The Willamette university basegame in seven starts, defeating ball squad departed early Friday the St. Louis Cardinals 6 to 1 in morning for Tacoma, where this afternoon it will play its first Northwest conference game of the season against College of Puget Sound.

> Players taken on the trip by Coach "Spec" Keene were Scales, Deetz, Hauk, Erickson, Trachsel, Gibson, Cardinal, Adams, Moore, Gill, Wilson, Peterson and Grant, How strong Puget Sound will prove to be, is difficult to judge as little information about the northern Methodist outfit has reached Salem. However, Gillihan, who was Puget Sound's leading pitcher a year ago, is still on the job and his presence guarantees that the Bearcats will not have things all their own way.

Willamette beat Puget Sound here 15 to 6 a year ago, but that 8 10 .444 | was after the Washington team had used up its pitchers on earlier games of a barnstorming trip. Even so, Gillihan held the local team to three runs after he got Anyway we're going to have another wrestling show next Wednesday night with a couple of well matched principals and not, we are glad to say, the Police Gazette rules. We don't know how most of the fans feel about it, but we have a feeling we're going to like this match a lot better than the last one, unless something goes wrong.

-0-But, Mr. "Close Student of Sports," we would like to assure you that there was absolutely no collusion between the three sports writers and we note that our competitor across the street dealt with the "match" less charitably than we did. You may call us "cake-eaters" from behind your barricade of anonymous authorship, but you miss the mark. We did not object to the match as too rough; that's up to the boys who took part. We won't flinch from watching it if they can stand doing it. Our objection is threefold: The men were hopelessly mismatched; one of them didn't give the fans his best (Karasick could have thrown McCann out the window any time he chose), and it wasn't wrestling nor any other thing that we care to call

BARRACKMAN AND M'CANN MATCHED

Wildcat McCann and Mervin Barrackman will be the principals in the wrestling card main event at the armory next Wednesday night, it was announced Friday by Harry Plant, matchmaker.

These grapplers are almost exactly matched as to weight, and both are well known to Salem fans. McCann is the tough lad who had the temerity to challenge Al Karasick, and the fans admire his nerve and gameness if not his judgment.

Barrackman is known as the trainer of the wrestling bear as well as a grappler of no mean ability himself. Whether or not the bear will have a place on the program has not yet been announ-
