The idea of the tea was unique replica of the national Y. W. C. A. convention being held Friday in Detroit. The national convention will be in progress a week all told, but the program Friday for the tea was just that of Friday in Detroit.

Mrs. Elizabeth K. Gallaher impersonated Mrs. John Hanna, president of the national Y. W. C. A., and introduced the various important personages impersonated by the local board members. Mrs. W. D. Clarke as the president of the national association, gave the address of welcome and presented in elaborate manner the "key to the city." To this Mrs. Gallaher
