BUTTER WEAK ON PORTLAND MART

Winesap Apples From Washington Come to Portland

PORTLAND, April 26-(AP) -With supplies growing, butter prices gave evidence of closing the week barely steady. Increase in production sems to be an acute problem. Eggs were barely steady.

Reviewing the fruit and vegetable situation, the Portland bureau of the U. S. Department of Agriculture says: "A feature of Portland's fruit supply this week was a few motortruck loads of small C grade Winesap apples from central Washington. This fruit moved to retailers at $1.50 per box. Extra fancy Winesaps of desirable sizes continue to sell readily at $3.00 per box and higher. "Strawberries from California display considerably improved quality and advanced to $3 per crate. PINEHURST, N. C. (AP)-The battle for places on the United States Davis Cup team for 1930 gets under way at the twelfth annual united north and south tennis tournament here April 14-19. This is the tenth annal Mason and Dixon tournament at White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., the following week have been designated as official tryout events by the Davis Cup committee of the United States Lawn Tennis associa-

Such stars as Johnny Doeg, Santa Monica, Calif., Giant; George Lott, of Chicage; John Van Ryn, Orange N. J.; Fritz Mercur, Bethlehem, Pa., and Wilmer Allison, Austin, Texas, will be out to capture the singles honors and thereby clinch a place in Uncle Sam's international lineup. Doeg and Lott, the country's third and fourth ranking players, respectively, stand out as the logical favorites unless Frank Hunter, the veteran who ranks second only to Bill Tilden, takes it into his head to enter one or both of these tournaments to try conclusions with the younger generation once again. Hunter, like Tilden, has au-nounced his retirement from Davis cup play, however, and will not be available for the team.
