The season's heaviest asparagus loadings from the northwest were recorded yesterday, with 7 cars from Washington, and one car from Portland and The Dalles.
California's shipments are light, and the asparagus market is fairly good at eastern points. Portland prices are higher.

Recent strawberry arrivals.

Recent strawberry arrivals from California range in quality from very poor to good. Some berries show a percentage of decay, due to heavy rains at growing dispersion of dispe tricts, this week. Prices range from $1.50 to $2.50 per crate.
