

LUMBER CAMPS ARE CLOSED

Slump in Market Forces Shut Down of Small Camps

MEHAMA, May 7.—The Crabtree Lumber company is closing down on Saturday for an indefinite period. Monday was the last day of work for the timber fallers and by Saturday logging will be finished.

Dick Phillips was badly cut and bruised about the head and face when he was hit by a choker while working on the line for the Crabtree Lumber company. He was rushed to a Stayton physician where he is reported as getting along as well as could be expected.

Kings Valley Closes

About 70 men were thrown out of employment Monday morning when the Christensen Brothers' saw mill closed down for an indefinite period of time.

The mill will not resume operations until the marketing conditions become more settled. Many of the smaller mills in this community are also closing down.

WOODBURN PLANS FRESHMEN DAY

WOODBURN, May 7.—Invitations have been sent out to all the grammar schools near Woodburn who send students to Woodburn high to attend the annual freshman day which will be held May 15.

This year the plans for this event are in charge of the Torch Honor society and all the committees for arrangements have been appointed. At least one hundred prospective freshmen are expected to attend. All of the different departments will put on exhibitions and exhibits and the eighth graders will also attend classes. They will be entertained with a program and a pep rally and in the afternoon there will be a grade school baseball game and the second contest between Silverton and Woodburn high schools.

The committees and programs, Maxine Giesy, Kenneth Gillanders; athletics, Evelyn Blashko, Bill Darby; exhibitions, Mildred Grim, Artie Owings; invitations, Dora Tresidder, Wilbur Warster and registration, Berneta Thompson and Jane Yergen.

Students to Have Theatre Party For University Drama

WOODBURN, May 7.—For the past two years it has been the custom of the junior class to entertain the seniors with a theatre party since the classes have outgrown the banquet facilities of the school and this year this social event will take place May 23.

The University of Oregon play will present the play, "The Importance of Being Earnest," in which Helen Allen, senior at the university and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Allen of Woodburn will take part. Each year it is the efforts of the present junior class to outdo the preceding junior class in the way of decorations. The committee in charge of the decorations this year consists of Julia Bell Austin, Gelta Mae Hunt, Freda Nelson, Glenn Wilson, Clinton Nendel, Jessie Sims, Pat Courtney and Virgil Dirksen. The advertising committee is Harold Presthus, Jack Guisa and Maxine Giesy; program, Arthur Presthus and Mable Halverson; business, Gorda Klamp, and Harold Schooler; refreshments, Jane Yergen, Betty Jane Proctor and Oma Galey.

DALLAS, May 7.—Dallas high school students won honors in many activities recently.

The boys quartet won first place in Division B in the state music tournament at Forest Grove. This competition was divided into groups according to the size of the schools. Mrs. Alice Wright is director of the glee club which includes Norman Classen, Pete Ediger, Leander Quiring and Irvin Plett.

The Dallas high typing team won the cup and banner for speed at the 1930 state typing contest at Corvallis. In addition Katherine Smith was awarded a gold medal for the best individual typist in the amateur division, with Alice Wiens winning second place and a silver medal.

Doris Newbill won the gold medal for speed in the novice division and the right to compete in the international contest at Richmond, Virginia in the fall.

Mrs. Ruth Turner is the coach of the champion typists.

RAE TO REPRESENT NEWSPAPER GROUP

The Oregon State Editorial Association, of which The Statesman is a member, will be represented at the annual conventions of the Newspaper Association Managers, Inc., and the Advertising Federation of America in Washington, D. C., during May. Arne G. Ray, of Eugene, secretary and field manager of the Oregon Association, will represent Oregon newspaper publishers at the two conventions.

The National Editorial association executives together with field managers of the country's press associations will conduct a Country Newspaper departmental at the A. F. A. convention. Displays and exhibits of country newspapers will be held, and the membership of the federation, which is made up of advertising, sales and other business executives, will be given opportunities to learn about the reader interest in and the advertising value of the country newspapers of the United States and Canada.

The advertising convention, which has been held in the capitals of Great Britain and Germany, will be held this year in the American National capital, May 18-21, following the convention of the newspaper association managers, May 13-16.

Schools Combine For Program

JEFFERSON, May 7.—The Looney Butte and Parrish Gap schools are joining in a program observing Oregon Day and Music week, which will be given at the Looney Butte school house Friday evening.

Mrs. Carmalite Weddle and Mrs. W. L. Gulvin, the teachers, have arranged a very interesting program consisting of songs, recitations, essays and musical numbers. Miss Marguerite Looney will tell interesting anecdotes of early times in the history of the two communities.

Eoff Electrical company of Salem has offered to install a radio for the evening.

FRUIT GROWERS DISCUSS CROPS

Hubbard Association Reports Heavy Berry Yield

HUBBARD, May 7.—A basket luncheon was enjoyed by members of the Hubbard Co-operative Fruit Grower's association at the semi-annual meeting at the city hall Saturday.

After luncheon a meeting was held with George Hall, the president of the association, in charge. The Woodburn Fruit Growers' association was represented by John Ramage, the president, and Ray Glatt, the manager, both of whom took part in the discussions.

According to reports, a bumper strawberry crop is expected. Ripe berries of the early variety of strawberries have already been picked at the W. Hoffman berry farm. Frank Barrett reports many strawberries nearly ripe on his farm.

D. A. McArthur, manager of the berry house and also secretary of the association, says that the Logan berries in this section seems to promise a fair crop.

Mert Crittenden has given the berry house a new coat of paint and the building is in fine shape for the opening day which will be soon in order to receive the goose-berry crop.

LINBECKS MOVE FROM AUBURN FARM

AUBURN, May 7.—After residing in this community for ten years A. L. Lindbeck has traded his property here for a modern seven room home, at 1575 South High street, Salem. The family will be greatly missed in this community as they took an active part in all community enterprises. They are not leaving here until August first.

The Auburn Women's club will meet at the home of Mrs. Ben H. Hawkins May 15. Mrs. A. L. Lindbeck has charge of the program, which will be musical. Roll call is to be answered by amusing stories from noted musicians. Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Lindbeck entertained at their home on Auburn Lane, Monday evening in honor of music week.
