By MRS. MAUD BIDGOOD

HUBBARD, April 30.-Hubbard pioneers were honored at a pioneer meeting held at the city hall Monday night. A crowd including Governor and Mrs. A. W. Norblad, attended the meeting which was sponsored by the Hubbard Woman's

A display of relics included many articles more than 180 years old. The speaker's table was of mahogany and belongs to Robert Poinsett. The table is more than 100 years old. The chair in which the governor sat was over 50 years old and belongs to Mrs. Christina Stauffer. There was the "shell and bomb," loaned to the exhibit by Aurora, which is one of few such musical instruments in existence and was carried at the front of the band in the Aurora colony days. There were many articles that had been brought to Oregon

Norblad Cheered Governor Norblad, the speaker for the occasion, was repeatedly cheered as he painted a vivid word picture of Oregon as a land of beauty and a land abounding in resources. He called attention to Custer Post, G. A. R. will turn the fact that Oregon not only has over the charter and rituals to sunshine but that it has rain too; the department commander, that is a state well balanced and Charles True of Sherwood, and self efficient, thus making it an ideal place in which to live. In mons of Newberg; and their guns, his review of the early history of Oregon, Governor Norblad gave interesting glimpses of the heroic part played by the pioneers.

Miss Henrietta Wolfer, a member of the Oregon Normal school faculty, gave a history of the pioneer days of Hubbard and vicinclouds cleared away in time Monity pointing out many land marks day morning. and reciting incidents connected with each. Miss Wolfer. who is a daughter of George Wolfer, was born in Hubbard and has known many of these builders of Hubbard history since childhood.

Stage Setting Attractive A covered wagon with a background of fir trees, symbolic of the old Oregon trail, made an effective stage setting. Miss Marie de Lespinasse and Miss Dorothy Scholl, dressed in pioneer costume and seated in the covered wagon, sang "Oh Susannah." Helen and Anna Knight entertained with a minuet. The girls

Mrs. Neva McKenzie, the president of the Woman's club, had charge of the meeting. Many Pioneers Attend Among the many pioneers present were Robert Poinsett, 97 1/2 years of age and Hubbard's oldest resident; Miss Mary Goudy, 79 years of age, and Hubbard's oldest resident as to the length of time of residence, having lived here for more than 75 years; and the former owner of the Hubbard Mineral Springs; and Mr. and Mrs. Byron Grimm of the Authe decorations. The Eola or- rora district. All of the above mentioned pioneers were introduced by Mrs. McKenzie and each one was received with an applause as they rose in response. Miss Goudy and Mr. Grimm each gave a short talk telling incidents of the early days of Hubbard. Old Relics Inspected At the close of the meeting a social hour was held when the relics were inspected and punch and wafers served. The old oaken bucket idea was the scheme for the decorations at the refreshment booth. The punch was the rocky Macleay roads that dipped out of the well by a goard dipper. Mrs. Vera Boje, Mrs. Blanche Brown, and Mrs. Sadie Scholl were members of the refreshment committee. Other committees Mrs. Louise Grimps, Stauffer, and Mrs. Beckman, relic display; Mrs. Sadie Rich and Mrs. Eunice Braden, decorating, and Mrs. Maud Bidgood, Mrs. Sadie Scholl and Mrs. Anna Stauffer, program.
