

Salem Heights Community Club To Be Host to Contestants

WINNERS VIE IN CITY FINALS

Elsinore Theatre Here to Be Host at Annual Event Within Fortnight

SALEM HEIGHTS, April 22.—The Salem Heights Community club is working hard as an entrant in the Federation of Community club contest, to be held at the Salem Heights hall Friday, April 25th. This is a community club contest that is held by the federation every year.

Each community in Marion county will enter a stunt and is allotted 20 minutes for it. After this they will be judged, this being the elimination contest.

The communities who are fortunate in being chosen as worthy will then enter the final contest to be staged at the Elsinore theatre two weeks hence, wherein they will compete for the federation grand prize.

It is understood that there are four places in the county in which the preliminary contests will be staged and Salem Heights is designated as the point of the district allotted to this part of the county. The community club is arranging and making preparations for the large attendance which always goes to these contests.

MURRAY'S BACK TO FARM FROM SOUTH

People Return to Silvertown After Three Years in California

SILVERTOWN, April 21.—Mr. and Mrs. Connell Murray and four children returned Sunday night from Los Angeles, Calif., where they have been for the past three and a half years.
