

JEFFERSON TO STAGE COMEDY

High School Seniors Will Present "Cyclone Sally" Tonight

JEFFERSON, May 7.—The senior class of the Jefferson high school presents "Cyclone Sally" Thursday night, May 8, at the Masonic hall. The price will be 35c and 15c.

The cast of characters includes Jack Webster, owner of the estate, Donald Boyer, Reggie Manners, a young Englishman, Dallas Harris, Jim Jenkins, a suitor of Jenny's, Max Myers, Willie Clump, a suitor with a bad memory, Ansel Burton.

Sally Graham, Cyclone Sally, Elizabeth Anger, Ruth Thatcher, a peach Reggie would like to pick, Mary Louise Fontaine, Jenny Thatcher, caretaker of the estate, Winnie Hartley, Effie Vanden, a pretty neighbor, Audrey Tiedeman, Vivian Vernon, a society woman, Bernice Lake.

The junior class will present special numbers between acts of the play.

G. H. BEEBE RITES AT WOODBURN

WOODBURN, May 7.—Funeral services for George H. Beebe, late city recorder, were held at the Masonic temple Wednesday at 2:30 under the auspices of the Masonic lodge and the O. E. S.

The Masonic lodge conducted the ritual and Rev. Henry G. Hanson of Independence talked briefly. Pallbearers were F. W. Settemier, H. L. Gill, George Beach, Charles Ogle, C. F. Whitman and C. J. Eddy. Music was by Mrs. J. W. Richards, Mrs. V. D. Bain, Mrs. Holcomb and Mrs. Harold Austin.

George H. Beebe was born in the state of New York. On October 24, 1887, he married Emeline Grim and resided in Hubbard until 1901 when he moved to Woodburn. During his residence here he held responsible positions in the city government, being elected city recorder two different times about 25 years ago and serving in that office since 1924. Mrs. Beebe was a member of Woodburn lodge A. F. & A. M. and of Evergreen chapter No. 41, O. E. S.

He is survived by his daughter Mrs. Harry Grubb and daughter Gladys and a son Seth Beebe and daughter Wilma. Other than his relatives, a host of thoughtful friends mourn the death of such a kind and benevolent citizen.

Five hundred orphans in two Oklahoma state homes are given a sack of candy each Saturday under a new ruling of the state board of affairs.

"Old Tyme Concert" Is Presented at Silverton As Music Week Event

SILVERTON, May 7.—All Silverton music lovers were able to do so gathered at the Eugene Field auditorium Tuesday night to listen to the "Old Tyme Concert" given there under the auspices of the Silverton Women's club. Large baskets of golden Scotch broom and purple hickory arranged on the stage by the decorating committee composed of Betty Kleinsorge, Jane Opsund, and Frances Stewart. The Girl Reserves, assisted by their directors, Miss Sibly Wells and Miss Olivia De Hilde, were in charge of the ushering.

The program opened with the audience, led by Rev. H. L. Foss, singing "Swanee River" and "Old Back Joe." Rev. Foss prefaced the singing by a few explanatory remarks. The singing was accompanied by Mrs. Edson, who stock at the piano, Fred Baker and Harry Riches, violins, and W. E. Satchell and M. C. Storvick, flutes.

Following this number Mrs. George Hubbs, president of the Women's club, spoke briefly on Music Week, closing with introducing Mrs. Gertrude Cameron, local chairman of music week and also chairman of the evening. Mrs. Hubbs presented Mrs. Cameron with a bouquet from the Women's club. Mrs. Cameron was charmingly costumed as Martha Washington.

Prize Winners Heard

The first two solo numbers on the evening's program were a vocal solo by Frances Nelson, who won second place in the Forest Grove tournament, and a violin solo by Beryl Ottaway, also winner of second place at Forest Grove. Miss Faye Sparks accompanied Miss Nelson, and Mrs. Lowell Davenport, Miss Ottaway.

Max Scriber, garbed as a pirate, accompanied by Eugenia Russell, sang two well-received numbers. Mr. Scriber's number was followed by two selections by the Girl's Trio composed of Beatrice and Kathleen Booth and Percie Miles.

Mrs. Glenn Howe, in a beautiful old-time Paris gown, gave a group of polkas, and Mrs. Will Krenz, dressed as a Hawaiian dancer sang two Hawaiian songs.

The audience then sang "Junita" and "Annie Laurie." Mrs. Zella Parish, lovely in a colonial costume, sang "Silver Threads among the Gold" and "Put on Your Old Gray Bonnet." She was accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Glenn Howe.

W. R. Tomlinson delighted the audience with selections on his bag pipes. Mrs. J. C. Currie, with Mrs. Edson Comstock at the piano, sang two old numbers. Mrs. LaVerne Rich Rixon, in a costume of the "Gay Nineties," gave a group of piano solos.

Mrs. Alvin Legard, now of Oregon City but formerly of Silverton and Salem, wore an old-time wedding dress, and sang "I'll Take You Back Kathleen" and "Sweet Bunch of Daisies." Mrs. Cameron accompanied Mrs. Legard. Martha Doerfler, attired

WOODBURN HAS COMMUNITY MEET

WOODBURN, May 7.—The community musical held at the high school auditorium Monday evening was thoroughly enjoyed by the huge crowd which attended.

