Church Wedding Impressive Event

A BRILLIANT wedding was that which united Miss Prudence Patterson, daughter of Mrs. Edward G. Patterson, and Frank J. Chapman, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Chapman, Saturday night at 8 o'clock in the First Presbyterian church, Rev. D. V. Poling of Corvallis, officiating.

The dignity of the formal lines of the Presbyterian church was charmingly accentuated with the formal lines of tall ferns, and Easter lilies which flanked the altar and back of which burned slender ivory colored tapers in tall candelabra. The use of many small flowers in delicate pastel shades and massed in large arrangements in the church made a charming atmosphere for the impressive ceremony.

Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Carlton Williams of The Dalles sang, accompanied by Prof. Frank Churchill. Following this Prof. Churchill played the wedding procession and the bride entered on the arm of Karl Steiner who gave her in marriage. They were preceded by the matron of honor, Mrs. Dolph Craig, sister of the bride, and the bridesmaids, Miss Josephine Baumgartner and Miss Barbara Chapman.

Mrs. Chapman wore a gown of eggshell satin, princess style, with billowy ruffles of chiffon set on the skirt with tiny silk rose buds. Her cap was of lace caught at the back with a chiffon train veil. She carried a bride's bouquet of ivory shaded sweetpeas and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Craig, as matron of honor, wore a gown of peach chiffon with horsehair braid hats, and slippers. The bridesmaids wore turquoise blue chiffon and Miss Chapman wore soft yellow chiffon. Each wore horsehair braid hats, slippers to complement their frocks, and both the matron of honor and the bridesmaids wore double windows of pastel shaded sweetpeas, and roses. Mrs. Patterson, mother of the bride, wore cream lace. The bride and her attendants met the groom and the best man, Carl C. Hoff, at the altar, and here the impressive single ring ceremony was beautifully read by Rev. Poling.

The ushers were Milton Steiner, Dolph Craig, Frank Deckebach, Jr., and Herbert Darby of Portland.

Following the wedding ceremony a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Waters. During the first hour Mrs. Lynn Chapman of Dallas and Mrs. George Waters presided; Miss Beulah and Miss Prudence Patterson of The Dalles, aunts of Mrs. Chapman, presided the second hour.

Those who assisted with the serving were Miss Eunice Robertson, Mrs. Milton Steiner, Mrs. Wallace Carson, Mrs. Frank Deckebach, Jr., Mrs. Rex Adolph, Mrs. Kenneth Powers, Mrs. Kenneth Wilson, Mrs. Wolcott Buren, and Mrs. Herbert Darby of Portland.

Mrs. Karl Steiner, Mrs. Merrill Moore of Portland, and Mrs. John Caughell assisted about the rooms.

Mr. and Mrs. Chapman left Saturday night for a tour of the south. They will be at home in the Royal Court apartments after the first of June.

Mrs. Chapman attended Oregon State college where she was affiliated with the Kappa Alpha Theta sorority. Mr. Chapman attended the University of Oregon where he was a member of the Phi Gamma Delta fraternity. Both young people are graduates of Salem high school and have been very popular in the younger society circles of the city.

The ceremony will be performed before a large double window on either side of which will be tall baskets of snowballs. Between the baskets and against the windows will be tall palms. A profusion of tulips in many shades will be used about the guest rooms to give a colorful note to the pretty event.

Proceeding the ceremony De Vere Penholler of Dallas accompanied by Robert Alexander will sing "Because" and "All for You." Following this Mr. Alexander will play as a professional Mendelssohn's wedding march and the bride-to-be attended by Miss Ruth Clark as bridesmaid, will meet the groom-to-be, attended by Victor ones as best man, before the improvised altar of flowers and palms.

The bride-to-be will be gowned in an ivory satin made in Princess style self-trimmed with deep bouquins and reaching to the ankles. She will wear a bandou of rhinestones and carry a bride's bouquet of butterfly roses and white sweetpeas.

Miss Clark will wear a pastel green frock of crepe and will carry a shower bouquet of pink and orchid sweetpeas.

AN OUTSTANDING meeting from the standpoint of interest to the members and public as well be the open meeting to be held Tuesday night at 8 o'clock in the auditorium room of the city library. Miss Kathryn Gunnell is in charge of the program which has for its topic, photography both old and new.

This will be the last meeting of the year and is of great importance to the members because at this time the officers for next year will be elected. It is urged that all be present at 7:30 o'clock in order that the business of the evening may be gotten out of the way of the lecture period.

In the program hour there will be in display an interesting study of both old and new photographs. The old work will date back as far as 50 years ago. The new will bring out all the new effects and from this display Charles Butterworth of Portland will draw his lecture which will be explanatory and creative. Mr. Butterworth is dean of the Pacific particularly fitted to develop the subject of photography for the layman.

The balance of the evening following Mr. Butterworth's talk will be taken up with the showing of the unusual work which can be accomplished with the small moving picture machine in the home.
