Of interest to all was the sewing demonstration by Miss Minnie Jones and Miss Betty Brown, members of the 4-H sewing club of the Hubbard school.

Mrs. Maud Bligden, the secretary, was honored by the club members on her birthday anniversary with a handkerchief shower. "Economic Development" was the subject for study and response to roll call was made by naming a "favorite economy stunt."

The following papers were read: "Development of Eastern and Central Oregon" by Mrs. Sadie Rich; "Development of Western Oregon" by Mrs. Sadie Scholl and "Development of Southern Oregon" by Mrs. Edna Mack.

Naomi McKenzie, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Neva McKenzie, at the piano, sang, "Sweet Little Rose in Tennessee."

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Margaret Anderson who will be assisted by Mrs. Elizabeth Fobert, May 7.

Salem folk continue to find places for themselves in the life of the University of Oregon campus.

Phyllis Van Kimmel spoke recently at several living organizations on plans for junior week-end and Mother's day, which will be the Sunday of junior week-end. Miss Van Kimmel is running for secretary of the student body at present.

Naomi Moshberger, of Woodburn, is one of the senior girls selected as a senior cop for the April Frolic which will be held this week-end. The women chosen are physical education majors, with the primary purpose of keeping the men out of the Frolic which is strictly a woman's affair.

Miss Moshberger recently won her stripe for winning 1500 points in athletics. She has been president of Hermian club, physical education honorary this year.

Amity.—Mrs. Lynn Lancelotti presented to the public a splendid recital on Wednesday evening, April 16, at the Methodist church. Williamson, Mr. and Mrs. Kohler, West Salem; Miss Mildred and Miss Bertha Williamson, Louis Bartruff and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Burns, all Salem; and Victor Williamson, Mrs. Kohler, Mrs. Burns and Miss Mildred and Miss Bertha Williamson.

Liberty.—The Liberty Woman's club met Thursday afternoon with Mrs. W. W. Westhouse. The completion of the pruned booklet was discussed. Delegates for the county Federation were appointed. It was decided to have a picnic luncheon at the May meeting at the home of Mrs. Harold Lane. An interesting flower program was given by the club members. There was a plant exchange also. Delicious refreshments were served by the April committee, Mrs. Seeger, Mrs. Olden and Mrs. Westhouse.

Rainbows Plan Formal Dance May 9

One of the big events of the spring season for Chadwick chapter assembly No. 3, order of the Rainbow for girls, will be the formal dance for Rainbow girls of May 9, to be given in the social rooms of the Masonic temple.

Miss Jean Eastridge is general chairman of the arrangements. The head of the decorating committee is Miss Isabel George, and assisting her is Miss Margaret Evans, Miss Lois Wilkes, Miss Helen Olson, and Miss Mira Belt.

The refreshment committee is headed by Miss Betty Mae Bartons, and assisting her will be Miss Esther Gibbard, Miss Velma May, Miss Betty Vaughn, and Miss Alta Johnson.

Alliance Has Luncheon Meeting

The Friday meeting of the Unitarian Woman's alliance was an interesting social event. Luncheon was served at 1 o'clock with covers placed for 40 members and guests.

At the close of the luncheon, the hostess of the occasion, R. Sheriff's play, "Journey's End," was presented equally as interesting to the members of the Alliance as it has proved for many thousands the world over. It was "discovered" by Maurice Brown until recently a member of the senior high school, Woodburn, Oregon.

Among those who are going and the houses at which they will stay are: Margaret Wagner, as guest of the Rappa Kappa Gamma house; Yvonne Smith at the Gamma Phi Beta; at the Sigma Kappa will be Margaret Engle, Velma May, Evelyn Ross, and Grace Holman; Jeanne Lundford, Charlotte Brown at the Alpha Delta Pi house; Gertrude Winslow, Margaret Heitler and Dorothy Moore at the Alpha Omicron Pi house; Phyllis Day and Fae Driscoll at the Alpha Gamma Delta house.

Mrs. E. R. White is hostess. An attractive bridge afternoon was that for which Mrs. E. R. White was hostess at her home Friday afternoon. The best rooms were attractively arranged with lilacs and doricium.

Guests for this afternoon of cards were Mrs. L. A. Tumbleton, Mrs. E. B. Gabriel, Mrs. T. Franklin Tipton who held high score, Mrs. Craig Long, Mrs. Carol Long, Mrs. B. Seely, Mrs. L. B. Endicott, and Mrs. Sheldon Sackett.

Hazel Green — Thursday evening the cast of the play, given recently at the Community club meeting, gathered at the J. V. Lohman home for a social evening. Miss Alma Stauffer, who coached the play and Mrs. Lahman were hostesses. Games and stunts were enjoyed until a late hour when refreshments were served.

Betrothal Told At Dinner Party

A pretty betrothal announcement of the season was that made at the Delta Phi fraternity house Friday night at dinner and at the Alpha Psi Delta fraternity house at the same time by Miss Mary Allen of Forest Grove and Howard Miller of Hood River.

Just before the announcement was made at the Delta Phi house, Miss Lillian Scott sang "At Dawn" and then then room was darkened and an arrangement of lighted candles was carried in which when Miss Allen and Mr. Miller.

Both Mr. Miller and Miss Allen have been prominent in the school life of Willamette. Miss Allen is song queen this year and is a major in English and music. Mr. Miller is house manager and during years past, called at her home to present a lovely basket of spring flowers, and a framed poem, entitled "Alice McIntosh," written by Kate Ronde, a Portland teacher and former student of the normal school.

The evening was spent in conversation and reminiscence covering the years of Miss McIntosh's residence in Monmouth. She came here in September, 1911, from Marysville, Wisconsin, where she had been principal of schools for 11 years.

Middle Grove.—The pupils of the upper room of Middle Grove school gave a birthday surprise party for their teacher, Clyde Hoffer.

The evening was spent in playing games and a much enjoyed taffy pull.

Those who participated in this jolly affair were Blanche Steinke, Lola Hammer, Ralph Wagers, Leo Satter, Kathleen Rock, Esther Hammer, Ruben Skubovius, Darle Dudley, Melvin LaDue, Ila Hoffer, Katherine Scharf, Santoney Ramig, Caramae Hoffer, Carmegene Hoffer, Mr. and Mrs. Hoffer, and Jerome Sheridan.

One of the interesting things that the Salem Rainbow has ahead of it for the next week is the visit to the Woodburn Rainbow order the evening of April 22 at which time the Woodburn order will have its initiation ceremony.

Etiquette

By ROBERTA LEE

Q. When a man is introduced to the hostess, should she extend her hand?
A. Yes, always.
Q. If one wishes to take the hostess of a house party a gift, what would be appropriate?
A. A book, candy, cigarettes, flowers or magazines.
Q. Why is rice thrown on the bride and groom at the end of a wedding?
A. Rice is a symbol of prosperity and is therefore used as an appropriate means of conveying good wishes.