Much of the success of the evening is due to the efforts of the local chairman, Mrs. C. C. Geor who arranged and presented the program. She was assisted by members of the various schools and churches taking part and by the girl scouts. Mrs. Geor also publicly thanked V. D. Bain for permission to use the auditorium, to Howard Sayre for his services, Pearl Emery for the work of her high school commercial department and to the press for their cooperation.

The organization presenting numbers were Church of God, primary school, grammar school, St. Luke's Catholic church, Presbyterian church, Harmony club, high school, Christian church, Episcopal church, Free Methodist church, St. Benedict's school, Methodist church and Lutheran church.

A great deal of enthusiasm was given the audience by the opening band numbers by the high school band led by Dr. A. F. De Lespinaise of Hubbard and the singing by the audience led by Dr. H. C. Stover of Salem.

POLK BANKERS MEET AT INDEPENDENCE

INDEPENDENCE, May 7.—The Polk county bankers association, met here Friday 2, being guests of the Farmers State bank, and First National bank.

Ira Powell of Monmouth, president of the association presided. After a banquet a short business session, was held. The rest of the evening was spent in addresses and talks by some of the visiting members.

It was decided at this meeting that after first of June the banks would close at noon on Saturdays.

JEFFERSON PASTOR RETURNED FOR YEAR

JEFFERSON, May 7.—The annual conference session of the Evangelical church held at Vernonia last week was one of the most interesting held, under the leadership of Bishop J. S. Stamm D. D.

Very few changes were made by the stationing committee in stationing the pastors. The members and friends of the local Evangelical church are glad to learn that Rev. A. W. Oliver returned to serve as pastor for another year.

Mrs. and Mrs. Lloyd Jarman and Mr. and Mrs. Earl E. Cook spent the weekend at the Cascadia Soda springs. They report the road through the mountain as being in excellent condition.

Mrs. Nellie Warden and nephew Mr. Bert Van Valkenberg made a business trip to Salem Tuesday. Sunday evening while Clayton Neer was driving to Turner, his car got out of control as he was passing another car, turning completely over, almost demolishing it and seriously injuring Mr. Neer. He was immediately picked up by a passing motorist and taken to his home.

KEIZER CLUB TO HAVE PROGRAM

KEIZER, May 7.—A splendid program is being arranged for the meeting of the Keizer community club Friday evening. The committee in charge is Mrs. David Sancy, Mrs. Charlotte Jones and Mrs. Clarence Poole.

This will be the last club meeting of the year and is the time for election of officers for the ensuing year. The community is especially invited to attend.

ENJOY BEACH TRIP

SPRING VALLEY, May 7.—Ethel Ida and Dewey McKinney accompanied their cousin, Wayne Wilkinson of Salem, Sunday on a motor trip to the beaches. They reported the weather was very agreeable at the beach during the day. Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Wallace of Eola and Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Paxton of Brush College were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred McKinney.

Cross-Word Puzzle

By EUGENE SHEFFER

1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10
11				12	13			14
15			16				17
18			19			20
21		22		23	24		25
26			27		28		29		30
	31			32		33		34
35	36		37		38		39		40
		41							42
43		44		45		46			47
	48			49		50			51
52				53				54
									55
56									57
									58

- ACROSS

1—place where merchandise is exposed for sale

6—miscellaneous collection

11—date of death of a person

14—gift of money, as to a servant

16—variety of chalice

17—celestial body

18—prefix from pertaining to speech

19—web-footed birds larger than ducks

21—mend

22—place

23—borders

24—ornament

25—of used in titles

26—every

27—pace

28—symbol for sodium

29—double

30—shoot from ambush

31—sash worn by
- VERTICAL

1—spin

2—wing-footed animal

3—bite, as of fruit

4—perform

5—indestructible unit

6—join

7—near

8—hawk-like

9—effaced

10—cylindrical

11—law subordinate to a constitution

12—alternative

13—symbol for selenium

14—mountain nymph

15—small two-winged flies having long, many jointed antennae

16—grow old

17—runs rapidly before the wind, as a ship

18—invigorate

19—grass dried for fodder

20—fasten

21—pulpy edible highly esteemed as a vegetable

22—work

23—prepared for publication

24—one of the epics of Homer

25—strong vehicles for transporting heavy articles

26—note of the scale

27—hypothetical force

28—steep or

29—depression between two mountain peaks

30—like

31—exclamation of surprise
- Here with is the solution to yesterday's puzzle.
- TIME PET CAME
ADAM ERE AVID
NET ENID DERI
ESSENCE BERET
ODE SORA
PLANS REN GOD
AIRS SON RENO
RET HIP RISEN
EMIT SRI CASES RENEGES
ARIL LINT AVE
MEAT ESS EVER
PLANS EKE LENE

MICKEY MOUSE

"POLLY AND HER PALS"

TILLIE, THE TOILER

LITTLE ANNIE ROONEY

TOOTS AND CASPER

"The Fox Keeps the Wolf From Their Door"

By IWERKS

By CLIFF STERRETT

By RUSS WESTOVER

By BEN BATSFORD

By JIMMY MURPHY