office door, then through one of the large windows. In the assembly Prof. Murphy's desk was unlocked and contents were molested.

The safe was a present left to the school by the class of 1927.

About 10 o'clock Thursday morning several students found the safe by the side of a saw dust pile in the northeast corner of the athletic field.

Four dollars of junior class money was stolen from Miss Jasper's desk on Monday, April 14.

Champion Typist Is at Woodburn

WOODBURN, April 18.—Chester Soucek, holder of the world's school championship in typing, was at Woodburn high school Thursday morning and gave a demonstration to the student body.

He wrote several times and attained the rate of over 120 words per minute writing from straight copy. One of the interesting demonstrations was a concentration test where he wrote from the test where he wrote from the copy and at the same time answering questions and spelling words, the copy written on the machine being perfect. The exhibition Mr. Soucek gave of the most used and common system of typing method used by most high school students was the teacher is not looking in contrast to the perfect ease with which he wrote was an inspiration to all students who were taking typing to improve.
